THE UN WHITE HORSEMAN

Uncovering the open secret that was evident since the day it started

D.A. D'ANTONIO

ESCHATOLOGICAL CHRISTIAN REFORMATION OF THE 21ST CENTURY

Preface

Before the reader begins to go through the contents of this theological expository document they are strongly advised to keep in mind (as the entirety of the written work generally teaches) in that all of the events described in this document are entirely prophetic in biblical nature and could all take place in several years, as well as decades (this is due to no one knowing the exact time frame for the tribulational judgements that will begin to take place on the earth) This document mainly serves for the preparedness and personal informing of the reader and does not intend to cause any sort of unnecessary stress or panic, but to sincerely, realistically and in a sanctified manner, expound the sound biblical in-tribulation truths that a generation of Christians that has been chosen and raised up to go through, must (in due time) go through (and that for a little while) before the only second glorious coming of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, the eternal Second member of the Holy Trinity. Blessed be the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, to God alone be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Due to the seriousness of the information presented in this document, readers must be aware that this is not meant to be an expressive work of literature. Neither philosophical, nor any other type of expressive language will be used. All of the ECR21 UN –White Horseman Document's throughout writing theme style is solely formal and informative. Many theme statements such as, "The only second-coming of our Lord Jesus Christ" as well as, "beginning of sorrows" and "only two resurrections" will be constantly repeated throughout the document. (Including many instructions in the in-tribulation guide chapter)

The work in itself is mainly an eschatological exposition of that of a, "most-very-likely, strongly evidential and near undeniable viewpoint" concerning the revelatory understanding of the White Horseman Seal of Revelation, as well as a completely reforming understanding of the doctrine of the end times that clears out the gaps and confusions that modern day eschatological works and teachings present through the main received viewpoints of the Christian world's expected formation of the one-world government and the revelation of the "political antichrist" as the beginning of the tribulation and not rather (as it is the true Biblical exposition of the antichrist's post-seals/post-trumpets, post-Revelation 6-11 surviving population's one world government (the ten horns of fierce war [and not of peace] that precede and set up the antichrist) the which one world government is at enmity with Babylon (the United States of America) and the mystery of the southern nation that will oppose his 3 years and 6 month rule before the only second coming of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ with His saints and Holy angels in the Day of The Lord, in the Day of the only resurrection of life, out of the only two resurrections.

For Biblically appropriate and reverent reasons, what is to be noted is that (although unlikely) if another peacefully conquering world-force that supersedes the UN's current White-Horseman's mirrored prophesied achievements (as very unlikely as it is) could hypothetically be established. The which means that this is still a theoretical and a "most-very-likely-and-near-evident" Biblical exposition of an exegetical theological analysis in the focus of the evident and undeniable times we are living in. This document intends for the reader to give throughout thought as a most-likely-case-scenario that the studied author trusts and is fully persuaded that Christians everywhere will recognize its theological and sanctified logical validity and renew their mind in their understanding of the soon coming tribulation, as they prepare accordingly. The Trinitarian protestant author, as a brother and fellow servant in the Lord, fully exhorts the reader to prayerfully comprehend (through the Bible) as to why it is undeniably evident that the United Nations Intergovernmental World Peace Organization has been the opened White Horseman Seal of Revelation these past 80 years and how every other sign of the end times that precedes the third Judaistic temple rebuilding has been completely fulfilled these past two centuries alone, but so much more so these past 80 years and how in doing so, every Christian and their families ought to be fully informed and aware of the perspective of the eschatological viewpoint (and not rather find themselves to be confused and uncertain of what may be happening if the peace that has been given to the earth [in the context of preventing world-major conflicts, as has been the U.N.'s role these past 80 years] is taken away [in an unrepeatable Red Horseman world-war, Seal-opening] that will involve every nation in every continent (after or during the process of the rebuilding of the third Judaistic Temple). The Lord knows it is true that apart from the sections wherein the usage of Ai (in rapid research areas) has been fully declared, almost every other part of this document (95%) has been manually written.

I am determined to make all of the contents of the Eschatological Christian Reformation of the 21st Century free and its labor's wages honest by only asking for very limited support from sufficient and limited frequent donors/patrons. If you would like to support my work by becoming a frequent donor/patron (if circumstances permit) or if you're an overseer/elder and there's an internship/ministerial opportunity within your church (Reformed Baptist) and are prayerfully persuaded it is of the Lord's calling for me to join your church's ministering to the saints, please feel free to email me at ECR21.help@outlook.com Thank you very much for your time, may the Lord bless you.

With the pre-tribulation events having been fulfilled before our very eyes, the common phrase that most Christians unanimously find themselves quoting to each other is, "We are living in the last days". Yet, what deludes most Christians into believing that the very end and main tribulation is yet far away is the saddening deception of a “pre-tribulational rapture” false hope that originated in the 1830's, as well as a vain awaiting of a geo-politically impossible, "one world order" to arise and thus reveal the, "political ascending antichrist" as the White Horseman. Thus giving Christians everywhere a false sense of security in what will become (if unrepentant) an entirely unforeseen and unprepared living nightmare the moment the Red Horseman is unsealed, revealing the near-undeniable and evident truth in that the White Horseman Seal of the book of Revelation and the peace period that it brought to the world (in preventing global conflict) had been opened before us all along.

THE UN WHITE HORSEMAN

ESCHATOLOGICAL CHRISTIAN REFORM OF THE 21st CENTURY

The UN Intergovernmental World Peace Organization White-Horseman View

"And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see. And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer."

(Revelation 6:1-2)

Strongly suggested theological points for general consideration, especially the Universal born-again Church of The Lord Jesus Christ and how to this expressive work of theological interpretation exhorts all Christians in becoming prepared, watchful and on the alert for the most-probable soon opening second Red Horse seal (As well as how to be well aware and informed of the imperative evacuation process for all born again saints and their families from Great Babylon, The United States of America before its prophesied destruction, as of Revelation 17 and 18)

The Eschatological Christian Reforms of the 21st Century serve the means to provide vital reforming information for the most-immediate and needful eschatological reforms for pre-tribulational preparation and in-tribulational living before the most-likely Red Horseman-Second Seal Judgement of a global-scale conflict in the tribulation of these last days.

By Mr. D. A. D'Antonio. His most unworthy and most undeserving, wretched, wretched servant.

"In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah:

"We have a strong city;
God* will appoint salvation for walls and bulwarks.
Open the gates,
That the righteous nation which keeps the truth may enter in.
You will keep him in perfect peace,
Whose* mind is stayed *on You,
Because he trusts in You.
Trust in the LORD forever,
For in YAH, the LORD, is everlasting strength."

ISAIAH 26:1-4

Understanding the view of the White Horse Seal, constituting of:

- The intergovernmental peace-keeping organization known as the United Nations (Horseman)
- Their United States Sovereignty (and remaining four world superpowers: Russia, China, France and the UK at main command in the Security Council) as their main political influential authority (Crown)
- Their minimalist peace-keeper force in combat intervention (apart from real armies) being their blue helmet peace-keeper armies, as well as the west's intertwined alliance with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization "NATO" As well as their diplomatic means of aiming for peace amongst conflicting countries, while not being able to enforce such. (Arrowless- Bow)
- These have (through the UN's multi-nation cooperation agenda and multiple antichrist geo-political and antichrist-interorganizational cooperation efforts and influence) given an aimed conquest of peace to 193 of the world's nations in their worldwide peace-promoting, war-preventing and antichrist, "earth preserving" system efforts to gain geo-political influence and attempt to give the world a significantly successful 80-year-long, anti-mass-scale-conflict and ensure enduring peace in most of its nations. (Conquering and to Conquer)
- They have achieved this world-peace conquest for 80 years by their God-given rich earthly resources (White Horse)

And how it all perfectly intertwines and coincides with the already fulfilled signs of, "The Beginning of Sorrows" of the end-times that have (for these past two centuries) preceded the main tribulation of Revelation before the Only Second Coming of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ in the fulness of His glory with His saints, as well as the Holy angels.

If the reader considers and is fully persuaded of the end-times view from this document, it is fully advised and recommended for one to first and utmost of all, put their trust in the Lord, remain calm and use the files in the website as a teaching guide for a throughout personal biblical analysis and be prepared if a third world war is about to, or does break out.

About the Author 296

“Blessed be the name of God forever and ever,
For wisdom and might are His.
And He changes the times and the seasons;
He removes kings and raises up kings;
He gives wisdom to the wise
And knowledge to those who have understanding.
He reveals deep and secret things;
He knows what is in the darkness,
And light dwells with Him.

“I thank You and praise You,
O God of my fathers;
You have given me wisdom and might,
And have now made known to me what we asked of You,
For You have made known to us the king’s demand.”

Chapter 1A

The Theological impossibility of the White Horseman being the Antichrist of Revelation, or his one-world, “peace” government.

“And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see. And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.” (Revelation 6:1-2)

To fully make sense of the theological contents of this document, the reader must first be aware (if they aren’t already) of the Most widely accepted eschatological theoretical viewpoints concerning the interpretation of the White Horseman, First Seal in most of Christianity, being that of the, “Politically ascending, one-world order totalitarian Antichrist” due to the misapplications of the already-fulfilled antichrist prophecies of Daniel 11:21-35 in Antiochus Epiphanes and why, by wrongly attributing such prophecies (besides the repetition of the abomination of desolation and the taking away of the Judaistic sacrifices) such verses do not align with the Antichrist of Revelation and the entirety of the book of Revelation in itself, causing all of the confusion there is within the Christian world as they still await and expect a supposed one world-government to be first formed (while all of the beginning of sorrows signs continue to be perfectly fulfilled before us)

Understanding the White Horseman

The first seal that the Lamb of God opens is the White Horseman seal, Revelation 6:1-2 quotes,

"And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder…"

The first opened seal had the heavenly beast's thunderous voice to introduce us to the revelation of the contents of the first seal (as though a dreadful, alarming, enlightening and awakening sound was to precede all of the judgements of the tribulation of the end of the world) such a voice being also one that would be used as the foundation and introduction of all of the judgements of the Tribulation, all the seals, trumpets, angelic bowl judgements decimation of Babylon and the reaping of the Lamb's harvest, being the reaping of the wicked in the Day of The Lord to come upon the world.

"…one of the four beasts saying, Come and see. And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given to him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer…"

A white horse appears with a rider and the rider of it had a bow (without any mention of arrows) he was given a crown, and he went on to a guaranteed and given conquest.

Some have wrongly viewed this as the Lord Jesus Christ conquering the world through the gospel by peaceful means, although that has technically happened in practice (and the thought, Christ honouring) this is a wrong view in itself, not only because the seal opening judgements of the tribulation begin at the end of the world, but because they are also judgmental in nature, the six seals of revelation (not counting the 5th as it does not apply to the world) are there to judge the world, not bless it, as has the Gospel of Christ and the Holy Spirit's spiritual reigning conquest of the hearts of many by the new birth through their repentant faith in Christ throughout these past 2,000 years.

Another reason as to why the White-Horse seal is not the Lord Jesus Christ is because He appears at the end of the tribulation period (post-seals, post-trumpets, post-bowls) riding a celestial white horse, not crowned with one crown, but with many (Rev 19:12) and although glorified with His eternal glory that He only took away once-and-for-all in His first coming (Jhn 17:5) being God Almighty in the Flesh (Rom 9:5) He does not come in peace, but to righteously annihilate the remaining antichrist world and its final army. (Rev 19:11) Not wearing any peaceful shades such as white, but red (Rev 19:13) most likely clothed in the blood of his enemies of all the ages (Isah 63:2-3)

The white horse rider has usually been given the view associated of that of the antichrist himself and his false deceptive kingdom of peace that will conquer the entire world by giving it a false sense of peace and prosperity as the prophecies of the Book of Daniel chp's 7,8, 9 and 11 give much detail of such an antichrist that will, through political influence, lurk into the highest places of the, "Kingdom of the North" and gain his power through flattery, become the world's friend, re-establish Israel's Judaistic sacrificial system and through promising deceptive peace and by peace treaties, gaining power over the nations of the world and once he's achieved world peace as a totalitarian leader, then and only through that process will he be able to be properly identified (meaning that the United States, Russia, China, UK and France are completely okay with that) This is the main view that has been widely accepted and received by the born-again Church of the Lord Jesus Christ throughout centuries until this day (it is the same view I used to receive and accept of that of my own) and most Christians mostly receive it also because it is the most logical view due to the misinformed understanding of the expectancy of Daniel 11:21-35 alongside verses 36-45 to be of that of the future antichrist, not knowing that verses 21-35 have already been fulfilled in extrinsic detail in the historical person of Antiochus Epiphanes and that besides the repetition of the Abomination of Desolation and the taking away of the Judaistic sacrifices within verses 21-35, Daniel 11:36-45 is yet to be fulfilled by the real end-times antichrist of Daniel 7:7-11; Daniel 8:23-25 and Daniel 9:26-27

It isn't uncommon for Christians to initially conclude that Daniel 11:21-35 is to be attributed to the, "Man of Sin" in the Bible, due to such verses depicting a very real prophesied anti-Christ that came about 500 years after Daniel's day, also widely accepted by the Christian world in the, "Historicist View" to be of that of Antiochus Epiphanes

Daniel 11:21-35 says,

"[21] And in his place shall arise a vile person, to whom they will not give the honor of royalty; but he shall come in peaceably, and seize the kingdom by intrigue. [22] With the force of a flood they shall be swept away from before him and be broken, and also the prince of the covenant. [23] And after the league is made with him he shall act deceitfully, for he shall come up and become strong with a small number of people. [24] He shall enter peaceably, even into the richest places of the province; and he shall do what his fathers have not done, nor his forefathers: he shall disperse among them the plunder, spoil, and riches; and he shall devise his plans against the strongholds, but only for a time. [25] "He shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the South with a great army. And the king of the South shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand, for they shall devise plans against him. [26] Yes, those who eat of the portion of his delicacies shall destroy him; his army shall be swept away, and many shall fall down slain. [27] Both these kings' hearts shall be bent on evil, and they shall speak lies at the same table; but it shall not prosper, for the end will still be at the appointed time. [28] While returning to his land with great riches, his heart shall be moved against the holy covenant; so he shall do damage and return to his own land. [29] "At the appointed time he shall return and go toward the south; but it shall not be like the former or the latter. [30] For ships from Cyprus shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and return in rage against the holy covenant, and do damage. "So he shall return and show regard for those who forsake the holy covenant. [31] And forces shall be mustered by him, and they shall defile the sanctuary fortress; then they shall take away the daily sacrifices, and place there the abomination of desolation. [32] Those who do wickedly against the covenant he shall corrupt with flattery; but the people who know their God shall be strong, and carry out great exploits. [33] And those of the people who understand shall instruct many; yet for many days they shall fall by sword and flame, by captivity and plundering. [34] Now when they fall, they shall be aided with a little help; but many shall join with them by intrigue. [35] And some of those of understanding shall fall, to refine them, purify them, and make them white, until the time of the end; because it is still for the appointed time."

Most Christians that have been taught that these passages apply to the future end-times antichrist would have to rightfully conclude the antichrist will arise by deceptive means of false peace in a world-wide, geo-political case scenario and that the world will eventually worship him as though he was God and that they would have to accept such a view in complete contrast to all logic within Revelation's world-chaotic seals and trumpet judgements of chapters 6-11 as well as chapter 11's very clear supernatural revelation of the antichrist, only after the Two Witnesses' unhindered and unstoppable 3 years, 5 months and 11 days of world-torturing world-wide prophetic ministry.

Whenever Christians interpret the end times by applying Epiphanes' verses to the end time's antichrist (in disregarding the context of Revelation's depiction of the Antichrist) they not only get a very real and strong sense of illogical confusion whenever they read both books, the world also begins to debate with fingers always being pointed in guesses as to who the antichrist may be, none of them ever being the right one.

Christians that are still waiting for this supposed one-world peaceful government to form with this totalitarian peaceful leader as the White Horse Rider, First Seal, when they compare the antichrist of Daniel 11:21-35 with the White Horse Rider, First Seal, they would have to conclude that it is entirely illogical due to the white horse seal being completely idle and powerless amidst all the world judgements and that after such a prolonged world-wide torture (in the first 6 seals and first 6 trumpets) after his kingdom is established that they are going to supposedly worship his useless being as, "God" even though he completely failed to protect them from all the world's continuous extensive torture and death, including the three years of the two witnesses' prophetic ministerial days of world torture.

It makes absolutely no sense, unless one makes the mistake of mystifying the book of Revelation (which is what all false religion does) and not simplify it for God's people to understand, as it is always His will in every aspect of His word (Revelation not being any different) and give Christians the popular tolerative and erring idea that it is okay for Christians everywhere to have a, "freedom of differentiating interpretations" of the end times because of how seemingly, "difficult" it appears to be, instead of aiming for one unified, Noble-Berean, sole understanding that disproves every other erring view through proper exegetical theology and sanctified common sense.

Christians that still believe the White Horse First Seal is the Antichrist and his one-world government (as I used to) and are still waiting for this one-world peace totalitarian geopolitical system to be formed or generate itself (specially after all the signs of, "The Beginning of Sorrows" having already been fulfilled these past two centuries alone) need to strongly consider that the Book of Revelation only introduces the Antichrist in a supernatural sense, not as a world-peace-giving politician, but as a demonically-supernatural, "god-like" world-hero that will be revealed at the end of the Two Witnesses prophetic days to save the world from their three and a half years torture and that only through such a manifestation of supernatural power as never seen before and in doing so, will the world then believe the antichrist's god-like capabilities and be deceived into worshipping the man and taking his mark, the which will be enforced by the antichrist's false prophet.

Revelation is very clear in that the antichrist shows up only after:

A world wide conquering force that symbolizes peace and achieves continual conquering (through a period of time) by the threat of unused deadly force with a crown of royalty.

A subsequent world-scale conflict wherein the peace achieved is taken from the earth and the earth's inhabitants through the means of great and powerful warfare kill one another.

A subsequent world-wide famine (most likely to be explained as the result of what could be world-wide nuclear radiation that damages crops post a very possible nuclear war)

A subsequent amount of plagues and death by vast murder and animals devouring people (some of these plagues being what will most likely be explained to be by the world's scientists as the result of world-wide nuclear "radiation" developing all of these diseases as a result of nuclear residue, pre-nuclear winter in the atmosphere, though its entirely theoretical).

A world-felt earthquake, as well as the, "darkening of the sun" by what could most-likely be termed also as "Nuclear Winter" the which is the also-subsequent stratospheric result of a nuclear-world-wide-conflict (even of minimum scale).

The world seeing the stars falling from the sky.

The mountains and islands fleeing away and the moon becoming blood.

World-wide voices, thundering/lightnings, a second earthquake.

The earth's wind force ceasing.

The Golden Sencer from God's throne (being the prayers of the saints of all the ages) falling to the ocean.

Heil mingled with fire and blood that burns up all grass and a third of the trees.

A mountain-like meteorite that falls on the ocean, destroying a third part of marine life and the ships on it (a third part of the ocean becoming blood).

The falling of a star that falls on a third part of the waters, becoming wormwood, killing many men on the earth due to dehydration over the waters' bitterness.

A third of the (cloud covered-like sun) smitten and a third part of the moon and a third part of the stars not shining for a third part of the day, as well as the night (the cloud sovereignly becoming foggier during the third part of the day and the third part of the night as sovereign judgement).

A flying angel giving a world-wide announcement with three alarming repeating words.

A demon falling to the earth and opening the bottomless pit wherein worldwide locusts with horse bodies, golden looking crowns, man's faces with sharp lion-like-teeth and women's hair with scorpion tails that torment all non-born again Christians (as many as don't have the seal of God on their foreheads) for five months.

Four angels prepared from the river Euphrates with a two million heavenly-creature army (horses with the heads of lions, who's mouths issue fire and smoke and brimstone and their tails like unto serpents) causing a third part of men to die.

A mighty angel that descends from heaven standing on the ocean and the earth with a rainbow on his head who roars like a lion (causes seven thunders to utter forbidden things for the world to know) who swears by God so that time itself ends and through his days of the hearing of his voice, the mystery of God comes to an end.

By the time the angel's voice ministry ends, God's Two Witnesses shall descend from heaven (most likely being Enoch and Elijah, the only two men who have never died and have been in the presence of God for thousands of years, just like the two olive trees and two candlesticks of the prophet Zechariah that stand before the God of all the earth).

These prophesying on the earth for 1,260 days wearing sackcloth, who throughout their prophetic ministry have the Elijah-like powers to shut heaven so it doesn't rain, turn waters to blood and torment the inhabitants of the earth with all sorts of plagues and that no matter how many bullets or rockets or any kind of world-power available at the time is thrown at them, nobody can kill them, but rather, whoever attempts to destroy them, gets devoured by the fire that proceeds out of their mouth.

And then and only then,

At the very end of all of these world-affecting and impacting literal events, including the three-and-a-half-year literal and torturous prophetic reign of the two witnesses upon the earth, is the antichrist introduced.

The antichrist of Revelation is not introduced as a gradual-politically ascending world-peace-achieving leader, but as a supernatural figure that is used to temporarily bring the world's torture to a close by the killing of the Two Witnesses.

Revelation reveals the antichrist as one that rises out of hell itself (usually referred to as the bottomless pit)

And from the ocean on top of it in chapter 13 (whether literally or if there's a spiritual connection with the ocean itself) and wars against the two witnesses and only then, do they get overcome and killed, their bodies not being put in graves.

Their bodies being left there for three days (before they rise again and are taken to heaven) with immediate media awareness that causes world-wide joy and the sending of parcel gifts between people all over the world as a means of celebration due to their torture finally having come to an end and that thanks to their supernatural, freshly introduced, "savior" who having received a deadly wound, dying and rising again (in copying Christ's resurrection) they will both bow down to and worship and receive him as their, "God" and supreme authoritarian world-leader.

Another logical theological conclusion to disregard the politically-ascending antichrist view

The main question that everyone that still receives the, "politically ascending" antichrist, seven year reign (three and a half years of peace and three and a half years of tribulation) ascending figure as seen in Daniel 11:21-35 as they connect both sections of the chapter, (with verses 36-45) attributed to him (as I used to) whenever they read the Book of Revelation from chapters 6-11 they ought to ask themselves when it comes to these world-wide events is,

If the world will receive and worship him as their, "God" what was he doing that entire time?

Where was he? Why, if the entire world was plagued by the whole list of tribulational events that caused mass torture and death, including the final 1,260 days of the Two Witnesses' world-wide prophetic and torturous plaguing, if he was a despised man that was already in the political spectrum that, "conquered the world through peace" and one that most of the surviving masses will attribute to be, "God" so much so that they will worship him and receive his mark, where was he and what was he doing during every single day the inhabitants of the earth suffered, were tormented and died and if it is so that they suffered such things and were aware of his presence and if he did absolutely nothing in the meantime (especially during the two-witnesses three-and-a-half-years of prophetic, world-torturing ministry) why would they in any common-sense case scenario either thank, much less, "worship" him, but rather be logically infuriated, in that because from the beginning of the Red-Horseman Judgement, all the way to the Two Witnesses, the guy that was reigning all along as their peaceful world leader did nothing to help the world that will receive him to be their, "god."

The surviving inhabitants of the Revelation 11-post-seals-and-trumpets' world went through intense plagues, hunger and prolonged torture and he did nothing to turn supernatural during any of those 1260 days (3 years, 5 months, 11 days) and stop the world judgement events and the two witnesses themselves from the very beginning as he was present?

From an antichrist-world's point of view, they would not only esteem him to be a selfish coward, but also detest and think he's horrible. That's not someone to admire, much less one that they would believe is anything short of a, "god" and be willingly bow down to.

Why didn't he do anything if his presence was on earth as of the, "White Horseman, First Seal"?

He didn't do anything because he wasn't present.

Revelation's antichrist is not the same as Daniel's 11:21-35, though he is the same as Daniel's 11:36-45 as verses 21-35 are mainly seen as having been fulfilled within the entirety of the Historicist view because all of Daniel 11:1-35 has been fulfilled, verses 21-35 specifically with the historical figure also known as Antiochus Epiphanes who did not fulfill verses 36-45 that the antichrist of revelation will.

All of the prophetic verses that Daniel wrote of the antichrist in Daniel 11:1-35 have already been fulfilled and that before the first coming of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ in what's known as the widely accepted, "Historicist view" (as most Christians and Christian historians would agree, with worldly secular historians doubting the legitimacy on whether the verses were written rather after due to their extrinsic and perfectly accurate prophetic fulfillment hundreds of years after they were factually written down by the inspiration of God through Daniel) wherein the families and royal descents starting with the fourth king of Persia, being king Xerxes I of Persia, who stirred up the Grecian empire by his rule, in the which after its decline, Alexander the Great arose with the Grecian empire and its kingdom's remaining four divisions after his death, verses 5-20 the kings of the north and south being conflicts between the Ptolemaic Dynasty in Egypt (south) and the Seleucid Dynasty in Syria (North) including the daughter of the king of the south Berenice, daughter of Ptolemy II who was married to Antiochus II of the Seleucid empire.

All of these verses leading all the way to the main antichrist of Daniel introduced, being Antiochus Epiphanes (or Antiochus IV) who fulfilled verses 21-35 being a Seleucid king who persecuted the people of God and tempted them into apostacy from Judaism, stopped the daily sacrifices and desecrated the temple before facing resistance by the Maccabean Revolt that successfully weakened him, cleansed the temple and re-instituted the sacrifices to the point that he was forced to retreat from Jerusalem and through Roman assistance, see himself be forced to remain in his place of province, dying shortly after.

A complete overview of the entirety of the widely accepted Historicist View that leads to Epiphanes as an antichrist figure can be found at Enduring Word Bible commentary: https://enduringword.com/bible-commentary/daniel-11/

Many Christians agree in that verses 36-45 are still to be fulfilled in the end-times antichrist, the only repeating (or similar events) led by the antichrist spirit from Daniel 11:1-20 that scripture indicates, such as Daniel 9:26-27 much more, by the words of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, are that of:

- The ceasing of the animal sacrificial system, (an offering system that will most likely be set up during the 21 months of the antichrist's literal 42-month-only reign)

- As well as the setting up of what's known as the, "Abomination of Desolation" the which is likely to be the, "Image to the Beast" that is given power to both speak and give killing commands, repeating a similar pattern that Antiochus Epiphanes did in setting up a Zeus statute in Jerusalem's temple when he desecrated it in the events of verses 21-35.

Once most Christians everywhere take into account that the Daniel 11:21-35 verses of the first antichrist have already been fulfilled, they will have a proper view of the real antichrist of Revelation, ending the vast confusion given by the, "Political ascending antichrist" view.

It is only that once Christians begin to compare the events of Revelation chapters 6 to 11 and more specifically with chapter 11's supernatural revelation of the end-times antichrist on verse 7, as well as more of his revelatory description in Chapter 13:1-9 (being one that ascends from hell itself, through the ocean and lands at Jerusalem by a once-and-never-to-be-repeated, demonic power given to him specifically) as well as the remaining future prophecies of the antichrist and his fourth-beast kingdom of Daniel chpts 7,8,9 and 11, as well as those found in the New Testament Epistles, they will realize that they all coincide, connect and give a non-contradicting understanding of the antichrist of Revelation and that of the man being:

- One that is a resurrected (and most-likely already damned, if not being reserved in chains of darkness) supernaturally (demonically) empowered man.

- Is only revealed worldwide at the time when he fights the Two Witnesses and kills them at the end of their three-year prophetic ministry (while he himself suffers a mortal wound in doing so) also rising again.

- Will have the entire world wonder at him in admiration and worship (a world that had just been tortured daily for at least three and a half years, not to mention the preceding world-wide judgements of the six seals and the six trumpet sound judgements)

- Who will only at that point establish his political world-wide dominance (minus Babylon and the mystery of the Southern Kingdom) and have the re-structured, post-seals-post-trumpet-judgements world worship both Satan and him, as well as have the false prophet revealed who will deceive them (through what's likely to be a new world-religion with judaistic tendencies and connections) into taking mark of the beast on their right hand or their foreheads as their only means of trade and commerce.

Below are Daniel 11:36-45 verses, as well as all other verses of the person of the antichrist, in both the Book of Daniel as well as The New Testament epistles and Book of Revelation:

"Then the king shall do according to his own will: he shall exalt and magnify himself above every god, shall speak blasphemies against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the wrath has been accomplished; for what has been determined shall be done. [37] He shall regard neither the God of his fathers nor the desire of women, nor regard any god; for he shall exalt himself above them all. [38] But in their place he shall honor a god of fortresses; and a god which his fathers did not know he shall honor with gold and silver, with precious stones and pleasant things. [39] Thus he shall act against the strongest fortresses with a foreign god, which he shall acknowledge, and advance its glory; and he shall cause them to rule over many, and divide the land for gain. [40] "At the time of the end the king of the South shall attack him; and the king of the North shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter the countries, overwhelm them, and pass through. [41] He shall also enter the Glorious Land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall escape from his hand: Edom, Moab, and the prominent people of Ammon. [42] He shall stretch out his hand against the countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape. [43] He shall have power over the treasures of gold and silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; also the Libyans and Ethiopians shall follow at his heels. [44] But news from the east and the north shall trouble him; therefore he shall go out with great fury to destroy and annihilate many. [45] And he shall plant the tents of his palace between the seas and the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and no one will help him."
(Daniel 11:36-45)

"...And the people of the prince who is to come
Shall destroy the city and the sanctuary.
The end of it shall be with a flood,
And till the end of the war desolations are determined.
[27] Then he shall confirm a covenant with many for one week;
But in the middle of the week
He shall bring an end to sacrifice and offering.
And on the wing of abominations shall be one who makes desolate,
Even until the consummation, which is determined,
Is poured out on the desolate."
(Daniel 9:26-27)

[23] "And in the latter time of their kingdom,
When the transgressors have reached their fullness,
A king shall arise,
Having fierce features,
Who understands sinister schemes.
[24] His power shall be mighty, but not by his own power;
He shall destroy fearfully,
And shall prosper and thrive;
He shall destroy the mighty, and also the holy people.
[25] "Through his cunning
He shall cause deceit to prosper under his rule;
And he shall exalt himself in his heart.
He shall destroy many in their prosperity.
He shall even rise against the Prince of princes;
But he shall be broken without human means."
(Daniel 8:23-25)

[19] "Then I wished to know the truth about the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, exceedingly dreadful, with its teeth of iron and its nails of bronze, which* devoured, broke in pieces, and trampled the residue with its feet; [20] and the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, before which three fell, namely, that horn which had eyes and a mouth which spoke pompous words, whose appearance was greater than his fellows.
[21] "I was watching; and the same horn was making war against the saints, and prevailing against them, [22] until the Ancient of Days came, and a judgment was made in favor of the saints of the Most High, and the time came for the saints to possess the kingdom.
[23] "Thus he said:
'The fourth beast shall be
A fourth kingdom on earth,
Which shall be different from all other kingdoms,
And shall devour the whole earth,

Trample it and break it in pieces.
[24] The ten horns are ten kings
Who* shall arise from this kingdom.
And another shall rise after them;
He shall be different from the first ones,
And shall subdue three kings.
[25] He shall speak pompous words against the Most High,
Shall persecute the saints of the Most High,
And shall intend to change times and law.
Then the saints shall be given into his hand
For a time and times and half a time.
[26] 'But the court shall be seated,
And they shall take away his dominion,
To consume and destroy it forever.
[27] Then the kingdom and dominion,
And the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven,
Shall be given to the people, the saints of the Most High.
His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
And all dominions shall serve and obey Him.'
(Daniel 7:19-27)

Let no one deceive you by any means; for that Day will not come unless the falling away comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition, [4] who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sits as God in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.
[5] Do you not remember that when I was still with you I told you these things? [6] And now you know what is restraining, that he may be revealed in his own time. [7] For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only He who now restrains will do so until He is taken out of the way. [8] And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and destroy with the brightness of His coming. [9] The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, [10] and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. [11] And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie, [12] that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness. [13] But we are bound to give thanks to God always for you, brethren beloved by the Lord, because God from the beginning chose you for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth, [14] to which He called you by our gospel, for the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

(2 Thessalonians 2:3-14)

“Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.”
(1 John 2:18)

“When they finish their testimony, the beast that ascends out of the bottomless pit will make war against them, overcome them, and kill them.”
(Revelation 11:7)

“Then I stood on the sand of the sea. And I saw a beast rising up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his horns ten crowns, and on his heads a blasphemous name. [2] Now the beast which I saw was like a leopard, his feet were like the feet of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority. [3] And I saw one of his heads as if it had been mortally wounded, and his deadly wound was healed. And all the world marveled and followed the beast. [4] So they worshiped the dragon who gave authority to the beast; and they worshiped the beast, saying, “Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?” [5] And he was given a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, and he was given authority to continue for forty-two months. [6] Then he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme His name, His tabernacle, and those who dwell in heaven. [7] It was granted to him to make war with the saints and to overcome them. And authority was given him over every tribe, tongue, and nation. [8] All who dwell on the earth will worship him, whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. [9] If anyone has an ear, let him hear. [10] He who leads into captivity shall go into captivity; he who kills with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints. [11] Then I saw another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb and spoke like a dragon. [12] And he exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence, and causes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. [13] He performs great signs, so that he even makes fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men. [14] And he deceives those who dwell on the earth by those signs which he was granted to do in the sight of the beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the beast who was wounded by the sword and lived. [15] He was granted power to give breath to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak and cause as many as would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. [16] He causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hand or on their foreheads, [17] and that no one may buy or sell except one who has the mark or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. [18] Here is wisdom. Let him who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man: His number is 666." (Revelation 13:1-18)

And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth. And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image. (Revelation 16:1-2)

But the angel said to me, "Why did you marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. [8] The beast that you saw was, and is not, and will ascend out of the bottomless pit and go to perdition. And those who dwell on the earth will marvel, whose names are not written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, when they see the beast that was, and is not, and yet is. [9] "Here is the mind which has wisdom: The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits. [10] There are also seven kings. Five have fallen, one is, and the other has not yet come. And when he comes, he must continue a short time. [11] The beast that was, and is not, is himself also the eighth, and is of the seven, and is going to perdition. [12] "The ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority for one hour as kings with the beast. [13] These are of one mind, and they will give their power and authority to the beast. [14] These will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, for He is Lord of lords and King of kings; and those who are with Him are called, chosen, and faithful." [15] Then he said to me, "The waters which you saw, where the harlot sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and tongues. [16] And the ten horns which you saw on the beast, these will hate the harlot, make her desolate and naked, eat her flesh and burn her with fire. [17] For God has put it into their hearts to fulfill His purpose, to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God are fulfilled. [18] And the woman whom you saw is that great city which reigns over the kings of the earth."(Revelation 17:7-18)

[19] And I saw the beast, the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against Him who sat on the horse and against His army. [20] Then the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who worked signs in his presence, by which he deceived those who received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. These two were cast alive into the lake of fire burning with brimstone. [21] And the rest were killed with the sword which proceeded from the mouth of Him who sat on the horse. And all the birds were filled with their flesh. (Revelation 19:19-21)

The main aspects of the end-times antichrist from these passages are that of a man who:

- Will only be revealed after the seven seals and six trumpet judgements, only by the end of the Two Witnesses (most likely Enoch and Elijah) 1,260 days of world-wide torturous prophecy.

- Ascends out of hell (implying he first descended as none other than a damned man, who either will die or may most likely already be there)

- Is not a fallen angel because angels are eternal spirits and are not subjected to physical death as the antichrist will be.

- Will literally ascend out of/or has a spiritual connection to the ocean.

- Will immediately supernaturally fight The Two Witnesses, be mortally wounded by them, yet kill them in the process.

- Will be resurrected (after they mortally wound him) before or after they are resurrected, before they ascend to heaven by a cloud.

- Will most likely have influential power over 7 continents (7 heads)

- Having 10 horns with ten crowns, signifying the 10 blasphemous world rulers in the re-ordained world order after the seals and trumpet judgements (being the fourth beast of Daniel 7) that will already be established by the time he appears (causing three of them to fall and be replaced) "little horn" 42-month reign.

- Will not regard the god of his ancestors, neither any other god, but shall make a new world-religion of a, "new" god of fortresses.

- Will deceive the surviving world to worship both him, the image to the beast and Satan through false miracles, lying signs and wonders with all deception of unrighteousness.

- Will be a celibate (will not regard the desire of women)

- As Paul and Daniel indicate, he will exalt himself above every other god and that which is God and that is worshipped, claiming to be, "God."

- Will either destroy the third Jewish temple partially or replace it with his own one-world-religion temple the moment he stops the sacrifices (half way through his 42 month "one week" reign, at the 21 month mark, being 1 year and 9 months)

- Will speak world-programmed blasphemies against Christianity and the only true God, weighing down the spirits of the saints of the Most-High.

- Will understand the world's sinister schemes.

- Will change world-times and world-laws.

- Will criminalize Christianity under the death penalty and persecute Christians everywhere, overcome them and cause them to be beheaded.

- Will, with the ten kings, destroy Babylon with utter burning of fire in under one hour. (Most definitely being the United States of America [more on that bellow] that will oppose his rule)

- Will stand against the Prince of princes, that being the Lord Jesus Christ and be utterly annihilated and thrown into the lake of fire with the false prophet.

With Epiphanes' fulfilled verses in Daniel 11, as well as Revelation's contrast of a demonically empowered and supernaturally revealed antichrist, one would have to therefore conclude that the contextual antichrist of Revelation is not the political ascending view that has been the most popular amongst Christian circles to this day.

One would have to therefore conclude that the White Horse of Revelation is NOT the antichrist, but rather an authoritative and successfully conquering entity representing peacekeeping that holds capable, yet unused (or near useless) deadly force that will precede the antichrist, as well as another 5 seal and 6 trumpet judgements by the time the second woe passes with the Two Witnesses and their three-year-ministry that will also precede the man of sin.

It is also very evident (by the vast majority of the Christian world today) in that the already fulfilled end-time signs of the observable, "Beginning of Sorrows" that will precede the main tribulation have been fulfilled and observed.

Chapter 1B

The Geo-political impossibility of the White Horseman being the Antichrist of Revelation, or his one-world, "peace" government

We have discussed as to why it is impossible for the antichrist or an antichrist kingdom on earth to be established as the first White Horseman Seal of Revelation 6 from the Bible's theological contextual point of view and yet briefly as to why it is geo-politically impossible for such to ever be the case, yet here we see the basics of geo-politics and why such a case scenario will never be allowed to happen by the current 195 states/countries of the world and why they would, mainly the five major super powers (US. UK. France. China and Russia) have to no longer exist, if not lose their power (the which the Bible makes clear it will never be so by the sole fact that great Babylon alone, the United States remains with its power above all the nations of the earth until it is completely annihilated by the end of the tribulation during the antichrist's 3.5 year reign)

That and all of the other major super powers would always be warring against each other as to which of their countries' governments would be in absolute control of everything, Russia would not want to share the same power control as that of China, much less be ruled by them and vice versa. A one world system being formed without major scale conflict or cataclysmic events would cause an innumerable amount of problems that only the United-States-World-Police-Man-Force disappearing, as well as world wars and utterly geo-political, de-stabilizing events can create that are so potent, so strong that these superpowers would have no choice but have to make the world wide change to re-structure their societies to be brought together as such an unified government in order to survive (the which without cooperating and uniting with each other, they will most likely die out, otherwise they would not make the change and keep their own sovereignties, like every government would want as the most convenient option for their domestic interests) being exactly what the 6 seals and the 7 trumpet judgements will do to bring about the utterly impossible geopolitical change to introduce the fourth beast of Daniel 7 and establish the 10 world rulers that will then receive the antichrist at his appearing after the two witnesses 1260 prophetic days (causing three of these rulers to fall and be replaced) this forced one world government having no choice but having to form itself by means of circumstantial force (as it is sinful human nature to not want to yield nor be submissive to anyone, much less superpowers and other sovereignties all over the world) on all 7 continents.

Whenever Christian teaching would indicate that the antichrist is someone we ought to be alerted of and that could possibly already be in the world's spectrum, slowly rising in politics in taking the context of Daniel 11:21-35 and attributing such verses to him, alongside verses 36-45 and continues to willingly ignore the revelatory context of the antichrist in Revelation chapters 6-11 and chapter 13, when being informed and overly studied in the basics of the first and particularly the second world war, as well as the subsequent formation of the United Nations and its world-wide political influential power, the question always came to mind,

"How could a possible world-domineering kingdom of peace ever be able to annex ground without the United Nations (specially their world-police-force main head in the power five of the security council, the United States) alone recognizing its anti-UN policies at the very beginning and its non-democratic, pro-authoritarian (if not fascist) stance straight away? Wouldn't such an approach to power and control, even by peaceful means in an unified world government with a world-head figure not be outrageous to even suggest to tolerate from its very beginnings (even under the disguise of peace, the which "disguise of peace" has ZERO chance in having these governments falling for its deception by the lessons of modern history alone) in the UN's general council, much less their security council with the five major superpower countries on the table? The antichrist of Daniel is seen as a, "peaceful" supreme, "fascist-like" version of Hitler (who will believe is God through satanic mindset) yet regardless of how peaceful, still a Hitler-like, world-domineering figure nonetheless that will not deceive these superpowers in rising to power. How then can these internationally cooperative organizations that stood the test of time throughout these past eight decades ever allow something so contrasting in itself to their policies and everything they've worked so hard these past 80 years to build and establish? Especially when it comes to their world peace, independence-encouraging and freedom-of-sovereignty, anti-world-dictator belief doctrines?

The answer is the very obvious, they never will allow it and if they were to ever see the rise of it and perceive the ambition of increase they will do everything they can by their superpower strength, to shut it down. The most recent example was Iran's nuclear program having been entirely obliterated and destroyed by the U.S. even if they clearly stated their non-aggressive intentions, the U.S. did not believe it, much less allowed such a program to take a chance at developing its success.

These world superpowers must first collapse and the UN become obsolete, the which is very unlikely they'll ever do without a world-conflict more powerful and devastating than the second world-war to force them to do so, just like the League of Nations did before them for the, "politically lurking" antichrist of Daniel 11:21-36 to be identified.

Not only would the U.S. and the UN oppose such a rule and ruler, most of the, "peacefully-to-be-annexed" countries would do the same.

This being due to the way that most of the world's 195 countries enjoy their independent and (for many of them) democratic-led freedom. Due to this, it is incredibly unlikely, if not impossible (socialism having caused enough problems of its own) for all of them to also not oppose a peaceful, "conquest" much less, not oppose a totalitarian leader on its head (especially if such a leader is not native to their country of origin) when most of them already experience peace and calm (in regards to foreign conflicts) and that thanks to none other than the U.N./U.S./NATO world presence, that although not perfect, has given the world a great stabilizing impact of peace.

So, most Christians would have to conclude the same, that due to its practical and realistic impossibility, only a cataclysmic world-wide event that will heavily disorganize the known world, including the U.S. U.K. France, China and Russia that would be capable of bringing in a circumstantially-forced new world order (without these major superpowers current policies at play that would strongly oppose it) with stronger and fiercer annihilating combined power that would force unwilling countries to join it (as is the fourth beast of Daniel 7) as well as executing stronger peace policies within that one-world-governmental body - is what would take for the antichrist's one world-rule establishing to happen and the only way that these 10 rulers would allow a one man government to begin after them is only if such a person displays unequal intelligence, power and is like a, "god" himself (to be trusted to be able to lead the world out of its chaotic state and "save it" or promise it a surviving, post-nuclear winter, post-cataclysmic recovery reconstruction and new and seemingly, "eternal" future and that in a complete and final world-wide rejection of the true God, the Bible and Christianity, causing as many as profess to be Christian (that will not take his mark, or his name, or the number of his name and bow down to worship him, his image and the devil under the disguise of his false, "god of fortresses" idol) to be decapitated in a world-wide setting, apart from Babylon (U.S.) that he will use his ten rulers' power arsenal to destroy and that much very likely by the supernatural and demonically-empowered miraculous aid of the false prophet who will very likely and supernaturally shut down America's defense system and leave it helpless to suffer its inevitable and prophesied fiery destruction and that in one literal hour's time because of modern day technology.

Apart from this Biblical and logical structure as to how the current known world is geo-politically established, makes the antichrist peace-founded, expansive, authoritarian one-world-government with a totalitarian leader an utter impossibility.

And the reason as to why it is never going to happen is because the birth-pain, "Beginning of Sorrows" signs of the end times that precede the Tribulation of Revelation have already been fulfilled extrinsically and overwhelmingly, which is why most Christians will always tell you.

"We are living in the last days."

Whether we like it or not, we really, truly and undeniably (as most of us agree, let's be honest for our own sobering well-being and needful proper preparation) are indeed living in the last days, with minutes, if not seconds to the midnight of the great Tribulation events before the only second and glorious return of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ's appearing to destroy the antichrist, his army and the remaining wicked world-wide, glorify His saints in the resurrection of life and establish His millennial kingdom.

Chapter 2

"The Beginning of Sorrows" of The End Times

(That precede the main Tribulation event of Revelation) having been fulfilled in extrinsic detail.

Now learn this parable from the fig tree: When its branch has already become tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. So you also, when you see all these things, know that it is near—at the doors!"
(Matthew 24:32-33)

What has never made sense with the, "political ascending" view of the antichrist's kingdom, such a view causing a lot of great confusion to many Christians (that are still waiting for this supposed, antichrist in politics to show up, or for this peaceful one-world order to arise) is that which most of us have continued to observe and been overwhelmingly convicted and reminded of every time they keep on happening, that being the tremendously overwhelming, unmatchable and unquestionable end-times signs that continue to be fulfilled right before the world's eyes and then forgotten-of soon after (through inexpressible media and day-to-day modern day distraction) every time they happen these past two centuries.

This involves world events that are needed in the such that without them taking place, end times prophecies would not be able to be fulfilled (including Israel becoming a nation again in 1948, after having been dispersed for almost 2,000 years across the globe) as well as the overwhelming events of the two world wars in wars in the context of there being "wars and rumors of wars" happening simultaneously to these events (wherein nations and kingdoms would rise simultaneously against each other in an unified conflict-scale event) various repeating earthquakes all over the world, excessive famines and plagues (including Covid-19) the world fulfilling all of the 2 Tim 3:1-5 apostacy prophecies in the overwhelming rise of world-wide apostacy from a once Christianized world, the rise of the sexual, homosexual and transexual revolution and the legalization of homosexual weddings, the rise of worldwide pornographic content, normalization of debauchery, potion-sorcery induced substance as drugs, the rise of self-absorption in loving self with all kinds of social media, the bowing down deceitful and antichrist-media manifested in lawless, godless and antichrist, blasphemous tv shows, movies, video-games, news as well as the Law of God within the family (and apart from it, in the context of friends and acquaintances) being squandered in every aspect altogether, not to mention the high-mindedness of high-scheming in the overwhelming creatively entrepreneurial rules of commerce of the covetousness of the day, the rise of charismatic and occultic practices in all types of media and a downgrade of Christianity's teaching in the establishment of false teachers that will itch the ears of millions of professing converts towards unbiblical paths of short-lived (and in most cases, never lived at all) prosperity, health and wealth based on one's faith etc.

That and the prophesied rise of false prophets, who alongside their creation of false Christs, will deceive and lead many astray. This was manifested in the eventful cultic rising of sectarian apostate groups during the 19th Century such as Ellen G. White and the Adventist movement, Charles Russel and the Jehovah's Witnesses, Joseph Smith and the Mormons, R.E. McAllister and the Oneness Pentecostals etc. The which all of these groups (and although the SDA's stand alone in not promoting a false Christ, yet are cultic in their false law keeping-sabbath-enforcing plus "grace" for the possibility [and not assurance of] salvation [denying the biblical orthodox existence of the eternal punishment of the lake of fire and brimstone in hell] false gospel nonetheless)

These groups in general, have denied the eternality and divinity of the Lord Jesus Christ as the incarnate, eternal second member of the Trinitarian God-head and have utterly deviated from the true Gospel (having misled millions if not hundreds of millions for over two hundred years) and that from the gospel's biblical command for sinners to repent and believe in the true eternal Christ (who had no beginning, being God Almighty) based on the offering of His precious, wrath-consuming, once-and-for-all sacrifice on the cross, wherein God's blood in the flesh was shed as a substitutionary atonement for all sin and wherein Christ willingly died in behalf of the sins of the world and rose again the third day so that whoever repents and believes in Him by grace through faith alone, will have their sins forgiven (their sins having been atoned by His precious blood) and escape the eternal punishment of hell, being born again into everlasting life.

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life." (John 3:16)

Not only has the world seen these overwhelming fulfilments of the "beginning of sorrows" of the last days these past two centuries, but they have also witnessed the overwhelmingly saddening events of the prophesied genocidal atrocities against Christian groups happening throughout the world, more specifically and mainly in countries in the Middle East and Africa, wherein fathers are having their children murdered and the children the fathers (Matt 24:9-10) in a drastic scale (mainly due to the Islamic false religion) many being offended at the cost of the Christian faith and thus betraying each other and hating each other.

All of these factors of the pre-tribulational end times signs in both divine judgement and in apostacy of behavior (wherein iniquity that will abound causing the hearts of many to grow cold) have been fulfilled already before the world's eyes and not only that, they are getting much worse by the decade. Even so now with the observable news of war and the rumors of the wars with the world-wide attention of Israel's battles against Hamas, Hezbollah and Iran, as well as the world's educative means of understanding geo-politics more with the Ukro-Russian conflict in understanding the Nato Alliance and the United Nations more (not to mention the rising conflicts that have taken place since the close of the World War II conflict and the much higher escalation of the threat of world war)

The world has also, not only through these seen conflicts (while most of it experiences the prolonged anti-major-scale-conflict period of peaceful prosperity that the US, UN-intergovernmental alliance and the Western-NATO alliance have worked so hard to achieve) has also experienced the fulfillment of the very beautiful and observable signs of the celestial heavens through all of the collected observable data that were promised to be seen before the end of the world by the LORD for thousands of years.

Even if most of the Christian world hasn't realized it, there were heavenly signs that were promised to be fulfilled in specific detail in the context of the LORD causing these signs to be seen by the world through His own power right before The Day of The Lord, these were promised through the inspiration of the prophet Joel in chapter 2, verses 30-31,

"And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth: Blood and fire and pillars of smoke. The sun shall be turned into darkness, And the moon into blood, Before the coming of the great and awesome day of the LORD."

These specific signs (before the main signs of the tribulation sixth seal of the Sun turned into darkness and the moon into blood) as the verse mentions, being: "Blood" (with innumerable blood-like appearances of constellations billions of miles away, as well as blood moons that have been observed these past three thousand years) "Fire" (with many solar flares that have so much as to have reached the earth, the which have been seen, videoed and recorded these past decades) and so much more and very specifically, "Pillars of Smoke" being undoubtedly the most magnificent recorded and widely displayed world-wide, “Pillars of Creation” that have been photographed and displayed through many versions in the space gas auroras from outer space, that look just like Pillars of smoke.

All of these signs and events are almost identical to everything that the Lord Jesus Christ and His Holy Apostles prophesied would take place before the Tribulation of the final days.

neo-gothic style. Report of wars and rumors of them (before and after the media)

Nations and kingdoms simultaneously warring each other

Unfulfilled (main tribulation) yet also fulfilled partially

"But when you hear of wars and commotions, do not be terrified; for these things must come to pass first, but the end will not come immediately. Nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom"

(Matt 24:6-7; Mark 13:7-8; Luk 21:9)

Although constant wars have been a recurring issue throughout all of human history, so the words of our Lord here are not to give the reader the idea that there will also be yet other wars wherein nations will yet fight each other as they have always done.

Wars were ongoing at that time during the days of the Roman Empire and wars between multiple nations would continue to happen throughout all of human history. The proper implication of what is truly to take place in the context of these verses is that of "nations" and "kingdoms" in a general sense (as though a group of nations and monarchies) would be at simultaneous warring against each other, being much very likely to be the Red Horseman world-wide conflict wherein nations will be at war against each other, as well as dictator-based powers (e.g. China, North Korea, Russia etc.) being modern day, "kingdoms" in disguise (with life-long ruling and non-democratic elections) those conflicts eventually ceasing, in order to give a period of time (the rest of the tribulation period) before the real end comes with the rise of the antichrist's kingdom as the third woe, its tyrannical world-wide rule and deadly persecution of Christians, the destruction of America, its betrayal to Israel and its gathered world-wide army and Mount Megiddo before the Lord Jesus Christ returns in the fulness of His glory with His armies to save Israel from annihilation, destroying the antichrist and the one world system and establishing His millennial kingdom.

However do we know these verses that much very likely signify what will happen in the main tribulation (Red Horseman Seal) have been partially fulfilled in their great foreshadows of the first and second great wars, also known as WWI and WWII that forced the end of the League of Nations and gave birth to United Nations?

That is because during the first and the second world war, the world had never before seen a two major world-scale event as deadly and destructive, in its biblically accurate context of that of various amounts of non-autocratic countries (states: "ἔθνος /ethnos") and monarchical authoritarian countries (kingdoms: "βασιλεία /basileia") rising in conflict against each other simultaneously, one due to major escalating conflict between allied sets of countries that was sparked by the murder of a politician and the second as a means of an escalating multi-country annexing, world domineering, autocratic, fascist, and antichrist government.

These events held a major significance after they came to a close after the Allied Powers major liberating victory at the end of the second world war, due to having brought about every biblically accurate establishing of all of the world-ending major events (in the which without them, Biblical prophecy concerning the end of the world would not be able to be fulfilled) these being, but not being short of:

- Israel being a nation in the end times (the which after 70 AD, for almost 2000 years ceased to exist, 40 years after their rejection and crucifixion of the Lord Jesus Christ as their Messiah) Israel being re-established in 1948.
- The establishment of a world-peace-conquering, highly-politically influential entity (U.N. 1945) [Horseman] not to mention its mainly unused and international armed forces (apart from approved minor peace-keeping operations) being their blue-helmet peacekeeping armies [Bow without arrows (being one that has enough power to kill someone if they are beaten with it, yet no proper deadly power by fulfilling its intended usage with arrows)] with the UN's main and most powerful founding head (the U.S. superpower and head of the nations, the modern great Babylon, as well as the five major superpowers, Russia, China, France and the United Kingdom) [Crown] as its main authority, alongside the rest of the world's UN-united governments (188) the which organization uses the world's earthly, God-given resources and divine purpose to accomplish God's will [White Horse]
- The power of the mystery of the great Babylon, the greatest country in the world, the which influential, enriching, and spiritually-fornicating streams, flesh-indulging-and-psychologically-affecting-music, as well as its sorceries would flow through every other country and be above every other country (wherein by its witchcraft/sorceries through its vast multi-media enterprise and spiritual fornication, every nation would be deceived, as well as enriched) this being largely fulfilled in much more abundance after the close of the second world war in the vast enlargement and overwhelming prosperity of The United States of America as the world's richest, highest and most influential nation in the globe, as well as strongest superpower. The only nation that the entire globe will recognize to be the head of the nations that enriched every nation on earth and the only nation wherein the entire world will mourn for after its destruction.

- The development of the Nuclear Bomb, in the which Babylon's prophesied "Utter burning" (The U.S. being the only nation powerful enough to be able to oppose the antichrist's kingdom when it is established in the post-world-cataclysmic events of the six seals [not counting the 5th out of the 7 seals] and seven trumpet judgement sounds) the which burning will take place in less than one hour by the ten authoritative rulers of the east in the antichrist's 3.5 year rule.

These past 80 years (and only God knows for how much longer) could and are evident of being those of that time-period that would follow these world-conflict events, the which time period would precede the real end-tribulation of Revelation. We see the evidence of this also because, as mentioned above, during this time period alone, all the prophecies of, "the beginning of sorrows" time period have been simultaneously fulfilled.

It can be concluded that after the promised restoration of Israel as a nation, the world has experienced the promised White Horseman's (UN) successful major-peace conquest through its unused weapon of capable deadly-force in the NATO alliance and the U.S. as well as the Russian and Chinese power-balance forces (as of Rev 6:1-2) including every fulfilled and necessary element that will precede the strong factors of the Tribulation Period of Revelation, starting with The Red Horseman, Second Seal of Revelation 6.

Below is a summary of the first and second World Wars' states of involvement (constituting of both autocratic/monarchical "kingdoms" and non-autocratic/democratic or semi-democratic, "countries/states." Them having been foreshadows of the Red Horseman worldwide conflict.

Recently recorded Rumors of War

Below, is a list of the increasing recorded rumors of war (through misinformation in the pre-modern and pre-communication/tele-communication media) closely linked to the time where these world-conflicts would take place between many nations and superpowers before the real end would take place:

The Great Fear (France, 1789)

https://www.worldhistory.org/Great_Fear/

During the early stages of the French Revolution, rural peasants across France were gripped by panic due to rumors that aristocrats were hiring mercenaries to suppress the revolution and kill peasants. There was no coordinated attack coming, but the fear led to widespread violence and rebellion an early example of mass panic fueled by false information.

The Phantom Russian Invasion (1801, Britain)

https://www.thenapoleonicwars.net/british-invasion-scares-overview

After the French Revolutionary Wars, rumors spread in England that Russian troops had landed in Scotland to join a French invasion. Panic spread, with people preparing for battle and even local militias mobilizing—but it was completely false.

The War Scare of 1875 (Germany & France)

https://academic.oup.com/ehr/article-abstract/128/534/1273/436245?

Known as the "War-in-Sight Crisis", rumors spread in Europe that Germany was about to launch a preemptive war against France, possibly to prevent its military recovery after the Franco-Prussian War. Newspapers speculated wildly, and political tensions rose, but no war happened, and it was later considered more a media-fueled panic than a real diplomatic crisis.

1983 NATO Exercise "Able Archer" – A Rumor Almost Sparking War.

https://www.smithsonianmag.com/history/the-1983-military-drill-that-nearly-sparked-nuclear-war-with-the-soviets-180979980/

The Soviet Union mistook a NATO military exercise for a possible first strike and began preparing for nuclear retaliation. U.S. intelligence didn't realize how close things came to disaster until later. While no war happened, misinformation and misinterpretation almost sparked a global conflict.

Earthquakes in various places. Famines and plagues. Fearful sights. Great signs from heaven.

Fulfilled

"And there will be great earthquakes in various places, and famines and pestilences; and there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven."

(Matt 24:7-8; Mark 13:8; Luk 21:11)

Glossary

This section comprises of five major aspects, some that go as far as to fulfill 3,000-year-old prophecy, these are:

A. Earthquakes in various places
B. Famines
C. Pestilences/Plagues
D. Fearful Sights
E. Great Signs from heaven

Most of this Chapter's research has been sped-up through Ai and browser research.

A. Earthquakes in various places

Although there have been earthquakes in various places throughout world history, none have ever been so rampantly and strongly and as immensely increasing as these past two centuries have proven to be:

In the 20th century alone there were a total amount of 1,142 earthquakes that resulted in significant fatalities, collectively causing an estimated 1,660,000 deaths worldwide.

The most severely affected countries during this period were:

China: Approximately 572,083 fatalities

Japan: Approximately 168,623 fatalities

Italy: Approximately 119,811 fatalities

Likewise,

As of July 2025, there have been over 1,000 significant earthquakes worldwide in the 21st century that have caused substantial impacts, including fatalities, extensive damage, or triggered tsunamis.

The 2004 Indian Ocean earthquake and tsunami remains the deadliest earthquake of the 21st century, with approximately 227,898 confirmed fatalities, primarily in Indonesia, Sri Lanka, Thailand, and India.

The most notable 21st century earthquakes include (yet are not limited to):
2005 Kashmir earthquake (Pakistan): Approximately 87,351 fatalities
2008 Sichuan earthquake (China): Approximately 87,587 fatalities
2010 Haiti earthquake: Approximately 160,000 fatalities
2023 Turkey-Syria earthquakes: Approximately 62,013 fatalities

This Historical interactive earthquake data calculator proves just how significant earthquake activity has increased (and that intensely drastically) these past three centuries alone compared to the past 2,000 years.

B. Famines

(There shall be famines in many places before and during the tribulation)

Although recent decades have seen some improvement due to advancements in agriculture, international aid and policy reforms, famine and world hunger have significantly worsened over the past two millennia, so much more so particularly during the 19th and early 20th centuries.

During the 19th and early 20th centuries, it was common for famines to cause over 10 million deaths per decade. The Great Leap Forward famine in China (1959–1961) remains the deadliest in recorded history, with estimates of over 15 million deaths. In contrast, in recent decades, famine-related deaths have decreased to about one to two million per decade, despite a significant increase in global population.

In 2022, countries like Chad, Madagascar, and the Democratic Republic of the Congo had some of the highest World Hunger Index scores, indicating severe hunger.

C. Pestilences/Plagues

Frequency and impact of pandemics and plagues have increased in the 19th, 20th, and 21st centuries compared to earlier periods.

Although there have been high-impacting world-plagues that have devastated the globe these past 2000 years alone, these past two centuries alone (apart from the 19th century) have seen an increase in pandemics and plagues in general.

This trend is primarily due to factors such as urbanization, globalization, and increased human-animal interactions.

Pre-19th Century:

Notable major pandemics include:

- The Plague of Justinian (541–542 AD)
- The Black Death (1347–1351)
- The Third Cholera Pandemic (1852–1860

19th Century: The 19th century saw several cholera pandemics and the Third Cholera Pandemic, which spread globally.

20th Century: Marked by the Spanish Flu (1918–1919), which caused an estimated 50 million deaths worldwide, as well as the spread of various plagues that spread globally.

21st Century: The COVID-19 pandemic, declared in 2020, has led to millions of deaths globally and many other plagues and new diseases that have emerged these past 25 years alone.

Bellow is a list of all the world's major plagues of the 20th and 21st centuries:

Third Plague Pandemic (1855–1959) — continued impact into early 20th century
Cause: Bubonic plague (Yersinia pestis)
Deaths: Over 12 million, mainly in India and China (mostly 19th century but extended into 20th)
Details: Originated in Yunnan, China, spread worldwide via shipping routes.

Russian Flu (1889–1890, some impact into early 1900s)
Cause: Influenza A virus (H3N8 or H2N2)
Deaths: Estimated 1 million worldwide
Details: Some overlap with the 20th century, considered one of the first modern flu pandemics.

Spanish Flu (1918–1919)
Cause: H1N1 Influenza virus
Deaths: Estimated 20–50 million worldwide
Details: One of the deadliest pandemics in history, spreading globally during and after World War I.

Asian Flu (1957–1958)
Cause: H2N2 Influenza virus
Deaths: Approx. 1–2 million worldwide
Details: Originated in East Asia, spread globally, causing widespread illness.

Hong Kong Flu (1968–1969)
Cause: H3N2 Influenza virus
Deaths: Approx. 1 million worldwide
Details: Originated in Hong Kong; noted for rapid global spread.

HIV/AIDS Pandemic (Identified in 1981, ongoing)
Cause: Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV)
Deaths: Estimated 32 million+ since discovery (a large portion in the 20th century)
Details: Global pandemic causing millions of deaths; still ongoing with significant impacts.

Cholera Pandemics (Various outbreaks)
Cholera outbreaks continued globally in the 20th century, notably:

- 1947–1957: Continued cholera outbreaks in Asia and Africa.

- 1961–1975: Seventh cholera pandemic (El Tor strain), spreading from Indonesia globally.

Typhus Epidemics
Various outbreaks occurred, especially in war zones and refugee camps, including during World War I and II.

Other notable infectious outbreaks of the 20th century
Measles, smallpox, tuberculosis, diphtheria — these diseases caused significant deaths, but not classified as global plagues or pandemics in the same sense.

SARS Outbreak (2002–2004)
Cause: SARS
Global Death Toll: Approximately 774
Details: Originated in China, SARS spread to multiple countries before being contained.

Swine Flu (H1N1 Influenza) Pandemic (2009–2010)
Cause: H1N1 Influenza virus
Global Death Toll: Estimated 151,700–575,400
Details: A global influenza pandemic that originated in North America and spread worldwide.

COVID-19 Pandemic (2019–present)
Cause: SARS-CoV-2 (coronavirus)
Global Death Toll: Approximately 6.9 million (as of August 2023)

Measles Resurgence (2019)
Cause: Measles virus
Global Impact: Nearly 1.5 million cases reported across 50 countries.

D. Fearful Sights

Many commentators have interpreted fearful sights accompanied with the following verses' words, "…and great signs from heaven" in the which these, "fearful sights" the word being, "phobētron" (the which is the only time in the entire New Testament and the entire Bible wherein this word is used) meaning, "…that which strikes terror, a terror, (cause of) fright"

These fearful sights in the end times will cause awe and terror to the inhabitants of the world, (whereas great signs from heaven have done the complete opposite, with all of the space data documentation that has been witnessed by the world, in the which the world in itself, when beholding the amazing and great things from the heavens have done the complete opposite from being in dread/terror/terrified, but have rather rejoiced)

This could be taken more into account as the things that modern day technology, since the invention of the camera, all the way to video, to space data, has been able to capture in regards to world-frightening events that have been witnessed by the inhabitants of the earth these past two centuries alone (in the context of beholding these terror-inciting events)

Bellow is a list of the most dreadful and terrifying things the world has beheld these past two centuries (by photograph, video and space data) that have caused terror and fright (short of space data from hurricanes and cyclones, as well as many natural disasters)

1. World War I (1914–1918)

- Why it was terrifying: First global war with industrialized mass killing, trench warfare, and chemical weapons.
- Photographic impact: Early war photography and film brought the very graphic horror of mechanized warfare to the public.
- Casualties: Over 16 million deaths.

2. The Spanish Flu Pandemic (1918–1920)

- Why it was terrifying: Infected 500 million people worldwide, killing an estimated 50 million.
- Documentation: Early photographs of mass graves, crowded hospitals, and people in masks.
- Historical repetition: Often compared with COVID-19 due to its global scope.

3. The Holocaust (1941–1945)

- Why it was terrifying: Systematic genocide of 6 million Jews and millions of others.
- Photographic evidence: Liberation photos and Nazi documentation showed the scale of horror—gas chambers, mass graves, concentration camps.

E. Great signs from heaven

"And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit. And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of the LORD come."
(Joel 2:28-31)

The opposite of terrifying and dreadful signs are now seen in this section, wherein wonders to behold in the heavens and in the earth will appear during these last days, including three specific elements concerning these signs, these being:

- Blood.
- Fire.
- Pillars of Smoke.

Each of these implying that they will be seen and witnessed in a global scale and that before the subsequent signs to follow (the sun turning to darkness and the moon into blood) that precede The Day of The Lord, as seen in Isaiah 13:9-11, Ezekiel 32:7-8, the Gospels and Revelation teach also that the stars will withdraw their shinning also after these three major signs.

Besides the overwhelming and vast space data of the unfathomable wonders of outer space in regard to the extent of the beauty of the planetary bodies (the true nature of the sun, the stars and what is understood by the world as galactic bodies of clusters of solar systems, as well as space clouds etc.) We are given these three specific things and signs the LORD promised to give to the inhabitants of the earth before the end comes, starting with the aspect of the celestial wonder of blood, the which we have seen at least two major fulfilments concerning this, the one that has been most evident since the beginning, being that of, "Lunar eclipses" the second being the more modern discovery of what are known to be as reddish, "Red Nebulas".

Blood (Red Moons, Red Nebulae)

We know that it pleased the Lord to create the moon as the orbiting satellite that reflects light from the sun back to the moon, yet whenever the moon passes through the earth's shadow (also called the opposite to the sun) as it orbits the earth, it appears to darken (as it passes through the penumbra, meaning the earth is entering the shadow cast by the earth opposite side to the sun) and then turns into a deep, "blood-like" red (as it passes through the "umbra" shadow) before entering the penumbra (when it turns fully black) meaning the moon is on the opposite side of the earth, the earth being between the sun's direct light, blocking it against the moon) this is what is called a lunar eclipse.

The complexity as to why the moon turns red instead of fully black is due to the sun's light passing through a thick layer of the earth's atmosphere, causing shorter waves of sunlight (the blue ones) to be scattered by the atmosphere, causing the vast majority of the longer wavelength (such as red) to reach the moon instead, causing the, "blood" reddish color. This is the same similar process as to why the sun turns orange-red as the day passes into night as the earth rotates (as well as to why rainbows show a full spectrum of colors when light from the water reflects the atmospheric lights caused by the sun's light) Because it pleased the LORD to decree the earth's lighting in this way.

This process of the moon turning into blood is one in the which the entirety of the Christian community can agree is used mightily by God to remind His people millennia throughout millennia to always be on the watch and be ready at all times for the soon coming dreadful and terrible Day of The Lord.

Red Nebulas, Emission Nebulae

Red Nebulas, "Emission Nebulae" are vast clouds of gas and dust in space that emit their own light, predominantly in the red part of the spectrum. This distinctive color is explained to arise due to the ionization of hydrogen atoms within the nebula. This process is driven by the presence of nearby hot, young stars that emit high-energy ultraviolet (UV) radiation. When this UV radiation ionizes hydrogen atoms in the surrounding gas, the recombination of electrons with protons leads to the emission of light, with the H-alpha line being the most prominent in the red spectrum. https://astronomy.swin.edu.au/cosmos/E/emission%2Bnebula?

Red Nebulas witnessed by the inhabitants of the earth through space photography are vastly similar to the fulfilment of the prophecies of both the Lord's words in the gospel accounts, in the context of wonders in the heavens, as well as that of the book of Joel, being that of, "Blood" like signs.

Examples of Red Nebulae

- Orion Nebula (M42): One of the most studied emission nebulae, located in the Orion constellation.
- Rosette Nebula: A large star-forming region in the constellation Monoceros.
- Trifid Nebula: Known for its distinctive three-lobed structure, located in the Sagittarius constellation.

Although the Emission Nebulae, blood-like signs are beautiful throughout space photography, most Christians could agree that the most important aspect of these signs having been fulfilled (ever since their promised presence in the end times was written down by the prophet Joel more than 3000 years ago) have been manifested in the continual, "blood moons" in the way that it pleased the LORD to ordain the celestial bodies of the earth, moon and sun in the solar system to serve as a reminder to His people in that The Day of The Lord is soon approaching, marking the end of fleeting, "man-led" history.

Honorable mentions: Red Sprites (Red sprites are a type of Transient Luminous Event (TLE) caused by intense positive lightning strikes in thunderstorms. When these lightning bolts interact with atmospheric nitrogen, they produce what's called a red glow. These events are difficult to observe from the ground due to their high altitude and brief duration, making them ideal subjects for observation from space.

Fire (Solar Flares)

The closest sign to Fire as a wonder from God's heavens that have captured the earth's attention and directly affected it (far more than any other type of sign in relation to the sun) is that of solar flares.

Solar flares are sudden, intense bursts of radiation that occur when magnetic energy built up in the sun's atmosphere is suddenly released. This happens in active regions near sunspots, where magnetic fields are especially strong and tangled. These bursts travel at the speed of light 299,792 km/s (168,000 miles/s) taking approximately 8 minutes to reach the earth (the sun being 93 million miles away, or 150 million km) Solar flares have been known for disrupting high-frequency radio waves (specially at polar regions) jam GPS and telecommunication, as well as weather satellites, as well as cause electricity blackouts in city-wide scales (such as the 1989 Geomagnetic Storm that caused a 9-hour blackout in Québec, causing satellite malfunctioning, yet beautiful auroras seen as far as Texas, U.S.)

These "Fire" wonder to behold have been successfully captured by specialized space-based cameras, also known as Extreme Ultraviolet Imagers (EUV Cameras) from the NASA, SOHO and STEREO spacecraft agencies, having given astonishing jaw-dropping video to the inhabitants of the earth at very high quality resolution, witnessing space flares a hundred+ times the size of earth, twist and explode on the sun surface and travelling 93 million miles towards the earth (the earth being protected by its shielding atmospheric layers from the vast majority of their effects) perfectly fulfilling Joel's prophecy in its regard to wonders of, "Fire"

And yet, the most astonishing wonder of all of them, is the very extrinsically and depictable accurate wonder from the celestial heavens that God promised to show to the inhabitants of the earth being, "Pillars of Smoke" captured and beheld by the inhabitants of the earth that perfectly resembles Joel's prophecy so similarly that the unbelieving world in itself calls them, "The Pillars of Creation" first discovered in 1995.

Pillars of Smoke (The Pillars of Creation)

The Pillars of Creation are giant columns of what is esteemed to be hydrogen gas and interstellar dust located in the Eagle Nebula (M16) estimated to be about 6,500–7,000 light-years away (although such estimation being length wise and not in the context of time) for creation is estimated to be approx. 6,000 years old (by the unsearchable strength of God's omnipotence) such giant "smoke-like" gas-pillar shaped wonders are located in what has been named as, the constellation, "Serpens."

First captured by the Hubble Space Telescope using the WFPC2 camera, they were then named the "Pillars of Creation" by NASA.

The very fact that God said that He would show these very specific heavenly wonders before the main tribulation would take place (right before the sun is darkened and the moon is turned into blood) in showing the blood and fire and pillars of smoke as means of heavenly wonders is an astonishing miracle in itself that screams to all people everywhere, The Tribulation Is About To Take Place.

This has all been fulfilled in that of:

Blood: As continuous "Blood moons" (if not recently discovered blood-like nebulas)

Fire: In the high definition EUV captured "Solar flares" that have astonished many, as well as the most specific of them all being.

Pillars of Smoke: As the Hubble Space Telescope captured, "Pillars of Creation" is yet again a huge evidential factor that we are living at the very doors of the main tribulation period.

The Tribulation's World-Wide Persecution and the 2000-years-long persecution

Unfulfilled [Main Tribulation] Fulfilled partially

"But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons. You will be brought before kings and rulers for My name's sake."
(Luke 21:12-13)

(Matt 24:9; Mark 13:9; Luk 21:12-13)

The Lord says, "before all these things" (all of the "Beginning of Sorrows" events) He had just mentioned:

- Christ impersonators.
- Hearing of wars and their rumors, as well as the simultaneous events of nations and kingdoms in a general sense rising against each other.
- Various earthquakes (that have dramatically increased these past three centuries alone)
- Famines and plagues.
- Including dreadful sights and great signs from heaven.

In that before all of these things, Christians will be apprehended and persecuted as well as delivered to synagogues and prisons, as well as be taken into royal and monarchical and political presence for the sake of the name of Christ that will be fulfilled the moment the antichrist makes Christianity illegal and that under the death penalty with most probable laws of death sentencing, if not torture if one is found hiding or failing to report un-apostatizing Christians.

This, as sad as it is, has been fulfilled partially (as a foreshadow of the main tribulation) from the church's early beginnings and that all the way to this day and although Christians aren't so much taken to synagogues to answer to a murderous councils of traditional Jews anymore, neither are they taken to a catholic church to await yet another murderous council of priests (as it used to be until the time of the reformation) they are, as it is this day, still being taken in the presence of deceived and murderous councils in Middle-Eastern, Asian and African mosques, as well as some of their government bodies due to Islam's false-religion's demonic brutality, not including other secular murderous and evil regimes that are still raiding and destroying churches, as well as imprisoning and murdering Christians to this day, such as China and North Korea.

Below is a summary of major Christian Persecution since Christianity's birth in the 1st century, all the way to today (21st Century)

Early Persecution Period (1st to the 4th Century AD)

Roman Empire (1st to the 3rd Century)

- Roman religious tolerance: The Roman Empire was generally tolerant of religions, but Christianity was seen as a threat because of its refusal to worship Roman gods and the emperor.
- Nero's Persecution (64 AD): The first major persecution came under Emperor Nero, who blamed Christians for the Great Fire of Rome. Many were crucified or burned alive.
- Persecutions under Domitian, Decius, and Diocletian: These emperors conducted systematic attempts to suppress Christianity, viewing it as subversive.
    - Diocletian's Great Persecution (303-311 AD): The most severe persecution, with Christians being executed, tortured, or exiled, and churches destroyed.

The Rise of Christianity and Legalization (4th Century)

Constantine and the Edict of Milan (313 AD)

- Emperor Constantine issued the Edict of Milan, which legalized Christianity in the Roman Empire. This ended state-sponsored persecution and allowed Christianity to flourish.

- By 380 AD, Christianity became the state religion of the Roman Empire under Emperor Theodosius I.

Medieval Persecution (5th - 15th Century)

The Catholic Church's Power and Influence

- After the fall of the Western Roman Empire (476 AD), the Catholic Church became the dominant religious and political force in Europe.
- Heresy: During the Middle Ages, the church persecuted heretics (those who held beliefs contrary to official Catholic doctrine). Heretics were seen as enemies of the state and the church.
    - Notable examples:
        - The Cathars in the 12th-14th centuries were deemed heretics by the Catholic Church, leading to the Albigensian Crusade (1209-1229), in which thousands were killed.
        - The Waldensians and Hussites were also targeted during this period.

The Inquisition (12th - 17th Century)

- The Inquisition was established to root out heresy and maintain religious orthodoxy.
    - The Spanish Inquisition (1478) is the most infamous, targeting Jews, Muslims, and suspected heretics. It led to torture and execution.
    - The Roman Inquisition (established 1542) was less violent but still sought to suppress dissent, particularly against ideas like Protestantism.

Protestant Reformation and Catholic Counter-Reformation (16th Century)

- During the Reformation (16th century), Protestants, led by figures like Martin Luther and John Calvin, challenged the Catholic Church.
    - Catholic Counter-Reformation: In response, the Catholic Church persecuted Protestants.

- Example: The St. Bartholomew's Day Massacre (1572), where thousands of Protestants (Huguenots) were killed by Catholic mobs in France.

Catholic Persecution of Protestants

- In Catholic countries, Protestants were persecuted for their beliefs. In many places, such as Spain, France, and Italy, Protestants were executed, and their books banned.

The Age of, "Enlightenment" (17th - 18th Century)

Religious Tolerance Increases

- With the rise of Enlightenment thinking, calls for religious tolerance grew, especially in countries like England and the Netherlands.
- However, the Catholic Church still maintained significant power in many parts of Europe, often suppressing ideology that threatened their traditional religious views (e.g., Galileo)

20th Century - Global Persecution of Christians

Early 20th Century

- Communist regimes (Soviet Union, China, Cuba) began a systematic persecution of Christians in the 20th century, targeting the Russian Orthodox Church, Catholics, and Protestants.
    - Soviet Union: Churches were closed, clergy arrested, and believers persecuted.
    - China: Under the Cultural Revolution (1966–1976) Christians were forced to abandon their faith, and many churches were destroyed.

Nazi Persecution

- While Nazism was primarily about racial ideology, it also targeted Christian groups who resisted the Nazi regime.

Recent Persecutions (21st Century)

Ongoing Persecution

- Middle East and North Africa: Christians face violence, displacement, and extremism from ISIS, Boko Haram, and other radical Islamic groups.
    - Iraq and Syria: ISIS wiped out entire Christian communities, with churches bombed and believers killed.
    - Egypt: Christians (especially Copts) face frequent attacks by extremist groups.
- China: The government continues to suppress Christianity, particularly underground churches. Many house churches are raided and believers are imprisoned.
- North Korea: Christians are persecuted as enemies of the state and face harsh punishment, including execution or forced labor camps if discovered.

Summary

1. 1st – 4th Century: Early Christian martyrs under Roman rule.
2. 5th – 15th Century: Catholic church suppresses heresies, the Inquisition targets heretics and non-Catholics.
3. 16th - 20th Century: Protestant Reformation sparks violence between Catholics and Protestants.
4. 20th Century: Christian persecution intensifies under Communist regimes and Nazi ideology.
5. 21st Century: Persecution continues in regions like the Middle East, Africa, and Asia, with radical groups targeting Christians.

Rising of Many False Prophets Deceiving many

Fulfilled

“Then many false prophets will rise up and deceive many.”

(Matt 24:11; Mark 13:22)

False Teachers have risen everywhere within Christianity for thousands of years, however it is mainly due to the context of these verses being in the “Beginning of Sorrows” wherein other verses teach that these false prophets shall be able to show “great signs and wonders” that they may even, if it were, “possible” deceive the very, “elect” we would have to conclude in that the Christian world would experience a significant outpouring of false prophets’ effects through false teaching within professing, theological, protestant Christianity.

These would arise also in the same period of time wherein simultaneous plagues, famines, earthquakes, wonders and all sorts of world-wide moral evil will be experienced drastically in many parts of the world before the main tribulational end of a mankind-governed world.

Meaning that Christians in themselves (those that aren’t discerning may fall into the realm of the possibility of this deception, being a temporary deception as they spiritually mature through being informed by knowledge and experience, or prove to be tares by staying in such movements without conviction) meaning that these, “false prophets” (apart from the separate list of the worse false prophets that create false christs and successfully lead millions of unconverted, Christian-professing people astray) fall into the category of being those mainly within the realm of the true Christianity that will profess to know and preach the truth, yet leading many into deception and into a different gospel.

This has vastly been fulfilled and that majorly within the realm of the charismatic, new-age and word-of-faith movements wherein many Christian principles have been taken out of context in the Bible to teach people a false Christianity organized and orchestrated for them to live out and experience all of their unconverted earthly desires, dreams and wants without any mention of the reality of eternal hell, the need to repent and trust in Jesus Christ (God incarnate) as their Lord and Saviour for the forgiveness of their sins and the gift of eternal life, as well as the result of such salvation in the fruit of the new birth, being a life of cross-bearing, trial and tribulation, as well as self-denial.

Below is a list with most of the main figures of today's hundreds upon thousands of supposedly-within-Christianity, Christian-representing, false prophets of the Charismatic, Word of Faith and New Age movement.

The full list can also be found at, https://godwords.org/list-of-false-teachers/

1. Joel Osteen (Estimated Followers: 10 million+)

- Estimated Annual Revenue: Approximately $90 million.

- Osteen's "prosperity gospel" teaching promotes the idea that God wants every believer to be wealthy, healthy, and successful. This is a distortion of the gospel, turning faith into a tool for material gain rather than focusing on the true message of repentance, sin, and salvation through faith in Christ. His messages often lack a strong emphasis on sin, judgment, and repentance, which is foundational in Christianity.

2. Benny Hinn (Estimated Followers: 5 million+)

- Estimated Annual Revenue: Approximately $50 million.

- Hinn is a prominent charlatan, "faith healer" who claims to heal people through the power of the Holy Spirit, often with dramatic and emotional displays. His teachings on prosperity and miracle healing are highly unbiblically contextual, manipulative and deceptive, distorting the nature of the Christian faith into a "name-it-and-claim-it" formula.

3. Jesse Duplantis (Estimated Followers: 2 million+)

- Estimated Annual Revenue: Approximately $20 million.

- Duplantis is another figure in the prosperity gospel movement, advocating for material wealth and claiming that believers can have whatever they desire through faith declarations. His extravagant lifestyle, along with teachings that focus heavily on wealth and success, contradicts the Biblical teachings of self-denial, humility, complete abstinence from the love of money and the sufficiency of Christ and His God-giving contentment.

4. Kenneth Copeland (Estimated Followers: 6 million+)

- Estimated Annual Revenue: Approximately $100 million.

- Copeland is a central figure in the Word of Faith movement, teaching that believers can speak things into existence (positive confessions) and that God's will is for everyone to be rich and healthy. His prosperity gospel teachings are utterly unbiblical, as they distort the nature of God and the gospel, focusing on material wealth rather than the soon-coming Kingdom of God, oftentimes at the expense of earthly gain.

5. Creflo Dollar (Estimated Followers: 6 million+)

- Estimated Annual Revenue: Approximately $70 million.

- Dollar teaches that Christians should expect financial blessings as a direct result of their faith and tithing. He has also promoted controversial teachings about the Atonement of Christ, blasphemously and heretically claiming that Jesus died for believers to be wealthy and prosperous. His emphasis on wealth and health contradicts core doctrines of true Christian theology, which stresses that the Christian life is one of suffering, self-sacrifice, and eternal hope rather than earthly gain.

6. Joseph Prince (Estimated Followers: 1 million+)

- Estimated Annual Revenue: Approximately $50 million.

- While Prince teaches salvation by grace, his emphasis on "grace" has been rightfully criticized for leading people into antinomianism (a disregard for complete repentance and the moral law) downplaying the importance of holiness and obedience, over-emphasizing grace to the point of heresy.

7. Joyce Meyer (Estimated Followers: 6 million+)

- Estimated Annual Revenue: Approximately $100 million.

- Meyer promotes the prosperity gospel and focuses on personal empowerment and self-help, often blending secular psychological principles with scripture. Her teachings on wealth and health as signs of God's favor are very deceptive and strong misleading of biblical teaching about the nature of suffering and discipleship, the which clearly teaches that suffering, financial sacrifice (and at times) loss of health can be by-products of the true believer as they bear their cross on earth.

8. Todd White (Estimated Followers: 1 million+)

- Estimated Annual Revenue: Approximately $10 million.

- White is associated with the Word of Faith movement and claims to have the power to heal and perform miracles. He teaches a health-and-wealth gospel and misuses scripture to support such claims. His prosperity-based theology and fraud-proven healing claims are deceptive and not grounded in sound biblical doctrine.

9. T.D. Jakes (Estimated Followers: 30 million+)

- Estimated Annual Revenue: Approximately $75 million.

- Jakes is known for his Oneness Pentecostal beliefs, which deny the Biblically grounded truth of the Triune God-head (the Father, Son and Holy Spirit being three eternal persons and one God) and instead teach that God exists in modes (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are not distinct persons but manifestations of one God).

10. Stephen Furtick (Estimated Followers: 15 million+)

- Estimated Annual Revenue: Approximately $50 million.

- Furtick's preaching often includes elements of the prosperity gospel his focus on self-empowerment, along with a lack of deep doctrinal teaching is a distortion of true Christianity and also deviates from the true gospel. His self-centered teachings and the use of manipulative emotional appeals in his sermons are incompatible with biblical preaching that centers on Christ and the redemptive finished work of God at the cross.

11. Brian Houston (Estimated Followers: 15 million+)

- Estimated Annual Revenue: Approximately $100 million.

- Houston, founder of Hillsong Church, often promotes a "soft gospel" that avoids hard truths and emphasizes entertainment, emotional experiences, and a prosperity-driven theology. Hillsong's theology lacks necessary exposure of the Biblical text, said theology often portraying rather positive reinforcement, focusing more on earthly benefits than the suffering and cross-bearing aspect of the Christian faith.

12. Bill Johnson (Estimated Followers: 5 million+)

- Estimated Annual Revenue: Approximately $30 million.

- Johnson and Bethel Church are associated with NAR (New Apostolic Reformation) and unbiblically and disorganized, charismatic practices like "slain in the Spirit" and miracle claims. They promote an idea of the "supernatural lifestyle" and the expectation that Christians should perform miracles, similar to Jesus, with zero to no real evidence of being capable of doing the such. Bethel Church promotes unbiblical dangerous teachings such as word of knowledge, healing practices, and prophetic ministries that distort the gospel and create an environment for spiritual manipulation.

In fact, the list could go on an on, numbering all of these individuals from the past three centuries alone would create and entire directory book and that by name only.

In this century alone, false prophets with prominent numbers of followers have risen in the thousands upon thousands and have in themselves deceived hundreds of millions and stumbled hundreds of millions more due to their unconverted fruits of covetousness, glory-of-men-seeking as well as power and influential control over vast numbers of people. All under religious pretense, if not with a sense of an understanding of various aspects of the true faith (yet not being in the truth of Christ and thus, not being born again) by the evidence of the false gospel that they preach, the which the Bible teaches that whoever teaches a different gospel is to be anathema (Gal 1:6-9)

How is this accurate?

Because the false prophets of the end times are not only manifested in the ones found within the true professing, evangelical Trinitarian Christianity (though many of these groups have innumerable false converts) but also as those that have founded world-wide cults with false aspects of the true faith.

Lawlessness Abounds (The Great Apostacy)
The hearts of many growing cold

Fulfilled

“And because lawlessness will abound, the love of many will grow cold. But he who endures to the end shall be saved.”
(Matt 24:12)

The 2 Tim 3:1-5 apostacy prophecies in the overwhelming rise of world-wide apostacy from a once Christianized world, constitute that of:

- The rise of the sexual revolution (1960’s)
- Rise to homosexual tolerance (1960-1970's)
- The rise of worldwide free pornographic content (1990’s)
- The legalization of homosexual marriage (Early 2000’s)
- Rise to transexual tolerance (2010’s)
- The potion-sorcery induced substance as drugs in the post-war and counterculture-explosion, as well as normalization in illegal commerce (1950s–1970s)
- The rise of self-absorption in loving self with social media (Early 2000’s)
- The deceitful and antichrist-media manifested in lawless, godless and antichrist, blasphemous tv shows, movies, video-games, news as well as the Law of God within the family (and apart from it with friends and acquaintances) being squandered in every aspect altogether (1950’s until present)
- The high-mindedness of high-scheming in the overwhelming creatively entrepreneurial rules of commerce of the covetousness of the day (Early 1900’s until present)

- The rise of charismatic and occultic practices in all types of media (1950's until present)

- A downgrade of Christianity's teaching in the establishment of false teachers that will, "itch" the ears of millions of professing converts towards unbiblical paths of short-lived prosperity, health and wealth based on one's faith (early 1900's until present)

The Gospel will be published in every nation:

Fulfilled – Glory to God

“And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.”

(Matthew 24:14)

The Gospel has historically reached all 195 countries in the world.

The only current countries that make Christianity illegal were once Christianized countries, these being:

Bhutan

- Historical Presence: Christianity was introduced to Bhutan in the late 17th century by Portuguese Jesuits. However, their efforts did not establish a lasting Christian community.
- Modern Status: Today, Christianity is practiced by a small minority, estimated at 0.5% of the population. The Church of God in Christ and the Indian New Life League have established a modest presence, with a few congregations.

Maldives

- Historical Presence: Islam replaced earlier Christian influences in the Maldives during the 12th century.
- Modern Status: Christianity is not officially recognized, and public practice is prohibited. Citizens attempting to convert to Christianity can lose their citizenship. Foreign workers are permitted to practice privately.

Saudi Arabia

- Historical Presence: Christianity existed in the Arabian Peninsula before the rise of Islam in the 7th century. Early Christian communities, such as the one in Najran, were present.
- Modern Status: Today, Saudi Arabia maintains a strict form of Sunni Islam, and public practice of Christianity is not permitted.

Afghanistan

- Historical Presence: Christianity has had a presence in Afghanistan for centuries, with various Christian communities existing at different times.
- Modern Status: Currently, Christians in Afghanistan face significant persecution, with an estimated 15,000 to 20,000 believers, mostly converts from Islam. Public practice of Christianity is not permitted, and Christians often worship in secret.

North Korea

- Historical Presence: Christianity was introduced to the Korean Peninsula in the late 18th century and flourished in the northern regions, particularly in Pyongyang, which was once known as the "Jerusalem of the East."
- Modern Status: Today, North Korea is one of the most repressive countries regarding religious freedom. Christianity is considered a political threat, and practicing it can lead to severe punishment, including imprisonment and execution.

False Christs and False Prophets Will Arise

Cult leaders creating false christs, misleading millions.

Fulfilled

"For false christs and false prophets will rise and show great signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect. See, I have told you beforehand. "Therefore if they say to you, 'Look, He is in the desert!' do not go out; or 'Look, He is in the inner rooms!' do not believe it. For as the lightning comes from the east and flashes to the west, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be."

(Matthew 24:24-27)

Although I am adamant that these verses speak of in-tribulation events, wherein demonic power will rise within the tribulation that will deceive many until the one world order is fully established (these false prophets having demonic power to perform visible wonders to deceive many people into false christs with false gospels) yet the great and undeniable precedence of these false in-tribulation prophets has been fulfilled (as these verses in the synoptic gospels emphasize the idea of them being applicable through a large period of time that will have many people deceived) these pre-tribulational false prophets rising, alongside with the creation of their false Christ's was most undeniably evident in the cultic rising of sectarian, apostate groups during the 19th Century such as:

- Ellen G. White and the Adventist movement: Around 21 million members worldwide.
- R.E. McAllister and The Oneness Pentecostal movement: Around 17 million members worldwide.
- Charles T. Russel and The Jehovah's Witnesses: Around 8.7 million members worldwide.
- Joseph Smith and The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, also known as The Mormon Church: Around 17 million members worldwide.

- L. Ron Hubbard and Church of Scientology: Estimates suggest that worldwide active membership is between 100,000 to 500,000.

- Mary Baker Eddy and Christian Science: Around 400,000 to 500,000 members worldwide.

With these cultic groups alone, the current total minimum membership estimate worldwide would be 63.2 million and rising.

The which all of these groups (and although the SDA's do not promote a false Christ outwardly, the Christ they represent is abstract in His evangelistic command of being saved by grace through faith alone, apart from works, making it false christ with a works-based gospel mentality) have denied the eternality and divinity of the Lord Jesus Christ as not only the Son of God, but being also the incarnate second member of the Trinitarian God-head and have utterly deviated from the true Gospel (having misled millions if not billions) in its biblical command for sinners to repent and believe in the true Christ, based on His finished blood offering, wrath consuming, once-and-for-all sacrifice on the cross, as well as glorious resurrection on the third day (being none other than having been God's blood in the flesh that alone could atone for sin) by faith alone to receive the new birth that will (by grace only) save their souls from the reality of the eternal consequences of hellfire and brimstone and have eternal life instead.

Not to mention the most well-known current world figure for almost 2,000 years that falsely represents Christianity being,

- The Vatican City and the Papacy, with the most current Pope as their head being Mr. Robert Prevost, also known as, "Pope Leo XIV": Around 1.3 Billion professing, unrepentant, un-born-again members worldwide the which main Christian-representing world-loving open cult (under the convenience of cultural paganized Christian-representing, ritualistic false religion) is used by the devil to vainly soothe the consciences of all its members from the wrath of God that such consciences testify to them still abides on them [John 3:36] specially so, with their interactions with Biblical born again Christians, except they repent (turn from their sinful enmity against God) and are born again by faith alone in Jesus Christ as their Lord and Saviour. "For "whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved." (Romans 10:13)

Deadly Betrayal Within the Family and Between Friends

Children against parents/parents against children, siblings against siblings and friends against friends

Mostly Unfulfilled: Main Tribulation

“You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death. And you will be hated by all for My name’s sake. But not a hair of your head shall be lost.
By your patience possess your souls.”
(Luke 21:16-19)

Sadly enough, this has been partially fulfilled throughout these past 2,000 years in every persecuting nation, however the main context of these verses is that of the main tribulation’s antichrist’s 3.5 year reign period wherein he will be granted to make war against the saints of the Most High and overcome them. In the which reign and due to the world-wide policies and terror given to the nations, unconverted family members, as well as unbelieving friends will betray believers out of self-preservation and fear of their own lives.

Jerusalem Surrounded By The Antichrist's Armies

The Abomination of Desolation set up in Israel

Unfulfilled: Main Tribulation

"Therefore when you see the 'abomination of desolation,' spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place" (whoever reads, let him understand), "then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. Let him who is on the housetop not go down to take anything out of his house. And let him who is in the field not go back to get his clothes. But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! And pray that your flight may not be in winter or on the Sabbath.

(Matt 24:15-20)

The Restoration of Israel as a nation

(Various Old and New Testament Prophecies)

Fulfilled in 1948

77 years ago, 3 years after the UN began operations and 1 year before NATO was founded.

“Now learn this parable from the fig tree: When its branch has already become tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. So you also, when you see all these things, know that it is near—at the doors! Assuredly, I say to you, this generation will by no means pass away till all these things take place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will by no means pass away. “But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, but My Father only. But as the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and did not know until the flood came and took them all away, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken and the other left. Two women will be grinding at the mill: one will be taken and the other left. Watch therefore, for you do not know what hour your Lord is coming. But know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and not allowed his house to be broken into. Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

Chapter 3

Understanding The White Horseman

The UN Intergovernmental World Peace Organization

UN HEADS: US | RUSSIA | CHINA | FRANCE | UK

(Revelation 6:1-2)

We have concluded that the White Horse rider of Revelation 6 with a crown of dominion and a bow without arrows, going forth, conquering and to conquer cannot possibly be the currently popular theory of it being the antichrist rising to power by politically-peaceful means because of the very geo-political impossibility of such a case scenario unless there's cataclysmic events so powerful that would be far worse than the second world war in utterly disorganizing and forcing a reestablishing new-world order (because going back to their previous independent states would be illogical and self-destructive) for such a one world-government to become remotely possible (without the United States and all of current Europe alone [western powers] changing all their policies in a pre-world-changing event case scenario, being utterly impossible and in a gigantic contrast to the U.S. Free-world spirit)

We have also concluded as to how it is very evident that the signs of the end times in the observable, "Beginning of Sorrows" that precede the main Tribulation period have been vastly and extrinsically fulfilled these past two centuries (from the 1800's) alone, all the way to the two world-wars, Israel becoming a nation and the great apostacy.

The which we can theologically, realistically and soberly conclude in that the Christian world is currently waiting and is on the watch for the building of the third Jewish temple, the pre-mark of the beast cashless society and system, as well as for the white horseman to appear (the vast majority of Christians are awaiting for what's known to be a pre-tribulational "rapture" the which has no basis of Biblical context, nor orthodoxy and was a concept mainly developed by and popularized by a Plymouth Brethren preacher known as Mr. John Nelson Darby, the which theology had almost zero to no historical back-up in church history from the 1st century, all the way to the 19th where it began to be propagated by the man and became highly popular and adapted world-wide through the Scofield Bible, more on the rapture after)

The which leads us to conclude that, if there is no rapture (and there really isn't) without the White Horseman, the main tribulation cannot begin, so Christians have to wait for this mysterious world conquering force, or seeing that the third temple is about to be rebuilt (the animal sacrifices having been partially re-established in modern practiced false Judaism) if it is already here, they must then, identify it.

The first possibility of it arriving (unless there's significant world-changing and cataclysmic events that will turn all nations to this one-world peace system in the sense of them willfully submitting their sovereignty to it and its totalitarian leader, realistically speaking, IF and only IF they have no other choice but to do so) is almost (as already having concluded in the previous chapter) an utter geo-political impossibility without superpowers like Russia and the United States eradicating their policies and those of the UN for the whole sinful and power-hungry world to accept this world dominance system.

Unless the UN or a similar re-structured body or a separate supernaturally emerging force that defies all logic in gaining international political power (more than that which the UN already has world-wide) was to rise, proving to be the white horseman (much more so than how the UN has already proven to be by having mirrored the White horseman's entire description and prophesied achievements) then another candidate for the White Horseman entity is not going to arrive and the United Nations is most evidently, the White Horseman of Revelation.

The only thing that would realistically bring the kind of change for a world-peace conquering force to form unopposed in the modern world is a world-war cataclysmic event so powerful that it would make the United States alone to either disappear completely or change its policies in its entirety (and we know that the United States, being the head of the nations will remain until the antichrist's 3.5 year reign, wherein it will be destroyed in less than an hour) which leads us to conclude that the only event that could give the world the possibility of this system being formed, would be nothing more than an all-out-thermonuclear war conflict that would make countries like Russia alone to give up all of their power, being nothing more than what (with today's technology and war-politics) would have to be the Red Horseman, Second Seal.

Seeing that the White Horseman precedes the Red Horseman and that the way the world has developed geo-politically, as well as in its modern warfare and the world's nations' default preference of being independent and self-governed, not to mention the NATO superpower alliance, as well as superpower intervention through countries like the U.S. in case of an international invasive conflict (including those of non-NATO member states) it is completely impossible for the White Horseman to be formed and established without the Red Horseman and because the Red Horseman comes after the White, we would have to logically strongly consider and conclude that the White Horseman is the United Nations intergovernmental world-peace organization.

If so, if all of the pre-tribulation's world ending signs in, "the beginning of sorrows" have already been fulfilled and if we consider the reality of the White Horseman, First Seal being a mysterious entity (symbolizing peace and authority) that has successfully gone conquering with an unused-yet-capable-of-deadly-force bow without arrows and having royal authority (crown) we would have to conclude that the only world-wide entity that matches such a description in a near-perfect manner, would have to be the U.N. Intergovernmental World-Peace, 193-nation-alliance organization.

And why thus, it is very likely, if not undeniably evident that the White Horseman can be seen in:

- The establishment of a world-peace-conquering, highly-politically influential entity (U.N. 1945) [Horseman] not to mention its main minor-force weapon and international armed forces (in the context of approved minor peace-keeping operations) being their blue-helmet peacekeeping armies [Bow without arrows (being one that has enough power to kill someone if they are beaten with it, yet no proper deadly power by fulfilling its intended usage with arrows, also being one that seems threatening in force, yet cannot fulfil its deadly purpose)] with the UN's main and most powerful founding head (the U.S. superpower and head of the nations, the modern great Babylon, as well as the five major superpowers, Russia, China, France and the United Kingdom) [Crown] as its main authority, alongside the rest of the world's UN-united governments (188)

These have (through its multi-nation cooperation agenda and multiple geo-political and interorganizational cooperation efforts and influence) given a conquest of peace to 193 of the world's nations in their worldwide peace-promoting, war-preventing and antichrist, "earth preserving" system efforts to give the world a significantly successful 80-year-long, anti-mass-scale-conflict and ensure enduring peace in most of its nations. [Conquering and to Conquer] the which organization has and currently uses the world's earthly, God-given resources and divine purpose to accomplish God's will [White Horse]

A Brief introduction to the United Nations: And their world-peace keeping Achievements these past 80 years.

The United Nations is the leading global intergovernmental organization in the world today, with 193 member states (besides the areas supposedly recognized by them as "Palestine" and the Vatican City) The organization has a general mandate that encompasses a broad array of issues ranging from international peace and security, to development to human rights, comprised of various specialized agencies and numerous subsidiary organizations.

After the failure of its preceding organization (the League of Nations) to prevent the second world-wide conflict of 1939-1945 that saw the death of over 85 million people worldwide, The United Nations concept was co-authored by well-known, WWII UK Prime Minister Wiston Churchill and then-United-States-President Franklin Roosevelt, having its declaration first signed officially on the 1st of January, 1942. The following years saw progress with the organization when in early April and June of 1945, 50 member states met in San Francisco, having the UN Charter (its main document of protocols and sets of international doctrines) being formally negotiated and signed by president Harry Trueman (who had replaced Roosevelt after his death before the war ended) resulting in the formal creation of the organization itself, the which became active when its operations started in October of 1945.

The UN official charter can be summarized in the following aspects:

Chapter 1, Article 1 of the UN Charter lays out the purposes of the organization, these being:

1. Maintain international peace and security through collective measures and to maintain conformity with the principles of justice and international law.

2. Develop friendly relations among states; equal rights of self-determination.

3. To achieve international cooperation to address economic, social, cultural and humanitarian problems.

4. Harmonize efforts among states.

Chapter I, Article 2, Section 1 Constitutes one of the most important set doctrines of the United Nations in that, "The organization is based on the sovereign equality of all its members."

Chapter I. Article 2, Section 4: "All Members shall refrain in their international relations from the threat or use of force against the territorial integrity or political independence of any state, or in any other manner inconsistent with the Purposes of the United Nations."

It has the core principle in that states should commit themselves to the peaceful resolution of international disputes.

Chapter 6, Authorizes the UN Security Council to take action to address violations of international peace and security, outlining a wide variety of tools and resources, short of the use of force, available to all member states. This includes, but is not short to: Negotiation, inquiry, mediation, conciliation, arbitration, judicial settlements, resort to international order or regional organizations.

E.g. When it came to conflicts involving North Korea, Afghanistan and Syria: The United States has chosen to wait for the UN's five major members' security council approval before taking military action.

The United Nations Charter constitutes of the following topics per chapters:

Chapter I: Purpose of The Organization (and all its worldwide peace-keeping policies)
Chapter II: Membership.
Chapters III-XV: UN organs and institutions.
Chapters XVI: Describes arrangements for integrating the UN with established International law.
Chapters XVIII and XIX: Provide for amendment and ratification of the Charter.

Since their inception, The United Nations (UN) has played a critical role in conflict resolution and prevention since its inception in 1945. The organization's main objectives include promoting peace and security, fostering friendly relations among nations, and ensuring cooperation on international issues such as human rights, and economic development. However, the UN's efforts to prevent or resolve conflicts and its overall impact on world peace has had several challenges and has not been overall perfect in itself (as it is when it comes to all dependance on sinful man and not on God) also perfectly symbolizing the arrowless-bow of the threat of un-usable power without state approval (with their blue-helmet peacekeeping army for special peace-keeping operations) the bow being strong enough to kill someone if beaten with it, yet not capable of using proper lethal force without arrows.

However, due to its peace-keeping presence and its international policies all across the world (as well as the world-wide threat of U.S. militaristic involvement against UN condemned sides) economic threats at sanctions, as well as the condemned nation's unlikelihood of achieving war, if not annexed victory if having started the war The almost world-wide-long peace that the nations have experienced these past 80 years can rightly be attributed to the organization's existence and that mainly due to the, "discouraging" factor against state aggression and its preventing of various conflicts world-wide for decades due to all of the geo-political consequences and unlikelihood of war success.

In fact, here's an overview of the key areas where the UN has made an impact in terms of conflict resolution and preventing wars:

1. Peacekeeping and Mediation:

The UN's peacekeeping forces and mediation efforts have been integral in preventing and resolving conflicts around the world. These forces are often deployed in post-conflict situations to maintain peace or in active conflict zones to monitor ceasefires.

Peacekeeping Missions: Since its creation, the UN has deployed peacekeeping missions to more than 70 countries. These missions serve various functions, from monitoring ceasefires to enforcing peace agreements.

2. Notable Peacekeeping Successes:

Cyprus (1964–present): The UN peacekeeping force in Cyprus has been able to maintain a ceasefire line between Greek and Turkish Cypriots, preventing full-scale war.

El Salvador (1992–1995): The UN brokered a peace deal between the government and rebels, ending the Salvadoran Civil War.

Cambodia (1992–1993): After decades of conflict, the UN helped broker the Paris Peace Agreements, leading to a peaceful transition and the establishment of a democratically elected government.

Conflict Mediation: The UN also plays a vital role in diplomatic efforts, where it serves as a mediator between conflicting parties. This often prevents conflicts from escalating into full-scale wars.

Example: The Iran nuclear deal (JCPOA), negotiated in 2015 with UN support, helped prevent military escalation between Iran and Western powers for 10 years until its resolution in June 2025 when the United States destroyed the Iranian nuclear program for its failure to deescalate its weaponization efforts.

3. Preventing Armed Conflict through Diplomacy:

The UN provides a platform for dialogue and diplomacy, allowing countries to discuss and resolve their differences without resorting to violence. By offering diplomatic mediation, it helps create diplomatic pressure to resolve issues peacefully.

- The Cuban Missile Crisis (1962): One of the most iconic examples of the UN's preventive diplomacy. The UN helped de-escalate the crisis between the United States and the Soviet Union, averting nuclear war and its undeniable subsequent consequence being a third world war.

- Peacebuilding: The UN's peacebuilding efforts focus on addressing the root causes of conflict, such as poverty, inequality, and human rights violations, thereby preventing future wars.

    - Example: The United Nations Peacebuilding Support Office has worked in post-conflict regions like Sierra Leone, Liberia, and Afghanistan to create institutions, build trust, and restore order, helping prevent future conflict.

4. Preventing Genocide and Mass Atrocities:

The UN has worked to prevent or address genocides and mass atrocities through international conventions, peacekeeping interventions, and holding perpetrators accountable through tribunals.

- Rwanda (1994): While the UN failed to prevent the genocide in Rwanda, it has since worked to improve its response to such crises, providing support for peacekeeping and creating mechanisms for justice, such as the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda (ICTR).

- The Responsibility to Protect (R2P) doctrine was developed to prevent mass atrocities, and the UN has applied it in some cases, such as in Libya (2011), where NATO intervened after the UN authorized a no-fly zone to protect civilians from government forces.

Sanctions and Diplomacy:

The UN Security Council can impose sanctions on nations that threaten international peace and security, often acting as a deterrent to potential aggressors.

- North Korea: The UN has imposed multiple rounds of sanctions on North Korea to curtail its nuclear ambitions and prevent military escalation on the Korean Peninsula.

- Iran: Sanctions have been used as leverage to bring Iran to the negotiating table, resulting in the Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action (JCPOA) nuclear deal in 2015.

5. Humanitarian Interventions and Aid:

In many cases, the UN has intervened in ongoing conflicts to provide humanitarian aid and prevent further human suffering. These interventions can help mitigate the effects of war and, in some instances, serve as a catalyst for peace.

- Bosnia (1992–1995): The UN facilitated humanitarian relief efforts and provided protection to civilians during the Bosnian War, which helped alleviate some of the war's most dire consequences.

- South Sudan: After South Sudan's civil war, the UN has been heavily involved in providing humanitarian assistance and stabilizing the country.

6. International Law and Human Rights:

The UN has played a significant role in the development and enforcement of international laws aimed at preventing wars and atrocities. Its role in promoting human rights, international law, and the prohibition of the use of force except in self-defense or under UN authorization has been key to global peace efforts.

- Geneva Conventions: The UN has helped shape international laws concerning the treatment of prisoners of war, the protection of civilians, and the conduct of warfare.

- International Criminal Court (ICC): The ICC, though not directly a UN body, was established under the auspices of the UN and is tasked with prosecuting individuals for war crimes, genocide, and crimes against humanity. This serves as a deterrent to potential war criminals.

7. Peacebuilding and Development Programs:

The UN's Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) are designed to reduce inequalities, promote economic development, and address the root causes of conflict. By promoting global development and human well-being, the UN aims to prevent the conditions that often lead to violent conflicts.

- Poverty Reduction and Economic Development: Countries that are more economically developed are less likely to experience violent conflict. The UN's work in fostering economic development, healthcare, and education has helped address underlying causes of violence.

8. Impact of the United Nations on World Peace:

While the UN has had significant successes, it has also faced challenges and criticisms. Here are some of the broader impacts:

- Positive Impact on Peacekeeping: The UN's role in preventing wars through peacekeeping operations, mediation, and diplomacy has likely prevented numerous conflicts from escalating into global wars. However, the success of peacekeeping missions is often context-dependent and varies with the political will of member states.

- Dispute Resolution Platform: The UN provides a platform for countries to resolve disputes peacefully through dialogue and negotiation. The Security Council, despite its flaws, remains an essential body for addressing international security issues.

- Humanitarian Aid and Support: The UN’s humanitarian missions have been pivotal in reducing human suffering in conflict zones, providing food, medical care, and shelter to millions of refugees and displaced persons.

- Promotion of International Norms: The UN has been instrumental in shaping international norms, such as the prohibition of the use of force except in self-defense or under Security Council authorization. It has promoted global human rights standards and the idea that peace and security are the collective responsibility of all nations.

9. Challenges and Limitations:

Despite these successes, the UN has often been criticized for its inability to prevent major conflicts or to respond effectively in certain situations. Some of the challenges it faces include:

- Veto Power: The permanent members of the UN Security Council (the U.S., U.K., France, Russia, and China) have veto power, which often leads to inaction when these members have conflicting interests. For instance, the UN was unable to intervene effectively in Syria because of Russian and Chinese vetoes.

- Inconsistent Enforcement: While the UN can impose sanctions, these measures are not always enforced consistently or effectively. Countries with powerful allies may avoid sanctions, and enforcement can sometimes be selective.

- Complexity of Modern Conflicts: Many contemporary conflicts are not traditional interstate wars but involve domestic affairs, insurgencies, and asymmetrical warfare. These aspects make it harder for the UN to intervene effectively.

The United Nations has had a significant impact on keeping world peace. Its contributions to peacekeeping, diplomacy, international law, and humanitarian relief have prevented numerous conflicts on a global scale.

However, its limitations, particularly in the face of geopolitics and the veto power in the Security Council, has made it so that it has not always succeeded in preventing war or conflict in every case, proving its man-centered inefficiency and its guaranteed future collapse when the Red Horseman of Revelation unfolds (the birth-pain prophecies having been fulfilled) up until that point however,

“The overall impact of the UN in maintaining world peace (When it comes to its main goal of preventing a world-war-scale conflict) and preventing wars has been largely positive, since its inception in the post-World War II era.”

Due to the already fulfilled birth pains signs that precede the tribulation period and the world-wide accumulation of imminent judgement through the behavioral fruit of its vast apostacy (as Sodom and Gomorrah were before being rained with fire and brimstone) as well as seeing the already overwhelmingly evident signs of the White-Horse seal of dominion wherein the United Nations, through its world-peace-keeping agenda has successfully (having spiritually ridden through every nation and successfully asserted its political influence and enforcing power through The Veto powers in the security council) who alongside the United States, has been the major member and partner of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) having thus given the world the armed-forced peace-defense system (and as proven in the Ukro-Russian conflict) in also becoming a very real probable threat against non-Nato aggressors for the sake of peace-keeping purposes (even in non-Nato member conflicts)

It is much reasonable and realistic to conclude the United Nations, through their main U.S. superpower within the United Nations Veto powers has in itself been the only world-wide and successful peace-influencing and without much use of force, the which use of force being largely ineffective without state member approval (the same as that of a bow without arrows) has been a peace-enforcing (through the major threat of world-wide sanction enforcement as well as U.S. involvement on offending nations) the which only world-wide, peace-enforcing presence perfectly matches the description of the White Horseman of Revelation that makes an introductory start to the main tribulation of Revelation before the Red Horseman takes the peace from the earth that the White Horseman is implied (by the verses) to have brought to it.

Because this White-Horseman-like, world-wide, world-peace presence has been established on the earth for almost 80 years now and every other sign of the end times "Beginning of Sorrows" that precede (and eventually become part of the main tribulation of Revelation) has been perfectly fulfilled, we can rightly presume and come to the rightful conclusion that the United Nations is very likely, if not being undeniably evident, the White Horseman of Revelation.

Not only has the White Horseman, first seal of Revelation 6 been fulfilled, but due to "the beginning of sorrows" end-of-world signs having been fulfilled also, the Gospel having ran its course in every country in the world these past 2,000 years, we can conclude also that the White Horseman is coming to its soon rapid end to unveil the Red Horseman of a global-scale-conflict.

Biblically speaking, it is theologically accurate to conclude that the only end result of the United Nations and the U.S./NATO alliance is nothing short of world war, for the world's nations' vast apostacy from the safe-keeping hand of God as their protector and divine shield from foreign threat, having cursed themselves by putting their trust in the fallenness of man's arm's strength by the exercise of the foolishness of man's wisdom, rather than depending on their protection by the sovereign hand of the Almighty.

Jeremiah 17:5-6 say,

"Thus says the LORD:

> "Cursed is the man who trusts in man
> And makes flesh his strength,
> Whose heart departs from the LORD.
> For he shall be like a shrub in the desert,
> And shall not see when good comes,
> But shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness,
> In* a salt land which is not inhabited."

Not only have the nations turned from God's protection and have put dependance on the folly of man's wisdom and its protective schemes, but as already discussed above, in that due to the overwhelmingly increasing and utterly wicked Sodom and Gomorrah world-wide lawlessness of the past eighty years alone, which has undoubtedly gotten far worse these past three decades (in what will be in 2030 [or 2033, only God knows certainly] the 2,000-year-old anniversary of the crucifixion, death, resurrection and ascension of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ)

This world is ready for universally strong, righteous and fierce judgement, as Sodom and Gomorrah were before fire and brimstone fell from heaven.

And that because the White Horseman, First Seal has already come and successfully done its peace-keeping conquest these past eighty years in judging the antichrist's earth's inhabitants by giving the vast majority of them peace of mind and security in their antichrist rejection of God, having brought this fallen, sinful world a well-deserved curse in doing so, the which will be ready to be executed at any time (very likely after the rebuilding of the third Judaistic Temple, as of Revelation 11) in the Red Horseman world-wide conflict when the peace given by the White Horseman is taken away from the earth and men are to kill each other.

Most Christians unanimously agree that they can see and recognize the birth-pains of the signs of the end times and that the end, "… is near—at the doors!"

Bellow is Isaiah 34 clearly prophesying and depicting the Red Horseman, Second Seal of Revelation, as well as following plagues and end of the end of the first heavens.

“Come near, you nations, to hear;
And heed, you people! Let the earth hear, and all that is in it,
The world and all things that come forth from it.
2 For the indignation of the LORD is against all nations,
And His fury against all their armies;
He has utterly destroyed them,
He has given them over to the slaughter.
3 Also their slain shall be thrown out;
Their stench shall rise from their corpses,
And the mountains shall be melted with their blood.
4 All the host of heaven shall be dissolved,
And the heavens shall be rolled up like a scroll;
All their host shall fall down
As the leaf falls from the vine,
And as fruit falling from a fig tree.

5 “For My sword shall be bathed in heaven;
Indeed it shall come down on Edom,
And on the people of My curse, for judgment.
6 The sword of the LORD is filled with blood,
It is made overflowing with fatness,
With the blood of lambs and goats,
With the fat of the kidneys of rams.
For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah,
And a great slaughter in the land of Edom.
7 The wild oxen shall come down with them,
And the young bulls with the mighty bulls;
Their land shall be soaked with blood,
And their dust saturated with fatness.”
8 For it is the day of the LORD’s vengeance,
The year of recompense for the cause of Zion.
9 Its streams shall be turned into pitch,
And its dust into brimstone;
Its land shall become burning pitch.
10 It shall not be quenched night or day;
Its smoke shall ascend forever.
From generation to generation it shall lie waste;
No one shall pass through it forever and ever.
(Isaiah 34:1-10)

The Pre-Tribulational Rapture Disproven

And the vast eschatological confusion it has brought on the whole world regarding the only Second Coming of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ

"I charge you therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who will judge the living and the dead at His appearing and His kingdom"

4A. Introduction

The concept of a pre-tribulational rapture was not widely, if EVER taught (besides a brief concept of a suggestive theological idea for it by a few theologians) throughout these past two thousand years, it had never, ever been taught as a general doctrine by the Holy Spirit lead-church of the Lord Jesus Christ these past two thousand years until the early 1830's when a well-known Plymouth Brethren preacher by the name of John Nelson Darby began to teach the concept from Ireland. It at first received much opposition from fellow Plymouth Brethren preachers but the idea of it (and the disannulling of The Day Lord context in the verses used to teach such a doctrine e.g. The convenient discontinuation of 1 Thessalonians chapter 4 being chapter 5, wherein the Holy Spirit through Paul makes very clear that Paul's "Rapturos" word of chapter 4, of being gathered to the air with the saints by the angels in none other than the Day of The Lord (that Joel makes very clear is at the end of the Tribulation to destroy the antichrist and his armies) that will come as a thief in the night, Thessalonians being one unified letter) due to its peace-giving (as false a peace as it is) carnal convenience, spread quite rapidly and sadly so, became very popular all over the world.

And that just like every other false new teaching that emerged in the 1800's also that became a part of all the world-known cults today, such as the 7th Day Adventists, Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormons etc.

Due to the simplicity of the reforming of the Christian's mind away from what will RIGHTFULLY be referred to, as "The Darbyte Rapture deception" through a simple walk-through of Biblical passages, this chapter, after its brief introduction and theological guide in principles, will only focus on basic passage commentary, as well as a rapid historical further analysis of the beginnings of the Pre-Tribulational Rapture doctrine in the early 1830's.

4B. Guiding principles on reform of thought from the Rapture:

The number one rule that the Christian church ought to know whenever it comes to core and doctrinal foundations of the Christian faith is that:

1. If it isn't found in canonical protestant Holy Spirit-lead church history as an accepted and received apostolical doctrine by the church, being a brand-new teaching, then it is false. (2 Peter 1:20)
2. There are only Two Comings of Christ (The first one having already been fulfilled in His willing humility 2,000 years ago and His redemptive work at the cross and victorious resurrection and ascension to the right hand of the Father) and the second being in the Day of The Lord at the end of the tribulation when He returns with the glory of His Father and that of the Holy angels with His army of saints. (the rapture, whether one likes to admit it or not, plainly teaches three separate interactions in the sense of Christ's physical bodily presence coming to the earth, giving the entire church the subconsciously-denying, yet undeniable fact that pre-tribulational rapture believers both preach and un-discerningly believe in three separate comings of Christ (whether it is admitted or not)
3. There are only Two Resurrections (whereas the Pre-tribulational rapture ideology has no choice but to include three, one during the "rapture" the second at the end of the tribulation and the third on The Day of Judgement) whereas the Authoritative words of our Lord Jesus Christ taught very clearly and very plainly that there would only be two, to never be added to, nor be taken away from.

"Do not marvel at this; for the hour is coming in which all who are in the graves will hear His voice "and come forth—those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of condemnation." (John 5:28-29)

4. All of the verses that were attributed to the Pre-tribulational-Rapture are verses that plainly and clearly speak of the Day of The Lord and the First Resurrection taken entirely out of context in all delusional, wishful thinking and biblical reasoning.

5. The only people that the entire scripture makes very, very clear in the context of receiving the privilege of being taken out of the earth and that as a means of a suggestive, "teleportation-like" snatching (not in a rapture in the clouds) are the 144,000 Hebrew male Christian virgins of the tribes of Israel, the which will most likely be very young Christian Israelite males. Everyone else, whether Israelite Christians of both genders or not, as well as all of us (majority) gentiles, will stay behind (having also the seal of God on our foreheads that will protect us from the main plagues targeting unbelievers as of Revelation 9:4)

   "...and no one could learn that song except the hundred and forty-four thousand who were redeemed from the earth. These are the ones who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes.

   These were redeemed from among men, being first fruits to God and to the Lamb." (Revelation 14:3-4)

6. As briefly mentioned above, the Seal of God that will protect the saints throughout the tribulation is not limited to the 144,000 Hebrew Christian male virgins in its introduction on Revelation 7:1-8, but to the entirety of the universal born-again Christian church of our Lord Jesus Christ as Revelation 9 clearly indicates. (Seeing that a third part of the trees and all the grass of the earth have already been burnt up in the first trumpet judgement [Rev 8:7] and the 144,000 have already been redeemed from the earth by the time the plague of locusts hits the earth as the fifth trumpet judgement [Rev 9:1-4])

7. The church was always expected to both study the Book of Revelation and prayerfully prepare according to each event the moment the signs of the beginning of the tribulation began, as well as when the tribulation itself started, as such were the commandments of our Lord and Saviour in the synoptic gospel's apocalyptic chapters in Matthew 24, Mark 13 and Luke 21. (He never ever gave or insinuated the idea that we would be taken away before these events took place, much less that they alone applied to the Jews as convenient modern day westernized-Christianity has widely bewitched the world in teaching otherwise.

4C. Brief analysis of the main passages of Scripture that clearly disprove the Rapture.

The Day of The Lord and the real serious context of 1 Thessalonians 4:14-18 continuing as one reading through chapter 5, verses 1 to 4.

"For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who sleep in Jesus. For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will by no means precede those who are asleep. For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore comfort one another with these words. But concerning the times and the seasons, brethren, you have no need that I should write to you. For you yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night. For when they say, "Peace and safety!" then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a pregnant woman. And they shall not escape. But you, brethren, are not in darkness, so that this Day should overtake you as a thief. You are all sons of light and sons of the day. We are not of the night nor of darkness."

- First letter to the Thessalonian church, by the Apostle Paul.
(Modern day numbering as of 1 Thess 4:14-18; immediately followed by its conclusive context in chapter 5:1-2)

Contextual commentary: What the entire church of the Lord Jesus Christ understood very clearly for 1800 years (and so much more before the numbering of the Bible, which wasn't a bad thing) was that the letter given to the Thessalonian church in the context of the ending of what is now known as chapter 4 as well as the beginning of chapter 5 are that of an unified letter, the ending of chapter 4 is not conclusive in itself, it only becomes conclusive until the content of chapter 5 verse 3 (or what is now known as chapter 5) is reached before Paul turns to a subsequent sanctification-wise context afterwards. The same final trumpet sound of this letter (as of Matt 24:30) is that of the final trumpet that sounds on the same event of the first resurrection (after the first angelic judgement trumpets of revelation have sounded as of 1 Cor 15:51) because it is unified with the first and only resurrection of the just, the voice of the archangel (as confirmed in Rev 19:17-18 in the Day of Christ's return wherein He will decree the great sound of the trumpet of God, the archangel on the sun will announce the Lamb's Battle Supper's victory in his commandment to the birds of the earth and wherein the Son of Man will send the Holy angels to gather His remaining elect from the four corners of the earth and cast the rest of the unbelieving world into the lake of fire in that same great Day of The Lord as 2 Thess 1:7-11 and Matt 13:40-43 as well as Jude 1:14-15 confirm) and the confirmation of Paul in the Holy Spirit's intended immediately followed context (now known as chapter 5:1-3) of that same day, being The Day of The Lord.

Paul by no means ever intended to describe the two sentences and immediate affirmations in the same unified first letter written to the Thessalonians as that of two separate events. The two sentences are of one unified topic, in one unified context, as that of one unified event, in one unified letter as the entire universally born-again Christian Church of all the ages understood very well until the early 1830's. The same day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night for the unbelieving world as of Matt 24:32-44/Mark 13:32-37/Luk 21:28-36 but as the Lord indicates, the Christian church, if it keeps watch, will be able to estimate and understand the final events that are happening even now with the "Beginning of Sorrows" signs that precede the tribulation having been fulfilled perfectly these past two centuries alone, as well as when the time of the only return of the Son of Man in the great "Day of The Lord" will be as they watch Revelation's event after subsequent event and prepare and act accordingly, for both the Lord says that the faithful stewards, the wise virgins, those being born again believers, "…are not in darkness, so that this Day should overtake you as a thief."

The Context of the Unified Day of The Lord continues in the second letter of the Apostle Paul to the Thessalonians found in chapter 1, verses 7 to 11

"…and to give you who are troubled rest with us when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with His mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who do not know God, and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. These shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power, when He comes, in that Day*, to be glorified in His saints* and to be admired among all those who believe, because our testimony among you was believed. Therefore we also pray always for you that our God would count you worthy of *this calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of His goodness and the work of faith with power…"

- Second letter to the Thessalonian church, by the Apostle Paul.

(Modern day numbering as of 2 Thess 1:7-11)

Contextual Commentary: Following the unified-event context of the end of the first letter written to the Thessalonian church, the second letter written by Paul re-introduces the unified ending theme of the first letter to re-introduce and comfort the tribulated Thessalonians concerning the great Day of The Lord when the Lord Jesus Christ is revealed with His promised mighty angels (alongside the spiritual heavenly armies following behind Him) in the unique and un-shared glory of His second coming, coming with the glory that He eternally had with the Father before the world was (that was forever restored to Him upon His re-glorification and coronation forty days after His resurrection and the spiritual ascending of the saints from Sheol to His presence in Heaven (Phil 2) the which after He has first descended and the earth has beheld His Glory, the blink-of-an-eye celestial/transcendent resurrection of the saints of all the ages takes place as that of the "switch" of a light-bulb (the which second resurrection has no connection, nor union to the earthly first decayed and dusty body in the context of the returning horseman armies) for the great revealing of the Sons of God (who will not partake in any fighting on that day) for all having all creation beholding them (Rom 8:19) for the Lord said that only after His holy angels have thrown the wicked to hell and gathered his elect that are alive to the clouds with the saints, will they (that is the saints) then (and only then, after the only two angelic reaps have taken place) "shine forth as the sun"

"…Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!" (Matt 13:43) If the returning saints in the heavenly armies were already glorified, the entirety of the uniqueness of the only rightful place of glorification that belongs to the Lord Jesus Christ alone would be obsolete and His coming, if with such a supposed shared-glory (would become unthinkably and disrespectfully irreverent).

The saints only become glorified after the final Trumpet has sounded and the wicked have been thrown into hell and the saints are fully gathered as a full display of the revelation of the Sons of God in what could be referred to as, "the transcendent/celestial" only first resurrection of life that was widely taught by the church for 1800 years (wherein the martyrs of all the ages and the tribulation period [Rev 20:4-6] are included in as an unified event, for the text says concerning the martyrs in added revelation to the one and only first resurrection as means of comfort to their suffering and martyrdom, "…And they lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over such the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years." Rev 20:4-6)

"Therefore if they say to you, 'Look, He is in the desert!' do not go out; or 'Look, He is in the inner rooms!' do not believe it. For as the lightning comes from the east and flashes to the west, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. For wherever the carcass is, there the eagles will be gathered together. Immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. And He will send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other."

- The words of our Lord Jesus Christ, by the Apostle Matthew in His Gospel account to the Jews and Gentiles.
(modern day numbering as of Matthew 24:26-31)

Contextual commentary: The Only Second coming of our Lord Jesus Christ will be marked as a world-enlightening event wherein, He that dwells in the light that no man can approach unto as of 1 Tim 6:14-16 (and who will by no means ever take that eternal glory away in respect to any man's person, as was rightfully restored once and for all after His ascension 2,000 years ago) will descend, enlightening the entire world, from the east to the west and be seen coming with clouds so much so that all the tribes of the earth mourn (vs 30; Rev 1:5-6) in the only coming (and as vs 20 by His words teaching) being, "the coming" not "the final coming" or "the third coming" of the Son of Man (the which He made it very clear would only happen once, without later revelatory contradiction, implying that coming would be that of the Day of The Lord) that will be with (and as the words of our Lord teach in vs 31) the great sound of a trumpet (vs 31) being the Trumpet of God in the same and only first resurrection unified event (1 Thess 4:18) as the words of Paul also teach in 1 Cor 15:51, being the last trumpet that is to sound (after the only promised trumpets have sounded, being the angelic trumpet judgements of Revelation)

40 There are* also celestial bodies and terrestrial bodies; but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. 41 There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory. 42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption. 43 It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. 44 It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. 45 And so it is written, "The first man Adam became a living being." The last Adam became a life-giving spirit. 46 However, the spiritual is not first, but the natural, and afterward the spiritual. 47 The first man was of the earth, made of dust; the second Man is the Lord from heaven. 48 As was the man of dust, so also are those who are made of dust; and as is the heavenly Man, so also are those *who are heavenly. [49] And as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly *Man. [50] Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; nor does corruption inherit incorruption. [51] Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed— [52] in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet [Matt 24:31] will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. [53] For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. [54] So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: "Death is swallowed up in victory." (1 Cor 15:40-54)

- First letter to the Corinthian church, by the Apostle Paul.
(Modern day numbering as of 1 Cor 15:40-54)

Contextual Commentary 2 (The earthly body does not literally resurrect with the spiritual body, they are separate: understanding the celestial resurrection):
Understanding the truths in that the only first resurrection of life happens on the only second coming of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ at the last day, right after He has been glorified in the great focus of the central point of all creation, right after the trumpet sounds, do the saints, both in the clouds with Christ in the once-and-for-all-returning armies (Rev 19:14) and the remaining remnant on earth (1 Thess 4:15;17) in the twinkling-of-an-eye/blink of an eye are spiritually resurrected with a spiritual body that has no connection to their first earthly nature (many of the saints' bodies having been already decomposed to atoms for millennia, not to mention those that sadly died at sea or became dust straight away by burning etc.) this is due to the chapter's revealing hints at the mystery of the two natures of the first man and the second from heaven being completely separate from each other. The first nature precedes the second and the second supersedes the first, though it is almost entirely certain and sure that the spiritual body of the new creation will most likely have a sense of physicality (seeing that our Lord has a physical body of flesh and always will, being the second member of the Godhead in the flesh forever) yet is so that because the words of our Lord Jesus Christ make it clear that saints don't get glorified and begin to shine forth as the sun until the trumpet has sounded (Matt 13:43) it is evident that the first resurrection of life, to reflect the unimaginable and incomprehensible glories of the creation to come, will be entirely celestial in itself and will take form wherever the soul of the first body is, not where the first body decayed or was laid to rest (for many of them no longer exist, even in dust as mentioned above or have been misplaced) meaning that the returning horsemen armies are entirely spiritual and although clothed in fine-linen, white and clean, do not indicate any type of heavenly-glorification and that most likely so in order to give space to the only great glorious appearing of the LORD God in the flesh, our Lord Jesus

Christ and His Holy angels for the then afterwards glorification and full display of the revelation of the Sons of God to all creation as of Rom 8:19 (like a bride that is introduced to the bridegroom at the front of the wedding and guests once the wedding has begun, so do the Sons of God get revealed in their glory before the holy angels and all creation after their bridegroom Lord is first displayed in the fullness of His glory before all the creation upon His return)

The only resurrection of life will happen at the last day (Jhn 6:44;54) the Day of The Lord (2 Pet 3:10) after the last trumpet has sounded (1 Cor 15:52;) and it will be a celestial resurrection, wherever the saved soul is (whether the soul as the returning saints on the horses in the armies, or the soul in the remaining body that hasn't yet experienced death here on earth) or on earth as the remnants' first earthly sinful bodies of flesh and blood would disintegrate by the glory of the new celestial body in the blink of an eye, milliseconds-wise (1 Cor 15:52) to be immediately picked up by the holy angels after they have first thrown the wicked into hell (Matt 13:30; Matt 24:28; Luk 17:30-37) and have the glorified saints placed on the clouds with the heavenly armies (Matt 13:30) alongside the martyrs of the tribulation, alongside the martyrs of all the ages, whether Jew or Gentile (Jude 1:14)

Contextual Commentary 2 (At the last Trumpet, For the Trumpet will sound): After the sound of the last Trumpet (the great sound of the Trumpet as of Matthew 24:31) this "last trumpet" (1 Cor 15:52) implying that there would be preceding trumpets that sound before the promised trumpet of God that sounds on the only-first resurrection, the only resurrection of life at the, "last day" (Jhn 5:28-29; Jhn 6:44;54) being the Day of The Lord when man-led history comes to an end, the only promised trumpets to sound in a future day by the righteous and rightful context of scripture are the angelic trumpet judgements of Revelation, connecting the final trumpet of the last day with Matthew 24:31's Trumpet the only-first resurrection at The Only First Second Coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, when He comes with a white horse, crowned with many crowns and the armies of heaven with white horses, following behind Him, as all the saints both living and dead, as well as martyred (wherein the martyrs of all the ages and the tribulation period are included in, as an unified event, for the text mentions concerning the martyrs of the tribulation period in that their resurrection is the same and only resurrection of life (Jhn 5:28-29; Jhn 6:44-54) as a means of specified honor due to their willing martyrdom, giving them the right to partake as rulers in Christ's millennial kingdom, (for not having bowed down to the antichrist's short-term rule on earth, they get to rule with the true Christ in the millennial kingdom immediately) "...And they lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over such the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years." Rev 20:4-6)

- Due to the heavens dissolving with fervent heat and the earth and its works being left bare on the great Day of The Lord (2 Pet 3:10) the great Day of Christ's return to earth to destroy the antichrist and his armies and establish His millennial kingdom (Joel 2:1-11; Joel 3:9-17; Zeph 1:14-18; 2 Thes 2:8; Rev 19:11-21) afterwards the angels will be seen ascending and descending upon the Son of Man (John 1:51) on the great mountain that Zion will become (being higher than all mountains on earth) It is evident that all the redeemed saints of all the ages (from Adam and Eve, all the way to the remaining remnant of the Day of The Lord) as well as the holy angels (the three heavens no longer being in existence) will be a non-ruling, present part of the millennial kingdom (the current earth being able to host 8 billion people+ and with space to spare is large enough to host all the saints, angels in the sky, as well as the repopulated sinful mankind of the millennium, as of Zech14:16-21) as what will most likely be the remaining infants and kids from the tribulation (who didn't know right from wrong until what could most likely be the near maturity of teenage-hood as of Deut 1:39) who will be used to repopulate the earth and be ruled by the tribulation's martyrs (Rev 20:4-6) by what will most likely be both angelic and saint assistance, as well as loving presence on that day.

All of Matthew 24, Mark 13 and Luke 21 and the unified event of 1 Thessalonians 4:14-18, to chapter 5:1-3, as well as that of 2 Thessalonians 1:7-11 and so much more specially so of that of 2 Peter chapter 3 and the whole book of Revelation was all given to the church because it is God's holy and sovereign good will for the church of the end times to prepare itself for it and act accordingly as they live through it, knowing that through every watchful event, all of us not being in spiritual darkness will not have the Day of The Lord (which is the real context of 1 Thess 4:14-18;5:1-2) the Day of Christ's return to overtake us as a thief.

4D. The Illogical aspect of the, "Rapture" from the Biblical perspective

1 Thessalonians 4:14-18; chapt 5:1-2 is not talking about:

- A supposed day of an event when the Lord Jesus Christ is given a pre-tribulational commandment from the Father that neither He nor the scripture ever promised, whereas apostles such as Peter in his inspired epistles taught the church to look forward to the next Christ-eventful appearance being the Day of The Lord () giving no emphasis, nor any indication for the church to ever look forward to an event that would precede the Day of The Lord.

- A Christ that will supposedly take away His glory (the which He will never again take away and never again make any type of Christophanies after the sacredness of His ascension, coronation and glorification)

- Who will with utmost convenience, become invisible, to then supposedly travel with His saints (without His Royal heavenly horse and their horses, for God only knows how many trillions of miles from the third heaven all the way to the earth)

- Who will stop 10 to 20 thousand feet from earth's ground level (still invisibly and without His glory with what would be none other than having respect of persons to the Christian saints of the last days)

- Have some archangel say some sort of dialogue (because he can't possibly command the birds to eat the flesh of the antichrist's armies as of Rev 19) which also means He brought an archangel with him, along with the invisible floating saints.

- And then have His entire kingdom of innumerable (billions) of saints that the verses of 1 Corinthians 15:40-54 (in the saints putting their spiritual bodies that the words of our Lord Jesus Christ in Matthew 13:43 alone teach that such glorified spiritual bodies shine as bright as the sun, near-blinding the whole world in the process) in the which case scenario, one would have to believe in either of two outcomes.

- That the saints are resurrected "invisibly" (which goes against pre-tribulational rapture theology) in their spiritual bodies (against all biblical promises) as they are elevated to the clouds, or that the innumerable amount of saints on earth will blind the whole world through their spiritual bodies so intensely and then be seen leaving in glory as they leave further and further away in outer space (without Christ being glorified with them because the glory of the second coming cannot take place in the invisible rapture, the which becomes blasphemy) all the way to the third heaven (because they will by no means teleport back)

If the pre-tribulational rapture doctrine sounds nonsensical, blasphemous, extrinsically (and in all biblical odds-defyingly convenient) as well as 1830's new, that's because it is. This is truly what the rapture technically teaches and don't worry, most Christians have been taught to believe it, as I used to for the first six years of being a Christian. The pre-tribulational rapture teaching and the way the Bible has been numbered is so closely aligned to the events of the Day of The Lord in that it becomes a very strong delusion that most of us cannot at first discern properly because it is so closely aligned to the truth and is received as general doctrine by the majority of the Christian believing world, which is why Christians can spend an entire lifetime believing in it because of its popularized misinformation and lack of received knowledge. Not to mention that the numbered separation of chapters between chapter 4 to chapter 5 in 1 Thessalonians can take the reader out of focus for them to subconsciously read the continued context of chapter 5's opening verses as a separate event and not as the unified event that Paul originally wrote about by the Inspiration of the Holy Spirit.

And as sad as it is (in the way that Darby's doctrine deceived the whole world for almost two centuries now) anyone that believes in the pre-tribulational rapture (the which doctrine began in its over popularization through the Plymouth brethren movement, as well as the Scofield Bible from the early 1830's by their founding leader's teaching John Nelson Darby) will always have to receive all of these subsequent teachings that such a doctrine implies and find themselves very confused (as I always was when it came to the rapture) having no idea of just how dangerous and self-destructive the pre-tribulational rapture concept will prove to be when the real context of the end times unfolds right before everyone's eyes.

So, if the church of the first 1800's years never taught on the subject. Apart from about two or three lone theologians that taught the hope of a similar concept (with clashing views) that the church in general (and no reformer) ever classified as a real doctrine the way Darby did, how exactly did he originate such a teaching and how did it propagate out of control as the spiritually blinding plague that it truly is?

4E. The 1830's historical beginnings of the Pre-Tribulational Rapture of Scripture.

A Brief History of Darby's popularized, "Pre-Tribulational Rapture" during the early 1830's (The century of cultic confusion and delusion)

The pre-tribulational rapture doctrine — the belief that Christians will be taken up (raptured) to meet Christ before a seven-year period of tribulation — is a relatively modern development in Christian theology. It emerged in the early 19th century, with John Nelson Darby being its most influential and systematic proponent.

In dispensational pre-tribulational rapture premillennialism, the end times are structured as follows:

1. The rapture of believers.
2. A seven-year tribulation marked by global turmoil under the Antichrist.
3. The Second Coming of Christ to establish a millennial kingdom on Earth.

Pre-tribulationism teaches that the rapture occurs before the tribulation, separating the Church from God's judgments upon the world. This differs from:

- Mid-tribulationism – rapture in the middle of the tribulation.
- Post-tribulationism – rapture at the end of the tribulation.

John Nelson Darby (1800–1882)

Darby was an Anglo-Irish theologian and founder of the Plymouth Brethren movement. He became the primary architect of dispensationalism, which divides history into "dispensations" or distinct periods in which God deals with humanity in different ways.

Darby's Key Contributions:

- Introduced the idea of a secret rapture distinct from the Second Coming.
- Argued that the Church and Israel are separate in God's plan — the tribulation is for Israel, not the Church.

- Promoted a literal interpretation of biblical prophecy.

Historical Development

Year	Event
1830	Margaret MacDonald, a Scottish teenager, has a prophetic vision that some claim included a pre-tribulation rapture. However, her writings suggest a post-tribulational scenario. ([MacPherson, The Incredible Cover-Up, 1975])
1830s	Darby begins to teach a secret rapture, claiming it was revealed to him through Scripture rather than through visions. ([Wilkinson, 2007])
1833–1840	Darby formalizes his dispensational framework, and the rapture becomes part of his system.
1860s–1870s	Darby visits the United States, influencing theologians and prophecy conferences. ([Sandeen, The Roots of Fundamentalism, 1970])
1909	The Scofield Reference Bible is published, incorporating Darby's ideas and spreading them widely in American evangelicalism. ([Craig A. Blaising & Darrell L. Bock, Progressive Dispensationalism, 1993])

Darby and later pre-tribulational proponents cited incomplete day of the lord passages out of context interpreted literally:

- 1 Thessalonians 4:16–17 – "…the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive… will be caught up… to meet the Lord in the air." (Without chap 5:1-2)
    - (1 Thessalonians 4:16-
- Revelation 3:10 – "I will keep you from the hour of trial that is going to come on the whole world…"

- 1 Corinthians 15:51–52 – "…We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, in a flash… at the last trumpet."

Controversy and Criticism

- Historical Theology: No early church fathers explicitly taught a pre-tribulation rapture. Writers like Irenaeus, Tertullian, and Augustine taught that the Church would undergo tribulation before Christ's return.

- Margaret MacDonald's Vision: While some critics (notably Dave MacPherson) argue that Darby was influenced by MacDonald's 1830 vision, most scholars agree Darby developed his doctrine independently, though within a prophetic/charismatic context.

  Source*: Richard R. Reiter, *A History of the Development of the Rapture Positions (1981); Dave MacPherson, The Rapture Plot (1994)

- Biblical Debate: Many theologians reject a secret, pre-tribulation rapture as lacking clear biblical support. This includes amillennialists, postmillennialists, and even some historic premillennialists.

Summary

- The pre-tribulational rapture doctrine originated in the early 1830s, primarily developed by John Nelson Darby through a dispensational lens.

- It gained traction in British and American evangelicalism, especially via the Scofield Reference Bible (1909).

- Despite its popularity in modern evangelical circles, it is not a historic or universal Christian belief and remains theologically contested.

4F. Conclusion

The Bible is very clear that not only are there only two ever promised comings of Christ on earth (Act 1:11; Rev 1:7) but that after His first coming, He will never take His glory away again (Jhn 17:24; Heb 2:9) and on the day of His only second return, He will return in the fullness of His glory (Mrk 8:38; Matt 24:27-28) so much so that after the tribulation period has ended, there will be a sign called the Sign of The Son of Man (Matt 24:30) that precedes His return to mark the uniqueness and sacredness of the event of His second coming and do so with the armies of heaven (Jud 1:14-15; Rev 19:40) and the holy angels (Mrk 8:38; Matt 24:28) crowned with many crowns (Rev 19:12) with a vesture dipped in what will most likely be the blood of His enemies (Rev 19:13; Isah 63:1-4) as the KING of Kings and the LORD of Lords (Rev 19:16) to blow the final trumpet (1 Thess 4:16) that comes after the first angelic trumpets have sounded and the bowls have been poured (Rev 6-19) thus in a celestial manner, resurrect His saints in the blink of an eye (1 Cor 15:40-54) both in the clouds with Him on their horses and also those remaining on earth (1 Thess 4:17-chp5:1-3) as on the only first resurrection of life (out of the only two resurrections of the Bible as of the words of our Lord in John 5:28-29) on that great Day of The Lord (1 Thess 5:1-4) wherein He will, by the power of the strength of the command of His mouth (2 Thess 2:8) command the angels to throw the antichrist and false prophet in the lake of fire (Rev 19:20) and will destroy the antichrist's armies by the power of the word of His mouth and have the birds consume their flesh (Rev 19:21) and make a speedy riddance of them (Zeph 1:17-18) saving ethnic Israel, while simultaneously have the holy angels first cast the remaining wicked to hell (Mrk 13:30) and pick up the glorified shining saints to the clouds to meet the Lord in the air (Mrk 13:30;vs 45; 1 Thess 4:17) and have the Sons of God be fully displayed in their official manifestation to all creation (Rom 8:18-19) in the only first resurrection, wherein the martyrs of Rev 20:5-6 are also focused on as a means of an honorable emphasis (and not as a separate resurrection in itself, but reminding the reader of the blessedness of the only resurrection of salvation, out of the two) for the Bible says, "…Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over such the second death has no power," the only first resurrection being applicable to all the saints that have and will die, as well as remain alive until that final day, in the Lord.

Seeing that we are to remain, whether our flesh likes it or not, how will we survive?

We are promised God's seal on our foreheads

"They were commanded not to harm the grass of the earth, or any green thing, or any tree, but only those men who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads." (Revelation 9:4)

The 9th chapter of the Book of Revelation, when giving the record of the fifth trumpet judgement of the locusts, the which plague constitutes of the demon that falls from heaven (the which the book of Job chapter 1 reveals that both angels and demons travel to and back from heaven constantly) being given the key to the bottomless pit, from the which pit arises (besides the sun-and-air-darkening smoke) locusts upon the earth, the which locusts, were given power to torment everyone on the earth for five months.

There is however one very important principle given and that is that not only are the locusts, not allowed to kill anyone, they're only commanded to torture those who do not have the, "seal of God on their foreheads" a supernatural mark given to all the born-again saints of God, implying that it is this mark that will keep them from the evil of the supernatural scorpion-like torture of the locusts on earth.

There was a similar mark given by God to His people found in Ezekiel 9, the which was given to an inker amidst six men with axes that were to cleanse the sanctuary of God and the city of Jerusalem from every evil God-rejecting Israelite that had utterly forsaken His holy and moral law and had done great evil, yet the only ones that would be spared were those who were found righteous before God by not only abstaining from all the evil abominations that were done by the Israelites in that day, but went as far as to sigh and hate the fact that they did it so. The only means to identify these men and women from all the rest was by the mark inked on their foreheads by the man dressed in linen with a writer's inkhorn at his side,

"Now the glory of the God of Israel had gone up from the cherub, where it had been, to the threshold of the temple. And He called to the man clothed with linen, who had the writer's inkhorn at his side; and the LORD said to him, "Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and put a mark on the foreheads of the men who sigh and cry over all the abominations that are done within it." To the others He said in my hearing, "Go after him through the city and kill; do not let your eye spare, nor have any pity. Utterly slay old and young men, maidens and little children and women; but do not come near anyone on whom is the mark; and begin at My sanctuary."
(Ezek 9:3-6)

In the same way that God delivered Lot out of Sodom before fire and brimstone fell down on Sodom and Gomorrah (on a high mountain, not out of the earth to heaven) in the same way that the Lord kept Israel safe amongst all the plagues of Egypt in the land of Goshen, all the way to the Passover (the event wherein they received specific instructions for them to strictly follow in the placing the blood of the slain lambs on their doorsteps, to not be slain by the destroying angel) in the same way that God spared every righteous Israelite during the Babylonian exile and captivity for 70 years, in that same supernatural way that His saints were spared in days past, will the Lord also keep His saints (keeping in mind they're in good behavior and not committing mortal sins) from the plagues of the tribulation and will, with divine given wisdom and conviction given to them, be given strength and be moved to prepare according to each state of this tribulation period, until they either remain to see the Day of The Lord, or be martyred for His glory (joining the ranks in heaven and looking forward to reigning with Christ for a thousand years)

That in itself would be one of the most privileged favors ever given to men, to be decapitated in faithfulness to Christ (near painless death) in front of the wicked antichrist world in the days of the antichrist, go straight to heaven, only to return shortly after in dignity and then glory, to immediately be given exclusive ruling rights in the millennial kingdom.

So, what about the worldwide judgments coming to judge the whole world?

Thanks to the book of Revelation, the which was given in sufficient simplicity to the church of Christ by the goodness and full benignity of God's character, we know that each event, after subsequent event, is to be taken almost entirely literal and in order (apart from the three to four visions in the entire book that are to be taken entirely spiritual and metaphorical) This is because of the numberings of order intentionally given by God, starting with the first seven seals of the opened scrolls, continuing with the seven trumpet judgements and then the seven bowls (alongside three major woes through it all)

Chapter 5

Understanding Modern Great Babylon (The United States of America)

Glossary:

5A Brief Exposition of Modern Great Babylon [Revelation 17]
5B The Fall of Modern Great Babylon and how it perfectly matches the United States of America [Revelation 18]

5A Brief Exposition of Modern Great Babylon [Revelation 17]

Five subjects are identified in this chapter and given separation in colors through the introduction, these are:

- The Great Whore (The United States of America)
- The Beast with seven heads and ten horns (The antichrist)
- The Seven Heads (historicist): Traditionally linked to Rome that was famously built on seven hills, the modern day beast will sit as the head of the nations in its one world government constituting of that of seven continents.
- The Seven Historical Rulers of these seven heads (historicist): The seven forms of Roman governmental powers (kings, consuls, tribunes, decemvirs, dictators, pagan emperors and Christian emperors) that have expired (6 having come by John's time, the seventh that came after (Christian emperors) and the eighth being the antichrist himself that will spring from the antichrist ruling spirit of the world in his post two-witnesses manifestation in due time to come)
- The Ten horns [ten rulers in the antichrist's reign]: Most likely constituting of the remaining world's powers in the Middle East, Africa, Asia, Europe, Oceania, Greenland and South and Middle America in the post seals and post trumpet judgements world.

"[1] Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and talked with me, saying to me, "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot who sits on many waters, [2] with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth were made drunk with the wine of her fornication." [3] So he carried me away in the Spirit into the wilderness. And I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast which was full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. [4] The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the filthiness of her fornication. [5] And on her forehead a name was written:

MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT,
THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS
AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

[6] I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I marveled with great amazement. [7] But the angel said to me, "Why did you marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns.

The Great Whore:

- Sits upon many waters (flowing streams going into every direction)
- Kings of the earth have committed fornication/sexual immorality (spiritually in the context of idolatry) with her, as to use their political power to advance policies and give liberty of idolatrous worship other than that of the one true God.
- The inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication/sexual immorality (the spiritual idolatrous effect extends to the peoples of all nations, in every continent) in the which this spiritual idolatry (partaking in any spiritual practice or belief system other than that of the Holy Trinity in the revealed person of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ by grace through faith) extended to the inhabitants under all these earthly kings.
- She sits on top of the scarlet-colored beast (when a man or a woman sit on a beast they assert superiority over the animal, as to dominate and tame it, disregarding its power and authority over them)

- U.S: In a one-world government under one man's rule is something the United States will much very likely oppose and assert its American superiority against the antichrist's kingdom and not only refuse to be a part of his government, but disregard its authority and try to tame it. The which antichrist kingdom will (by the scripture) be situated in the middle east, with all the remaining world's powers at its dominion, that will include what once were China, Russia and North Korea with their military power, as well as known nuclear arsenal. It will include the middle eastern Arabian powers, as well as Israel (that will make a treaty with the antichrist for an approximate 21 months, to perform the Judaistic/god of fortresses sacrifices and worship until they are taken away and the antichrist sets himself to destroy Israel after the destruction of the United States (before the Son of God, who is the second member of the Godhead in the flesh, the Lord Jesus returns with His heavenly army and holy angels and destroys the antichrist and his dominion, saving Israel and establishing His worldwide millennial reign)

- The scarlet colored beast is the antichrist of Revelation 13 that is most likely to be enthroned in modern day spiritual "Rome" in the seven continents of the world, being the seven heads and the ten horns, being his main ten rulers in these 7 continents (apart from Babylon, the United States of America) He is filled with names of blasphemy as the scripture appoints him to be as the son of perdition, a man that ascends from the depths of hell, being most likely already a damned person that will be resurrected by the time the Two Witnesses finish their prophetic ministry.

The woman:

- Arrayed in purple and scarlet color (adorned with royalty, as though being ruler of the nations)
- Decked with gold (adorned with riches, to symbolize it is always clothed with the riches of the earth)
- Precious stones and pearls (luxury from both the earth and the sea)
- Having a golden cup in her hand (holding onto the costly produce and belongings of her riches)

    - Golden cup: Full of abominations and filthiness of her fornications (the which golden cup gets her to drink [as to put within her being] the things that are abominable in God's eyes as drinkable liquid she produced herself, as well as her idolatrous sexual immorality, [the which not only does she drink herself, but makes all nations and their inhabitants drink from it, being all sorts of false religious belief systems and ideologies that lead people to hell]

- Her forehead has a name written:
  MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

    - The reason as to why it was a mystery was so because this was inspired 2,000 years ago through the Holy Spirit, yet in the context in the which this one, "greatest nation of the earth" would be destroyed by the antichrist's ten rulers through fire in less than an hour in the end of the world. Although there have been many large empires throughout history that have brought great influence, as well as have exercised power in many nations and lands and peoples, not one of these has ever had a direct world-wide magnitude of power, headship, authority, riches, luxury and spiritual influence in a worldwide setting as potent as the United States of America that has in its film, television, radio, videogame and internet influence directly spread all sorts of ungodly abominations and abominable practices, as well as all sorts of idolatrous belief systems to every nation on the planet. Which is why it is called, the "MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS"

- Not only has the United States done this, it also has (by being the wealthiest nation in the planet) enriched every other nation in the world by its great industrial prosperity.
- It is known in the last days as being BABYLON THE GREAT, as though to say, "THE ONE NATION GREATEST ABOVE EVERY OTHER NATION" one regarded as though every other nation was inferior to it, because factually, every other nation in the very last days cannot compare, nor compete with it in splendor, riches, influence or commerce, such is the United States.
- P.s. The Great Babylon is identified with a woman and not a man, it is also evident to point out that America is not only iconically depicted and recognized with an eagle, but also with France's gift of the Statue of liberty, also known as "Lady Liberty".

- The woman is drunken with the blood of the saints and the blood of the martyrs of Jesus:

  - When the United States was being formed, there were many conflicts and great violence within it that caused millions of lives' worth of bloodshed, many of them undoubtedly being Christians, such as the liberation war, as well as the civil war.

  - Although founded as a Christian nation, there have been many martyrs (many pilgrims also that fled to it) since its inception, as well as through its lifespan in regards the modern day constant news of there being pastors and preachers murdered in America over theological disputes or terrorist crimes, these being rightfully classified as martyrs.

  - The United States in itself not only presents constant news of saints being martyred constantly, but it has also been used to send missionaries all over the world since its foundation, by the which many of these have been martyred in sharing the gospel.

- The blood of saints and the martyrs of Jesus are the same, for it implies that it is because of her that their blood was shed unto death.

15 Then he said to me, "The waters which you saw, where the harlot sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and tongues. 16 And the ten horns which you saw on the beast, these will hate the harlot, make her desolate and naked, eat her flesh and burn her with fire. 17 For God has put it into their hearts to fulfill His purpose, to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God are fulfilled. 18 And the woman whom you saw is that great city which reigns over the kings of the earth."

The Harlot:

- Sits on a stream that goes in every direction, the stream being its peoples, multitudes, nations and tongues.
    - (The U.S. sits on top of all the nations and through whatever it produces and influences, do the nations, peoples, multitudes and tongues are directly affected as a stream flow reaction)
    - It is through its golden cup of most-wealthy and enriched produce that the whore pours the filthiness of the cup's fornications and abominations of the earth that make all the streams drunken with it. Such is the United States that produces and shares its vast and multiculturally idolatrous sets of ungodliness through its products, media, warfare, music etc. and streams it all "virally" to and through all nations by its world-superior commerce, the internet and multi-media enterprises.

The Ten Horns:

The ten horns that are on the beast (being the ten rulers of the post-seals-post-trumpet-judgements world order in the antichrist kingdom that is to come) evidently constituting of the anti-American world super powers such as Russia, China and North Korea, the which with their vast nuclear arsenal, as well as the false prophet that is to emerge will very likely disannul America's defense systems supernaturally (by the demonic miracles that are promised to come that will deceive the whole world into being recruited into the antichrist's army to destroy Israel before the Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ saves them from annihilation) and will through the deactivation of its defense system (if the golden dome ever becomes a thing or not) as well as its offence arsenal, use their combined nuclear power constituting of thousands of nuke warheads to destroy the nation in less than one literal hour.

- They will make her desolate: Will make the United States stand-alone amidst all nations in its confrontation and resisting defiance against the antichrist's kingdom.

- They will make her naked: Will take away the United States riches and world-head royalty, as well as humiliate it in having no means of being able to defend itself.

- They will burn her with fire: These ten rulers will fire on her the vastness of what will most likely be their nuclear arsenal and mighty power to wipe America (the ironic creator of the nuclear bomb) off the planet, as means of God's righteous judgement against her great wickedness and that by the means of the most wicked people that God will then after judge righteously in the second coming of Christ.

"For God has put it into their hearts to fulfill His purpose, to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God are fulfilled. And the woman whom you saw is that great city which reigns over the kings of the earth."

- The Woman: The Great City, "AMERICA THE GREAT" that most evidently and undeniably has, through its super-power status and world dominance, ruled over every other world president, prime minister and dictator.

5B The Fall of Modern Great Babylon

And how it perfectly matches the United States of America [Revelation 18]

“After these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illuminated with his glory. [2] And he cried mightily with a loud voice, saying, “Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and has become a dwelling place of demons, a prison for every foul spirit, and a cage for every unclean and hated bird! [3] For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the abundance of her luxury.”

The only country that has been known to have fulfilled the prophecy of enriching every other nation through the abundance of her luxury has been the United States of America, having the highest nominal GDP in the world, leading the world through in all of its economy, as well as the strongest currency in the planet

America’s great wealth is summarized bellow:

America's great wealth and prosperity has highly impacted other nations by its vast commerce:

1) A giant market that pulls the world's exports

- The U.S. is one of the world's largest import markets. In key globally traded tech categories (office & telecom equipment), the U.S. is the #1 importer—absorbing ~21.5% of global imports in 2023. creating jobs and export revenue across Asia, Europe and emerging markets. wbo.world

2) Dollar system + deep capital markets that cut financing costs

- The U.S. dollar remains the dominant reserve currency held by central banks worldwide; IMF data show it consistently far ahead of any alternative. That underpins lower borrowing costs and smooths trade invoicing for many countries. UN Trade and Development (UNCTAD)donare.info

- The dollar is also the top payments currency in SWIFT, hitting record shares in 2024 evidence of how U.S.-anchored payment rails support everyday cross-border commerce. UN Trade and Development (UNCTAD)

3) Foreign direct investment that builds plants, supply chains, and skills

- U.S. multinationals are among the world's biggest outward investors. UNCTAD's 2024 data show the United States with the largest outward FDI stock—about $9.4 trillion in 2023. Financing factories, logistics, training, and technology diffusion abroad. UN Trade and Development (UNCTAD)

4) Global economic rules and stabilizers

- The U.S. hosted and led the Bretton Woods conference (July 1944), launching the IMF and World Bank, institutions that still provide crisis finance, development lending, and policy support to nearly every country—key scaffolding for growth over decades. Federal Reserve HistoryWorld Bank

5) "Global public goods": safe seas, open cables, precise timing

- Safe sea lanes & cables: The State Department notes ~80% of global goods by volume move by sea and ~97% of international data flows through undersea cables—areas where the U.S. works with partners to keep routes and infrastructure secure, enabling trade and digital services worldwide. wbo.world

- GPS for the world: The U.S.-owned Global Positioning System (GPS) is provided free of charge to users everywhere, underpinning aviation, shipping, agriculture, telecom synchronization, fintech, ride-hailing and more in virtually every country. gps.govState.gov

6) Aid and health programs with large economic spillovers

- By volume, the U.S. is the world's largest official aid donor; preliminary 2024 figures place it at the top among DAC countries. Such flows finance infrastructure, education, and governance capacity that support long-run growth. World Migration Report

- PEPFAR, the U.S. HIV/AIDS program, reports preventing over 25 million deaths and supporting resilient health systems—benefits that raise productivity and human capital in recipient economies. Trading Economics

7) Migration & remittances that boost household incomes and local business

- The U.S. is the largest source of remittance outflows globally (about $81.6B in 2022). These person-to-person transfers are crucial development finance—often larger than aid—funding consumption, schooling, housing and small-business capital in dozens of countries. GPFIWorld Bank

How this makes other countries richer (mechanisms in plain language)

- Demand effect: A big, open U.S. market pulls in exports; firms abroad scale up, hire workers, and climb value chains (e.g., electronics from East/Southeast Asia, autos and machinery from Europe and Mexico). wbo.world

- Cheaper finance & smoother trade: Dollar reserves and dollar invoicing reduce exchange-rate risk; U.S. capital markets and investors finance projects worldwide. UN Trade and Development (UNCTAD)+2UN Trade and Development (UNCTAD)+2

- Rule-of-law scaffolding: IMF/World Bank programs cushion crises and fund development, avoiding deeper recessions and enabling reforms that raise long-term growth. Federal Reserve HistoryWorld Bank

- Public goods & infrastructure: GPS, safe sea lanes, and resilient undersea cables are the unseen plumbing that keeps global commerce efficient. wbo.worldgps.gov

- Human capital & health: U.S. aid—especially global health—improves life expectancy and labor productivity, which lifts GDP. Trading Economics

[4] And I heard another voice from heaven saying, "Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues.

God Almighty cares so deeply about His people's well being that He has, for 2000 years given His American people of the last days a warning and instruction for them to unconditionally get out with the "lest" possibility of those who refuse to go and take shelter (northward recommended in the Canadian northern regions) in partaking of her fiery and most undeniably likely nuclear judgement.

[5] For her sins have reached to heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities. [6] Render to her just as she rendered to you, and repay her double according to her works; in the cup which she has mixed, mix double for her. [7] In the measure that she glorified herself and lived luxuriously, in the same measure give her torment and sorrow; for she says in her heart, 'I sit as queen, and am no widow, and will not see sorrow.'

The American Spirit is one of:

- Unyielding might and unmatched power, also known for its liberty, also known as, "The Land of the Free" in its unequal prosperity makes Lady America say within itself, "I sit queen"
- And due to not knowing great loss, nor poverty says nationally in a metaphorical sense, "and am no widow"
- And due to its greatest military and defense system world-wide says, "and will not see sorrow" and all of that, in a modern day case scenario, by her own power against the God that they professed to once confess, the whom as the majority of a nation, have largely opposed and apostatized from.

[8] Therefore her plagues will come in one day—death and mourning and famine. And she will be utterly burned with fire, for strong is the Lord God who judges her.

- The God given plagues of America will come in one day, as well as one literal hour, her very saddening and unmatched mourning will most likely come as a result of her very well aware and known imminent destruction, as well as her fiery judgement, in the which under an hour (by the ten rulers of the antichrist's kingdom and their nuclear arsenal from Asia and the Middle East) will be capable of burning the entirety of America in over an hour's time.

- Her judgement being brought by the righteous God of heaven and that due to America's spiritually ill and apostatizing impact that it has brought against all nations, in being its main influence in departing from the living God and thus causing many to suffer the vengeance of eternal fire.

The World Mourns Babylon's Fall

[9] "The kings of the earth who committed fornication and lived luxuriously with her will weep and lament for her, when they see the smoke of her burning, [10] standing at a distance for fear of her torment, saying, 'Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! For in one hour your judgment has come.'

Every world ruler, president, prime minister and dictator (apart from the ten rulers of the antichrist's kingdom) that both benefitted from America's wealth, prosperity and commerce and lived in earthly luxury with her will have the greatest and strongest possible emotion of self-serving grief to the point that they weep and are in lamentation for her as they see the smoke of her burning through the media (as the world will still be in a dark state by the darkening of the sun and the moon turning to blood as per the sixth seal judgement)

If there's ever a nation that if it ever got violently taken out of the world all of a sudden, giving everyone in the whole world around her great reason for mourning is that of The United States of America.

So much so that in keeping its distance (due to the probable atomic blast radius all of the warheads will generate) the scripture says that:

- The world's rulers/kings, all the merchants and shipmasters of the earth will weep and lament over her and that due to their ironically wicked (and technically apathetic) sense of their own impoverishment because of her destruction due to having destroyed their means of wealth. It never mentions anything concerning the people that suffered and died through its destruction, or America's beautiful landscapes, as well as that of America being America, it was only for the money and prosperity that America provided for them becoming suddenly obsolete which is why they mourn for her loss.

- And they mourn so strongly that John was inpired to use the word, “Alas” “Alas” the which Hebrew defined as a primitive interjection expressing pain. Translated in the KJV as “ah,” “alas,” or “O.”

  - Usage: Appears about 15 times in the Old Testament 8 times as “ah” and 7 times explicitly as “alas.” This is the primary Hebrew word (although the passage translates it in the Greek) used when lamenting doom or divine judgment.
  - "Alas" is recognized as an interjection conveying deep sorrow, grief, pity, or foreboding, often in contexts of lament or warning of impending judgment. It appears frequently in prophetic literature.

    A devotional source explains:

  - “The exclamation ‘alas’ serves as a poignant marker of human emotion ... reflecting profound sorrow, lamentation, and distress in the face of grief or condemnation."

  Summarizing the term’s function, a topical Bible entry notes:

  - “The term 'alas' is an expression of sorrow, grief, or regret ... typically signaling a moment of despair or mourning.”

- “standing at a distance for fear of her torment, saying, ‘Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! For in one hour your judgment has come.’”
  - This would translate, from it’s spiritual meaning to how it could sound in a human sense,
    - “OH NOOOOOO! NOOOOOO! The United States! The mightiest country! How has it been judged! All in one hour!”

[11] “And the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise anymore: [12] merchandise of gold and silver, precious stones and pearls, fine linen and purple, silk and scarlet, every kind of citron wood, every kind of object of ivory, every kind of object of most precious wood, bronze, iron, and marble; [13] and cinnamon and incense, fragrant oil and frankincense, wine and oil, fine flour and wheat, cattle and sheep, horses and chariots, and bodies and souls of men. [14] The fruit that your soul longed for has gone from you, and all the things which are rich and splendid have gone from you, and you shall find them no more at all.

[15] The merchants of these things, who became rich by her, will stand at a distance for fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, [16] and saying, 'Alas, alas, that great city that was clothed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls! [17] For in one hour such great riches came to nothing.' Every shipmaster, all who travel by ship, sailors, and as many as trade on the sea, stood at a distance [18] and cried out when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What is like this great city?'

- "OH NOOO! NOOOO! Great America! You that were great in luxury! High in power and authority! That had the greatest GDP commerce and highest currency in the world's markets! That was the highest buyer, seller and extractor of all precious minerals! All its great riches! How it's all come to nothing in less than an hour!"
- "What country is like Great America?"

[19] "They threw dust on their heads and cried out, weeping and wailing, and saying, 'Alas, alas, that great city, in which all who had ships on the sea became rich by her wealth! For in one hour she is made desolate.'

- The world will mourn for America's destruction because of everything that America gave her, not because of America in itself, they will sound a lot like this:
- "NOOOO! NOOO! America! The which all the world's maritime traders were tremendously prosperous through you! We can no longer export all of your groundbreaking novel inventions! All the world's millions and millions of TEUS prospered and became wealthy because of you! And now look at just how desolate you have become!
- Whereas Christian Americans, their families and others that took heed to the warnings to leave, as they see the burning rising up, some starring in utter disbelief, many looking away in grief, all the while weeping and howling in the thousands upon thousands of crowds, whether from a long distance in Canada, or from a long distance in Mexico (Not recommended because of its dangers) all Americans gathered in a national mourning saying something along the words:
- "ALAS, ALAS! OH AMERICA! Oh, great America! The wondrous land of lands that our good and Holy God, the God of heaven graciously gave to us during our time here on earth! How have you left and suddenly been annihilated!

- Yet sadly, only Christians will be able to, in anguish of utter grief, agree with the second saying,

  "FOR SUCH IS YOUR JUDGEMENT! FOR SO YOU DESERVE IT! FOR HAVING BEEN THE DEVIL'S TOOL IN LEADING THE NATIONS DOWN TO THE FIRES OF HELL!"

[20] "Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you holy apostles and prophets, for God has avenged you on her!" [21] Then a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, "Thus with violence the great city Babylon shall be thrown down, and shall not be found anymore.

[22] The sound of harpists, musicians, flutists, and trumpeters shall not be heard in you anymore. No craftsman of any craft shall be found in you anymore, and the sound of a millstone shall not be heard in you anymore.

- This verse is significant due to America being widely identified and recognized to have the world's greatest music industry, having also the world's greatest music market in the world. It is also through music in which America has greatly influenced the world's inhabitants into great apostacy due to its vast ungodly content.
- Below is a throughout basic research on America's music industry sped up through ChatGPT Ai,

Why the U.S. is the world's largest music market and how that creates wealth elsewhere:

Key numbers & sources

- U.S. recorded-music retail revenue (2023): ~$17.1 billion (RIAA year-end 2023). RIAA reported continued growth driven by streaming. RIAAMusic Business Worldwide
- Global recorded-music revenue (2023 IFPI): ~$28.6 billion (IFPI Global Music Report 2024). The U.S./Canada market accounts for roughly 40% of global recorded-music revenues. IFPIMusic Business Worldwide
- U.S. music economy (broader impact): RIAA–commissioned analysis estimates the music industries contribute ~$212 billion to U.S. GDP and support ~2.5 million jobs (2024 jobs & benefits report). That figure includes downstream effects (venues, services, tourism). RIAAMusicRow.com

Why the U.S. market is so big (mechanisms)

- Large consumer market + high per-capita spending. High disposable income, subscriptions to streaming services (U.S. now >100M paid subscriptions), and robust live-music attendance underpin big domestic revenues. The Vergecreativeindustriesnews.com
- Concentrated global commercial infrastructure: Major record companies (Universal Music Group, Sony Music, Warner Music Group and large publishing/rights organizations), global streaming platforms, and world-class touring/talent industries are headquartered or strongly present in the U.S., helping U.S. artists and catalogues dominate global playlists and sync licensing markets. Music Business WorldwideIFPI
- Cross-industry spillovers: Hollywood, TV, advertising, videogames, social-media platforms and major festivals amplify U.S. music worldwide (sync licensing, product placement, marketing). Financial Times

How U.S. music trade has "made other countries rich"

- Export revenue for non-U.S. creators & businesses: U.S. platforms and demand create markets for foreign artists (global streaming makes it easier for K-pop, Latin, Afrobeats acts to earn export revenue). The U.S. market also buys recordings, concert tours, and rights that flow income into foreign producers and performers who break into the U.S. market. (IFPI shows strong growth in Latin America, Africa and Asian markets.) IFPIMusic Business Worldwide

- Tourism and local multiplier effects: International tours by U.S. and global superstars bring large ticketing, hospitality and local employment revenue to host countries. RIAA

- Industry capacity building: Global label presence, licensing deals, and local investment by streaming platforms build local music ecosystems (studios, publishers, venues), creating jobs and skills. RIAA's jobs report documents the multiplier effect and export sales tied to the music sectors. RIAA

Important caveats

- Market concentration (major labels and platforms) means revenues don't spread evenly; many creators still earn small fractions of streaming revenues. The "wealth creation" effect is real (jobs, tourism, exports), but highly skewed toward hits, services and platform owners. Music Business WorldwideRIAA

What the American film industry is mainly known for is that of its modern focus in regards to the universe's expansion and the extraterrestrial, as well as the supernatural (modern day mythological application through fiction) to give people subconscious means to adapt into an atheistic mindset that will also play a crucial role into falling for the, "supernaturality" of the antichrist's revealed demonic delusion, as well as their recruitment to fight against God (all of those movies depicting the world fighting an alien army that will come to wipe the inhabitants of the earth out)

[24] And in her was found the blood of prophets and saints, and of all who were slain on the earth."

Thus, it is with heaven's testimony of Babylon's worldwide bloodshed findings wherein America, being the world's largest arms exporter, finds itself guilty of having been found with all who were slain on the earth,

Below is a brief explained research on how America is the largest arms exporter in the world sped up through ChatGPT Ai,

War commerce (arms exports) why the U.S. is the world's largest arms seller and how those sales affect others

- SIPRI (2020–24) share of global arms exports: United States 43% of major conventional arms exports in 2020–24 (largest exporter by a wide margin). SIPRI's Trends in International Arms Transfers fact sheet is the authoritative dataset. SIPRI+1
- U.S. government figures / fiscal year reporting: U.S. State Department / other sources show record high arms transfer values in FY2023–FY2024 (reports cite totals in the hundreds of billions when including Foreign Military Sales, direct commercial sales and security assistance; FY2024 figure reporting reached record levels — e.g., ~$318.7B figure reported in media summaries of State Dept. data). State DepartmentDefence Industry Europe
- Industry scale: SIPRI's Top-100 arms producers report (2023) found world arms producer revenues of ~$632 billion in 2023; many of the top companies (Lockheed Martin, Boeing Defense, Northrop Grumman, Raytheon) are U.S. corporations. SIPRIMedia - Lockheed Martin

How U.S. arms commerce works (channels & players)

Two main U.S. export channels:

- Foreign Military Sales (FMS) — government-to-government purchases administered by the U.S. government (Department of State/Defense). Often used for major platforms (aircraft, missile systems). State Department

- Direct Commercial Sales (DCS) — private U.S. defense firms sell under license, with State Dept. export controls. USNI News
- Major contractors: Lockheed Martin, Boeing (Defense), Raytheon Technologies, Northrop Grumman, General Dynamics — companies with large defense backlogs and export programs. Lockheed's 2023 sales and backlogs illustrate the financial scale. Media - Lockheed Martin

How arms exports have enriched other countries (mechanisms)

1. Security enabling investment and economic activity: For some recipient states, acquiring advanced defense systems is presented as a prerequisite for political stability or deterrence, which supporters argue can enable foreign direct investment, secure trade routes, and create a climate for economic growth. (This is arguable and context-dependent.) media.carnegie.org
2. Industrial cooperation & offsets: Many large arms deals include offsets (local production, joint ventures, technology transfer, supplier development). When genuine, offsets can seed domestic defense industries, create manufacturing jobs, and develop capability in recipient countries (examples vary by contract). NDIA and academic literature discuss offsets as an economic tool. ndia.orgRoutledge
3. Supplier and service economy: Procurement requires logistics, maintenance, training and infrastructure—contractors and local firms benefit from long-term service contracts, creating jobs and technical skill development. USNI News

Serious caveats & harms

- Crowding out & opportunity cost: Military spending (and arms imports) can divert public resources from education, health, and development; several studies find high military burdens can reduce long-term growth. The net economic impact depends on how procurement is financed and whether offsets are effective. ResearchGateTaylor & Francis Online
- Conflict risk & instability: Arms transfers can exacerbate regional arms races or be used in repressive ways; this can harm development and human welfare even if short-term industrial benefits accrue to suppliers or a recipient's defense sector. Carnegie and other analyses highlight these ethical and geopolitical risks. media.carnegie.org

A Possible Identification of The Antichrist

To give a probable theory of who the antichrist is we must first understand every attribute concerning his nature.

Revelation 11 and 13 will be the main pattern to correlate every verse in scripture that is attributed to the antichrist of Revelation (in taking into account that Daniel 11:21-35 has been fulfilled in Antiochus Epiphanes, the which verses 36-45 have not yet been fulfilled by any historical or biblical figure apart from Revelation's antichrist figure in time to come, the which verses 21-35 (fulfilled in Epiphanes) do not coincide, nor can be reconciled with the antichrist of Revelation chapters 11, 13 and 17 and 19, nor with the entirety of the book of Revelation's discourse.

6.A The Main Attributes of The Antichrist (Revelation 11 and 13)

Revelation 11 and 13 go as follows (with the main attributes of the antichrist)

"And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascends out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them." (Rev 11:7)

The Beast/Antichrist:

- Ascends out of the bottomless pit (literally comes out of hades as it is a real place and has no place for metaphorical emphasis)

- Rises up out of the sea (gets us to conclude that the sea in itself is also literal, giving the antichrist a connection to the ocean)

- Makes war with the Two Witnesses after their 3 years, 5 months and 11 days prophetic ministry in Jerusalem and shall overcome them and kill them

- Will suffer a mortal wound by them in the process that causes him to die and rise again for the whole world to behold (Rev 17:11) making a counterfeit of Christ's death and resurrection.

"And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy."

The Beast/Antichrist:

- Has seven heads with the name of blasphemy. (because scripture gives us a clear picture that the antichrist is a mortal man that will rule in the final 3 years and 6 months of man-lead history, as well as the further interpretation of the scripture itself in Revelation 17 that reveals the seven heads are seven mountains with seven rulers, we know the seven heads are metaphorical for what has been widely accepted and received by the Christian world as the 7 hills of Rome (where Rome was built and its seven rulers being the seven types of rulers that Rome had on the throne, wherein 6 were present at the time that John was given the inspiration to write these things (kings, consuls, tribunes, decemvirs, dictators, pagan emperors) the seven that came after (Christian emperors) the eight being the antichrist himself at the end of the world that will reign over the 7 continents, having ten main rulers/heads in said continents. These seven hills of Rome represented the end-times antichrist's kingdom constituting of the 7 continents of the world, the one world post-seals, post-trumpets system having become a spiritual Rome. The blasphemy of these seven heads represents the irreverence and insulting nature of these ruling entities that (like the Pharaoh of the Exodus account) have no regard to the laws and decrees of God and have been at constant war with Him, Israel and God's people since their establishing (revealing the antichrist spirit that would rather insult the Most High and continue its opposition against Him, rather than to repent and be in submission to Him).

- Such is the antichrist system, with the antichrist himself manifesting the fullness of it when the he sets world decrees (in re-establishing a form of pagan

Judaism mixed with his world religion that worships the image of the beast (the probable Abomination of Desolation set up in the destroyed third temple) and will deceive the whole world to worship him and Satan under the disguise of the worshipping a supposed, "god of fortresses" and changes times contrary to God's will and blasphemes the true God before all nations so much so that he will both wear out the saints of the Most High, but also war and overcome them and cause them to be given the death penalty by means of beheading.

- Ten horns are the ten rulers of the antichrist's kingdom, these are deceived by the false prophet through the false world-wide miracles and chosen from their place of rule in the 7 continents.

  Ascends out of the bottomless pit (literally comes out of hades as it is a real place and has no place for metaphorical emphasis)

  Rises up out of the sea (gets us to conclude that the sea in itself is also literal, giving the antichrist a connection to the ocean)

  Makes war with the Two Witnesses after their 3 years, 5 months and 11 days prophetic ministry in Jerusalem and shall overcome them and kill them.

  Will suffer a mortal wound by them in the process that causes him to die and rise again for the whole world to behold (Rev 17:11) making a counterfeit of Christ's death and resurrection)

[2] And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

- Because He is a literal man, we conclude that he is metaphorically described as having: The bodily form of a leopard (a majestic, yet deadly and fierce, exotic animal that has black spots everywhere, the leopard also being associated in being one that cannot change his spots because he is accustomed in doing evil (Jeremiah 13:23) representing the antichrist's sense of vain majestic, yet deadly nature. Has the feet (four-footed) of that of a bear, the bears (also associated with the Medes and Persians that arose and devoured much people in the Babylonian empire) such claws, as are bears, can add to the antichrist's already deadly nature as being even more fierce and deadly in every path of the world, north, south, east and west (not only is his body represented with great evil through the black spots, but his mouth is that of the fiercest animal in the animal kingdom, that being the lion) So that his entire nature has a sense of earthly majesty, yet is absolutely deadly in its strength, path and command. The dragon is the being that the previous chapter of John's heavenly vision of Israel, Christ and the church is exposed as Satan that attempts to destroy both God and His people (and that vainly) that gives the antichrist his earthly ruling throne, power (both supernatural and that of the armies of the world) and authority.

- This all represents the antichrist's nature as that of a supernatural resurrected king that through the demonic power, earthly enthronement and authority given to him by Satan, will fulfill all of the fallen world's sinful and fallen expectations of who they would have to esteem to be their "god" in the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes and the pride of life, the which while during his earthly authority, will allow the inhabitants of the earth to practice all sorts of lawlessness and iniquities (which is why his embodiment will be of that of a leopard [majesty] as well as his spots [iniquity])

  Ascends out of the bottomless pit (literally comes out of hades as it is a real place and has no place for metaphorical emphasis)

  Rises up out of the sea (gets us to conclude that the sea in itself is also literal, giving the antichrist a connection to the ocean)

  Makes war with the Two Witnesses after their 3 years, 5 months and 11 days prophetic ministry in Jerusalem and shall overcome them and kill them.

  Will suffer a mortal wound by them in the process that causes him to die and rise again for the whole world to behold (Rev 17:11) making a counterfeit of Christ's death and resurrection) causing the entire world to marvel after him.

Has seven heads with the name of blasphemy. (because scripture gives us a clear picture that the antichrist is a mortal man that will rule in the final 3 years and 6 months of human history, as well as the further interpretation of the scripture itself in Revelation 17 that reveals the seven heads are seven mountains with seven rulers, we know the seven heads are metaphorical for what has been widely accepted and received by the Christian world as the 7 hills of Rome (where Rome was built and its seven rulers being the seven types of rulers that Rome had on the throne, wherein 6 were present at the time that John was given the inspiration to write these things (kings, consuls, tribunes, decemvirs, dictators, pagan emperors) the seven that came after (Christian emperors) the eight being the antichrist itself at the end of the world that will reign over the 7 continents, having ten main rulers/heads in said continents. These seven hills of Rome represented the end-times antichrist's kingdom constituting of the 7 continents of the world, the one world post-seals, post-trumpets system having become a spiritual Rome. The blasphemy of these seven heads represents the irreverence and insulting nature of these ruling entities that like the Pharaoh of the Exodus account have no regard to the laws and decrees of God and have been at constant war with Him, Israel and God's people since their establishing, revealing the antichrist spirit that would rather insult the Most High and continue its opposition against Him, rather than to repent and be in submission to Him. Such is the antichrist system, with the antichrist himself manifesting the fullness of it when the antichrist himself sets world decrees (in re-establishing a form of pagan Judaism mixed with his world religion that worships the image of the beast (the probable Abomination of Desolation set up in the third temple) and will deceive the whole world to worship him and Satan under the disguise of the worshipping a supposed, "God of Fortresses" (Daniel 10: and changes times contrary to God's will and blasphemes the true God before all nations so much so that he will both wear out the saints of the Most High, but also war and overcome them and cause them to be given the death penalty by means of beheading.

Ten horns are the ten rulers of the antichrist's kingdom, these are deceived by the false prophet through the false world-wide miracles and chosen from their place of rule in the 7 continents.

The Antichrist's Attributed Verses (Cross-References)

The following verses are cross-examined with Daniel's verses on the, "Man of Sin" and his kingdom (the fourth beast)

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast. 4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him? 5 And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months. 6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven. 7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.

- And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and destroy with the brightness of His coming. 9 The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, 10 and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 11 And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie, 12 that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness. (2 Thessalonians 2:8-12)

- 36 "Then the king shall do according to his own will: he shall exalt and magnify himself above every god, shall speak blasphemies against the

God of gods, and shall prosper till the wrath has been accomplished; for what has been determined shall be done.

[37] He shall regard neither the God of his fathers nor the desire of women, nor regard any god; for he shall exalt himself above them all.

[38] But in their place he shall honor a god of fortresses; and a god which his fathers did not know he shall honor with gold and silver, with precious stones and pleasant things.

[39] Thus he shall act against the strongest fortresses with a foreign god, which he shall acknowledge, and advance its glory; and he shall cause them to rule over many, and divide the land for gain.
(Daniel 11:36-39)

- [12] And he (the false prophet) exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence, and causes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. [14] And he deceives those who dwell on the earth by those signs which he was granted to do in the sight of the beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the beast who was wounded by the sword and lived. [15] He was granted power to give breath to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak and cause as many as would not worship the image of the beast to be killed.

> [27] Then he shall confirm a covenant with many for one week;
> But in the middle of the week
> He shall bring an end to sacrifice and offering.
> And on the wing of abominations shall be one who makes desolate,
> Even until the consummation, which is determined,
> Is poured out on the desolate." (Daniel 9:27)

[16] He causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hand or on their foreheads, [17] and that no one may buy or sell except one who has the mark or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. [18] Here is wisdom. Let him who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man: His number is 666." (Revelation 13:12-18)

- "I was considering the horns, and there was another horn, a little one, coming up among them, before whom three of the first horns were plucked out by the roots. And there, in this horn, were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking pompous words.

[9] "I watched till thrones were put in place,
And the Ancient of Days was seated;
His garment was white as snow,
And the hair of His head was like pure wool.
His throne was a fiery flame,
Its wheels a burning fire;
[10] A fiery stream issued
And came forth from before Him.
A thousand thousands ministered to Him;
Ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him.
The court was seated,
And the books were opened.

- [11] "I watched then because of the sound of the pompous words which the horn was speaking; I watched till the beast was slain, and its body destroyed and given to the burning flame. [12] As for the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away, yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time." (Daniel 7:8-12)

- "Then I wished to know the truth about the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, exceedingly dreadful, with its teeth of iron and its nails of bronze, which devoured, broke in pieces, and trampled the residue with its feet; [20] and the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, before which three fell, namely, that horn which had eyes and a mouth which spoke pompous words, whose appearance was greater than his fellows. [21] "I was watching; and the same horn was making war against the saints, and prevailing against them, [22] until the Ancient of Days came, and a judgment was made in favor of the saints of the Most High, and the time came for the saints to possess the kingdom.

- [23] "Thus he said:

  'The fourth beast shall be
  A fourth kingdom on earth,
  Which shall be different from all other kingdoms,
  And shall devour the whole earth,
  Trample it and break it in pieces.
  [24] The ten horns are ten kings
  Who* shall arise from this kingdom.
  And another shall rise after them;
  He shall be different from the first ones,
  And shall subdue three kings.
  [25] He shall speak pompous words against the Most High,
  Shall persecute the saints of the Most High,
  And shall intend to change times and law.
  Then the saints shall be given into his hand
  For a time and times and half a time.

- [26] 'But the court shall be seated,
  And they shall take away his dominion,
  To consume and destroy it forever.
  [27] Then the kingdom and dominion,
  And the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven,
  Shall be given to the people, the saints of the Most High.
  His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
  And all dominions shall serve and obey Him.'"
  (Daniel 7:19-27)

- "[8] Therefore the male goat grew very great; but when he became strong, the large horn was broken, and in place of it four notable ones came up toward the four winds of heaven. [9] And out of one of them came a little horn which grew exceedingly great toward the south, toward the east, and toward the Glorious Land. [10] And it grew up to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and some of the stars to the ground, and trampled them. [11] He even exalted himself as high as the Prince of the host; and by him the daily sacrifices were taken away, and the place of His sanctuary was cast down. [12] Because of transgression, an army was given over to the horn to oppose the daily sacrifices; and he cast truth down to the ground. He did all this and prospered.

13 Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who was speaking, "How long will the vision be, concerning the daily sacrifices and the transgression of desolation, the giving of both the sanctuary and the host to be trampled underfoot?"

14 And he said to me, "For two thousand three hundred days; then the sanctuary shall be cleansed." (Daniel 8:8-14)

- "21 And the male goat is the kingdom of Greece. The large horn that is between its eyes is the first king. 22 As for the broken horn and the four that stood up in its place, four kingdoms shall arise out of that nation, but not with its power.

23 "And in the latter time of their kingdom,
When the transgressors have reached their fullness,
A king shall arise,
Having fierce features,
Who understands sinister schemes.
24 His power shall be mighty, but not by his own power;
He shall destroy fearfully,
And shall prosper and thrive;
He shall destroy the mighty, and also the holy people.

25 "Through his cunning
He shall cause deceit to prosper under his rule;
And he shall exalt himself in his heart.
He shall destroy many in their prosperity.
He shall even rise against the Prince of princes;
But he shall be broken without human means.

- 40 "At the time of the end the king of the South shall attack him; and the king of the North shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter the countries, overwhelm them, and pass through. 41 He shall also enter the Glorious Land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall escape from his hand: Edom, Moab, and the prominent people of Ammon. 42 He shall stretch out his hand against the countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape. 43 He shall have power over the treasures of gold and silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; also the Libyans and Ethiopians shall follow at his heels. [44] But news from the east and the north shall trouble him; therefore he shall go out with great fury to destroy and annihilate many. [45] And he shall plant the tents of his palace between the seas and the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and no one will help him.

(Daniel 11:40-45)

[26] "And the vision of the evenings and mornings
Which was told is true;
Therefore seal up the vision,
For it refers to many days in the future."
(Daniel 11:21-26)

"And after the sixty-two weeks
Messiah shall be cut off, but not for Himself;
And the people of the prince who is to come
Shall destroy the city and the sanctuary.
The end of it shall be with a flood,
And till the end of the war desolations are determined.
[27] Then he shall confirm a covenant with many for one week;
But in the middle of the week
He shall bring an end to sacrifice and offering.
And on the wing of abominations shall be one who makes desolate,
Even until the consummation, which is determined,
Is poured out on the desolate."
(Daniel 9:26-27)

[9] If anyone has an ear, let him hear. [10] He who leads into captivity shall go into captivity; he who kills with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

6.B The Most Probable Candidate According to the Scriptures

A possible theory of who the antichrist is by his origin in Revelation 13, as well as his mentality in 2 Thessalonians 2 and Daniel 11

How would we know who the antichrist may be?

The very beginning of Revelation chapter 13, as well as all the attained attributes of his nature gives us a hint.

The bottomless pit is not a metaphorical place; it is a very real and literal fire and brimstone place where all the damned will experience the righteous wrath of God forever. There is no metaphorical place theologically to describe the bottomless pit, which makes us conclude that the "beast" ascending out of the bottomless pit, as well as the ocean are (in their application) both literal applications.

The hints given concerning his origin and characteristics are:

- Ascends out of the bottomless pit (hell)
- Rises out of the ocean.
- Has the mentality that he is, "God" and not a man.
- Has a direct possession and union with Satan.
- With wisdom will attain much treasure and cause craft to prosper.
- Has the same number attributed to his name three times (666).
- The antichrist is referred to as, "The Man of Sin".
- Will consecrate and worship a god which his fathers did not know (idol of the god of fortresses)

He cannot be a fallen angel because fallen angels aren't mortal and cannot possibly embody flesh (as the antichrist will be a literal man)

Whoever ascends out of the bottomless pit (that is hades/hell) is a man that comes up entirely as one that is already damned and under judgement, being an already eternal enemy of the Most High.

There's only one character in all of the Bible that matches all of these characteristics and that is the King of Tyre of Ezekiel 28, more specifically either Ithobaal II (the traditional probable king of Tyre) or Ithobaal III (According to Josephus [citing Menander]) who ruled from 591–573 BC, precisely overlapping Ezekiel's timeframe and the siege of Tyre (586–573 BC)

Because Ithobaal III reigned during 591-573 BC and died exactly in 573 BC wherein Ezekiel's God-sent condemnation is given, as well as historian Josephus at the time recording and confirming (also Menander) it is very likely that Ithobaal III was the king of Tyre of Ezekiel 28.

Moreover, the scripture says concerning the King of Tyre,

The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, [2] "Son of man, say to the prince of Tyre,
'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Because your heart is lifted up,
And you say, 'I am a god, [The Beast will have a Satanic self-deception of self-attributed deity status]

I sit in the seat of gods,
In the midst of the seas,'
Yet you are a man, and not a god,
Though you set your heart as the heart of a god
[3] (Behold, you are wiser than Daniel!
There is no secret that can be hidden from you!
[4] With your wisdom and your understanding
You have gained riches for yourself,
And gathered gold and silver into your treasuries;
[5] By your great wisdom in trade you have increased your riches,
And your heart is lifted up because of your riches)," [The Beast will have great wisdom to attain to the riches of the world in the end times]

[6] 'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

"Because you have set your heart as the heart of a god,
[7] Behold, therefore, I will bring strangers against you,
The most terrible of the nations;
And they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom,
And defile your splendor.
[8] They shall throw you down into the Pit, [Beast ascends out of the bottomless pit/hell]
And you shall die the death of the slain
In the midst of the seas. [Beast ascends out of the sea]

9 "Will you still say before him who slays you,
'I am a god'?
But you shall be a man, and not a god,
10 You shall die the death of the uncircumcised
By the hand of aliens;
For I have spoken," says the Lord GOD.' "
(Ezekiel 28:1-10)

Moreover, the same chapter continues God's message to the king of Tyre through Ezekiel, yet more particularly, it is a direct message to the one possessing him, that being the devil.

It says,

"Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 12 "Son of man, take up a lamentation for the king of Tyre, and say to him, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"You were the seal of perfection,
Full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.
13 You were in Eden, the garden of God;
Every precious stone was your covering:
The sardius, topaz, and diamond,
Beryl, onyx, and jasper,
Sapphire, turquoise, and emerald with gold.
The workmanship of your timbrels and pipes
Was prepared for you on the day you were created.

14 "You were the anointed cherub who covers;
I established you;
You were on the holy mountain of God;
You walked back and forth in the midst of fiery stones.
15 You were perfect in your ways from the day you were created,
Till iniquity was found in you.

16 "By the abundance of your trading
You became filled with violence within,
And you sinned;
Therefore I cast you as a profane thing
Out of the mountain of God;
And I destroyed you, O covering cherub,
From the midst of the fiery stones.

[17] "Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty;
You corrupted your wisdom for the sake of your splendor;
I cast you to the ground,
I laid you before kings,
That they might gaze at you.

[18] "You defiled your sanctuaries
By the multitude of your iniquities,
By the iniquity of your trading;
Therefore I brought fire from your midst;
It devoured you,
And I turned you to ashes upon the earth
In the sight of all who saw you.
[19] All who knew you among the peoples are astonished at you;
You have become a horror,
And shall be no more forever."
(Ezekiel 28:11-19)

Both the Antichrist of Revelation and the King of Tyre have a direct demonic possession and influence with the devil himself.

These are all the shared characteristics of both the King of Tyre (Ithobaal III) and the Antichrist of Revelation.

The King of Tyre (Ithobaal III)	The Antichrist of Revelation
- Was, "thrown" into the pit. - Died amid the oceans. - Had the mentality that he is, "God" and not a man. - Had a direct possession and union with Satan. - With wisdom attained to much treasure and caused craft to prosper. - Had the same imagery of a repeating numeracy attributed to his name three times. The "3" manifested in the historical Roman numerals as (III) - His name means: "Man of Baal" - His name associated him with "Baal" the god of the Sidonians, being the idol they worshipped.	- Ascends out of the bottomless pit. - Rises out of the ocean. - Has the mentality that he is, "God" and not a man. - Has a direct possession and union with Satan. - With wisdom will attain to much treasure and will cause craft to prosper. - Has the same imagery of a repeating numeracy attributed to his name three times. The "6" manifested three times (666) [It is the number of a man] - The antichrist is referred to as "The Man of Sin" - Will consecrate and worship a god which his fathers did not know (idol of the god of fortresses)

Because there have been multiple accounts of saintly people in the Bible that have been resurrected, it is not an impossibility for there to only ever be one damned person in the Bible that will be resurrected by God's sovereign decree for a season of 42 months and then be thrown back into hell.

The account of Luke 16 with the rich man and Lazarus reveals to us that the damned could not only see resting saints, but also hear from above (when resting Jewish saints abode in, "Abraham's Bosom") so it is not impossible to conclude that there may be a decree from God Himself that will have Ithobaal III released and through demonic power ascend out of the bottomless pit, rise out of the sea he was thrown into the day he died and land in Jerusalem to fight the two witnesses of Revelation.

It would coincide with the devil's psychological agenda of using multi-media works to create and entertain the masses with fictional stories of super-hero characters (being modern day advanced mythology) with super-human strength to fight those who trouble the inhabitants of the earth and save the planet from them.

The earth has been plagued by such fiction in its popularized form from 1938 with the character, "Super-Man" or "Man of Steel" (psychologically foreshadowing the antichrist) that marked the real launch of the superhero genre.

Although the entirety of the over-repeating super-hero genre, manifested in comics, tv shows, movies, video series, as well as videogames has been entirely and obviously fictional, spiritually we know that the devil and his demons orchestrate the film industry's works through the deceived and darkened minds of men. The which it is not impossible to conclude that all of this overall focus on the super-hero movie genre (as well as the extraterrestrial) is definitely a subconscious and psychological de-fictionalizing of the antichrist's supernatural revelation to the world so that the inhabitants of the earth that have been so used to (and accustomed to watching all of the wishful superhero and alien movies from their early youth) will be the much more ready, not only to accept the antichrist, but also to adore his nature as the world's super-hero that saves them from the Two Witnesses that tormented them for 3 years, 5 months and 11 days. Everything they were accustomed all of their lives to wish was real in theirs subconsciously, will suddenly become a reality right in front of them, not only in wonder and amazement, but also in a sense of wicked gratitude for having been saved from the torments of the Two Witnesses while being allowed to continue in their antichrist world and sinful lifestyle and all manner of lawlessness.

It is not impossible to come to the conclusion that if Ithobaal III is the antichrist of Revelation, he then, having been resurrected and being sent great delusion (as part of the judgement that will also be given to the inhabitants of the earth) as means of judgement for having believed himself to be "God" and not man, in that his time and memories of hell would be suppressed as part of that judgement and will (with a subconscious understanding of his past experienced torment, as well as satanic possession) then explain his blasphemous nature against God and his ultimate and subconscious supernatural rage against Him.

"[7] For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only He who now restrains will do so until He is taken out of the way. [8] And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and destroy with the brightness of His coming. [9] The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, [10] and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. [11] And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie, [12] that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness." (2 Thessalonians 2:7-12)

This view is of course, entirely theoretical as nobody knows exactly who the real antichrist will be, but this is the strongest theory of the most probable candidate in accordance with adapting to the Eschatological Christian Reform of the 21st Century that recognizes the United Nations Intergovernmental World Peace Organization as the White Horseman (First Seal) that has victoriously conquered with an arrowless bow and a crown of authority and also takes into account that the third world-wide conflict (as well as the seal and trumpet judgements) will be the cataclysmic events that will both destroy and reorganize society and establish the one world order (fourth beast of Daniel) with the ten world rulers that precede and prepare the world for the antichrist's arrival (which will cause three of the then-rulers to fall also) and have Great Babylon (the United States of America) as its only world super-power opponent and resistance from said one world order that will in turn, annihilate it by the ten kings' power (very likely nuclear arsenal) in one hour's time before the entire world continues to be deceived in being recruited into the Beast's worldwide army by the false prophet and the false miracles, the which recruitment, in due time (when troublesome news from the east reach the antichrist's ear, much likely in connection to Israel) the antichrist will attempt to, in turn, destroy Israel before the Lord Jesus Christ returns with His heavenly armies and the holy angels in the fulness of His glory as God Almighty and Second member of the Holy Trinity to destroy the antichrist, his armies and save Israel from destruction, establishing His millennial reign.

An In-Tribulation Guide for Going Through the Seals, Trumpet and Applicable Bowl Judgements

Reminder: There are various wise means in the which the LORD will give wisdom to His saints on earth to both prepare and do according to each tribulational part they are found in, each saint and their families according to their circumstances. This is just a guide in an apocalyptic case scenario only and does not encourage anyone to break the law or disobey authorities during the current world order. These are suggestive means for saints to consider, prepare and do as they best prayerfully, biblically and aware of war realities discern the right way to move forward.

P.s. This chapter serves as an instruction guiding manual and there will be repetitions in certain instructions throughout each stage mainly in the context of reminding North American Christians to prepare to evacuate the United States of America before its prophesied destruction as that of the modern manifestation of Great Babylon.

World-wide (all nations) 2nd Seal: Peace taken from the earth, men kill each other.

"And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see. And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword." (Revelation 6:3-4)

[ALERT: HIGH PRIORITY FOR STRONG CONSIDERATION]

Reminder: The reader must keep in mind that this is only in a hypothetical case scenario for the reader's strong consideration if a third world war was to begin or does begin. This is not intended to create unnecessary panic, as this information and the events of them, (although biblically prophetic) could still realistically take years, if not decades as noone knows when the Red Horse seal will be opened, but God alone. This is to give the reader a studied insight on what preventative actions could be considered to be taken by the public in a third world-war-case-scenario to prevent unnecessary casualties (depending on the country's state and its involvement in the war/possible dangers from foreign threats)

Saints of western powers or allied to such [Including NATO members] (as well as vice versa, when it comes to the powers of the East or allied to them) are NOT to stay in cities or near major cities or military bases, if one takes personal study on the second world war and every major war from then on (Korea, Vietnam etc.) then they would know that cities are often bombed by enemy power without any care for civilian casualties, millions died because of this very reason alone in the second world war. The reader must do proper and well analyzed research on the kind of modern day ballistic mega missiles, as well as hypersonic missiles to be aware of the threat and probable, realistic danger to know that if a missile was to be fired from China, it could reach France, Britain and even Australia within less than an hour, whether of high capacity, or even nuclear (which is a strong and very predicted probability by military intelligence in a third world war conflict scenario) the further all saints are away from major cities as well as their families (at least 100km's away from each) the safer they will be.

If the third world war begins, or many throughout events indicate that it is about to begin, saints can (if they haven't already) begin to use the money they would have wisely saved up the moment the third Jewish temple began constructing in order and buy the said edible and storage resources, as well as every emergency camping/clothing/transport/drink storage/fuel/ and-back up-emergency power, as well as necessary equipment that is in the guide, or whatever they discern is necessary and begin to relocate to a safer zone if necessary.

- Due to the fact that Christians are not allowed to kill (as the Bible clearly commands them not to do so at all costs) they will and are (as for every other war) to stay as far apart from the conflict as necessary (even if called to conflict by applying for conscription, the which if approved by having legitimate months-if-not-years-long evidence of being a real Christian, they can preferably take this time to prepare for the tribulation properly with their families. If, however, they do not pass the test of being judged to be true Christians, they can hopefully still be able to do everything they can possible at all costs, regardless of how difficult it may be, to help their families while still serving the defense force in a non-combatant role domestically [sending money to them if from a distance] as would be the case scenario in every conscription exemption, being general knowledge) [the first released document, as stated above does not encourage anyone to break the law during the current world order and conscription exemption is no different, the which can only be granted if one has solid and valid evidence of being a real Christian (with many months to years-worth of protestant church attendance) and is accepted through and by magistrates or court hearings after careful examinations] by applying for exemption from conscription or wartime call-up on the basis of sincere conscientious beliefs, including religious or moral convictions against killing,
- They must check the laws of their country where there are important legal conditions and processes to follow, as early as within 7 days of being called) The call for conscription.
- The following pre-requisites apply for all conscription exemption applicants:
  Key Requirements for Conscientious Objection
- Genuine and Articulated Beliefs: Applicants must demonstrate that their objection to military service is based on sincere and deeply held beliefs. These beliefs should be clearly articulated, reflecting a consistent and long-standing opposition to participating in war or warlike operations.

- Application Process: Individuals seeking conscientious objector status must apply through the appropriate legal channels. This typically involves submitting a formal application and, if necessary, participating in hearings before a tribunal that assesses the sincerity and depth of the applicant's beliefs.
- Tribunal Evaluation: A Conscientious Objection Tribunal, established under the Defence Act, evaluates applications. This independent body comprises members appointed by the Minister and is responsible for determining whether an individual's beliefs qualify for exemption.
- Scope of Objection: The objection must be to all forms of military service. While earlier provisions focused on religious beliefs, the 1939 amendments broadened this to include non-religious moral or ethical objections.
- Legal Precedents: Historical cases, such as those during the Vietnam War era, illustrate the application of these principles. Individuals like William White and John Zarb faced legal challenges and imprisonment for their refusal to comply with conscription, highlighting the serious legal implications of conscientious objection.
- Post-Application Consequences: If an application is successful, the individual is exempted from conscription. However, if the application is denied, the individual may be required to fulfill their national service obligations, and failure to do so can result in legal penalties, including imprisonment.

- They must buy as much of the long-lasting foods with the barrels per family as possible (as well as all of the materials necessary if they believe it is the best option to store necessary items underground during the tribulation period in relocation) Many hopefully have at least an entire year to gather all the food and storage materials, as well as all the other items for 12 years' worth of resources that can help them go through the tribulation and store them prudently and secretly.

- If one has limited resources or savings, The survival list of necessary items has been made to be as cheap as possible so that full-time working Christians can still afford to buy all of these items within a year (after getting a job at a relocated place away from a major city recommended) of full-time work (per person) they can sell items too.

- The Red Horse event, if (and likely to be thermonuclear to some extent) could be followed by thermonuclear fallout/radiation that may most likely (not entirely guaranteed) be used to explain the "supernatural world-wide crop failure" for a global famine to take effect.

- To estimate what places would be safe around one's region (if in a country of western power or allied to it, as well as the opposite, if at a country of enmity against western powers, or allied to one) a good website that can help estimate the potential radius of a ballistic or thermonuclear bomb (if they are threatened to be used) where one can estimate how far the blast power could reach, including fireball radius, thermal radius and further damage radius (if the threat of hypersonic missiles capable of using nuclear warheads becomes drastic in being used against civilian targets in major cities of potential enemy interest, as well as near military bases) is the well-known NUKEMAP website at,

  https://nuclearsecrecy.com/nukemap/

- It is HIGHLY recommended for saints in threatened areas to use the website to relocate at least 62+ miles or 100km+ (one hour's drive in highway travel) away from every major city and look up military bases nearest to the areas to make sure there's none near the area/town of interest (in case of potential clash of what could also be ballistic strikes against them)

- Minimal families (if not two families per group max) could plan to move together and relocate accordingly, if they find it to be in their best prayerful discernment to do so.

- FINAL CALL FOR BORN AGAIN CANADIAN CHRISTIAN FAMILIES (IF CIRCUMSTANCES PERMIT BEFORE OR DURING THE WAR)

  - A request for all Canadian born again Christians: Please store at least 42 months' worth (3 years and 6 months) of extra food and water (on top of the 12 years) for an entire second American family (may the Lord repay you at the resurrection of the just) due to what could be the mass Christian exodus of believers from the United States to the regions of Canada (During the Two Witnesses' 3 years 5 months and 11 days' prophetic days) due to the United States' guaranteed thermonuclear destruction. This is due to the U.S. evidently being (and very unlikely not to be) the manifestation of the modern Great Babylon (Rev 17 and Rev 18) and receive such believing families as your own. Canadian Christians are urged to depart at least 100km's away (one hour's highway drive, if not further) opposite of the United States' borders.

World-wide (all nations) 3rd Seal: Famine.

When He opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, "Come and see." So I looked, and behold, a black horse, and he who sat on it had a pair of scales in his hand. And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "A quart of wheat for a denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius; and do not harm the oil and the wine." (Revelation 6:5-6)

Reminder: There are various wise means in the which the LORD will give wisdom to His saints on earth to both prepare and do according to each tribulational phase they are found in, each saint and their families according to their circumstances. This is just a guide and suggestive means for saints to consider, prepare and do as they best prayerfully, biblically and aware of war realities discern the right way to move forward.

Although not all saints will be able to, if there's saints that took heed into buying and storing the resource back up food in safe secret places, can (with much caution and prudence) eat the fruits of their labor and avoid malnutrition and possible starvation.

Saints of the which circumstances permit them to cook after the war:

- Ought to remember that people have a sense of smell and they can tell if you're cooking in your abiding place or home. [Which is why it is recommended to have an underground, minimalist and simplistic cooking set up square cubicle that can be easily and very affordably built with earth bag home materials. All that is needed is to install a proper wooden hatch-like door system, have a small tunnel of up to 2 meters that leads to the main hatch entrance and walk up through small stairs. The simple stored foods of chapter 8 can easily be cooked through boilers and water usage] Because the entire world will have to work an entire day's wages for one plate of food, they will be extremely hungry and crime will most likely (if not murder) be committed for what was once taken for granted. E.g. All of the most simplistic canned foods will all of a sudden (in canned foods themselves) become a luxurious delicacy. Thus therefore:
    - Retrieve the day's food (if not inside a home, the which it is not recommended because of the smell of food and the danger it brings to those inside) during the night in a private location, with much prudence and secrecy.
    - Cook weekly meals once a week (if there's possibility of access to energy and a fridge) if not every few days, or once a day for all the meals that can be warmed up (unless the underground cooking room is well set up) (because the contents and the instructions of this document may have some sort of awareness during the tribulation, it is highly recommended that believers [because they will have acquaintances, unbelieving family, friends and neighbours that will know are Christians and will very likely investigate them during the famine, presenting very serious dangers to their personal well-being and safety) to leave their places of habitation, find a safe town at least 100km's away from major cities and military bases and set up a minimalist working structure and combined labor effort camp during the tribulation. Do not return to those or the places you're known to be at, for your own safety.] You must be preferably in a place where the smell will not alert anyone nearby, neither neighbours (everything else can be eaten and kept warm throughout the day and kept in the fridge for a week).

- Do everything one can do to keep the hidden food resources entirely hidden and their retrieval times during the night also.
- Unlike everybody else around you, you will not show signs of malnutrition, nor severe weight loss so leaving the home either during the day or during the night (with night lights) will be catastrophically dangerous as it will give away that you have access to food resources that no one else does. You can get kidnapped, be forced to give away the food location and be most likely murdered shortly after. It is imperative to stay inside or in secluded places at all costs.
- Even when the sun is darkened and if the famine situation has gotten less drastic (due to the fourth seal, Pale horse killing of a fourth of the inhabitants of the earth, there being less mouths to feed and food becoming more accessible) it would still be tremendously dangerous for well-fed saints to believe that they can leave their places of needful seclusion, safety homes/shelters, seeing in that all it takes is running into one person that will immediately identify their lack of malnutrition and jeopardize their safety, as well as the safety of everyone living with them. This is a once-in-an-eternity case scenario wherein saints have no choice, but to be as secluded from society and be content with the company, fellowship and entertainment given to them.

If saints circumstances bring them into doing so and they choose a place of seclusion away from major cities, whether at forests or even deserts (not mountains, as these will be colossally shaken and fall by the coming earthquake in the sixth seal) they must set up (per family, or a group of families) proper 24/7 rotary watch sentries (e.g. four hours per mature teenager/adult in a fair order for them to simplistically patrol and watch over the camp area in a rotary motion, as well as set up proper protocols in the case of emergencies)

Saints must not leave their place of habitation due to the danger it poses for them to be seen with good nutrition, as well as for the coming danger of the mass killing of society in general when the fourth seal is opened. Once saints are set up and established in a place of proper solitude, they must remain there for their own safety.

- HIGH PRIORITY: It would be extremely risky for American Christians to evacuate the U.S. During this time period (if they have stored food resources) due to the danger it poses for them to be discovered transporting food at checkpoints, or by a hungry society in general. It is strongly advised that they remain in small communities (up to two or three families) in strict hiding and seclusion until the beginning of the two witnesses' 3 years, 5 months and 11 days prophetic days in Jerusalem before they evacuate the U.S. Northward to Canada.

- American and Canadian Christians ought to relocate at least 62.14 miles [100 km's] away from all U.S. Borders, including Alaskan borders due to the U.S. Imminent fiery judgement that will most likely be thermonuclear in itself.

> "Then he said to me, "The waters which you saw, where the harlot sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and tongues. And the ten horns which you saw on the beast, these will hate the harlot, make her desolate and naked, eat her flesh and burn her with fire. For God has put it into their hearts to fulfill His purpose, to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God are fulfilled. And the woman whom you saw is that great city which reigns over the kings of the earth." (Revelation 17:15-18)

World-wide (all nations) 4th Seal: A Fourth Part of Mankind Dies.

"And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see. And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth." (Revelation 6:7-8)

Reminder: There are various wise means in the which the LORD will give wisdom to His saints on earth to both prepare and do according to each tribulational phase they are found in, each saint and their families according to their circumstances. This is just a guide and suggestive means for saints to consider, prepare and do as they best discern is the right way to move forward.

- Stay secluded to prepare for quarantine purposes due to the next seal that follows shortly after the world-wide famine, most likely being that of mass death due to starvation, if not mass-murder within societies for the sake of what could be an attempt to re-stabilizing society (due to all of the post-world-war-issues present) as well as for the reason of making an attempt to bring more food accessibility to an in-famine world, not to mention the animals of the earth will likely be given over by God to bring about His judgement in them feeding themselves with people everywhere (seeing that they in themselves will be at the brink of starvation also)

- Although saints everywhere will have the seal of God on their foreheads (as of Rev 9:4) much after the 144,000 have vanished and it will be very likely that they will be sovereignly kept safe from the plague of the animals, they should still wisely stay secluded and as far from society as possible and that during the period of time wherein governments will most likely be committing atrocious acts of mass-purging (if the mass killing by "the sword" isn't manifested as anything else domestically speaking in a post-world-war scenario and in whatever other means the, "and with death" part is manifested during the fourth seal (it could be plagues/viruses etc.)

- In a hypothetical case scenario, If there's still 8.2 Billion people on the earth by the time the tribulation starts and 200 million people were taken during the great world war conflict, that means that if a fourth part of the remaining population were to be taken (25%) the earth would be left with about 6 billion people.

- VITAL REMINDER (U.S.) American Christians, if relocation was not possible during or before the war period ended, do not attempt to evacuate the U.S. during this period (if you haven't yet evacuated, until all the seals have been opened and until the angel's end of preaching days, before the beginning of the two witnesses prophetic 3 years, 5 months and 11 days ministry) do not leave your place of hiding or go outside.

- VITAL REMINDER: Well-fed saints must not leave their place of habitation due to the danger it poses for them to be seen with good nutrition as it can drastically jeopardize both their safety and the safety of those they are cohabitating with. Once saints are set up and established in a place of proper solitude, they must remain there for their own safety.

  - Come, my people, enter your chambers, And shut your doors behind you; Hide yourself, as it were, for a little moment, Until the indignation is past. For behold, the Lord comes out of His place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity; The earth will also disclose her blood, And will no more cover her slain. (Isaiah 26:20–21)

- HIGH PRIORITY (PRE-FIFTH SEAL): The next event will be a worldwide earthquake potent enough that it will drastically re-shape all the mountains of the earth, saints are also to be prepared to have to, if circumstances permit (stay in secluded safe houses) or camp in outdoor areas and plain fields throughout this period, away from houses or city infrastructure that could make falling debris cause fatalities (as well as being anywhere near trees, islands or mountains) any plain field would be preferable, this being due to such earthquake being so potent, that in itself will move every mountain in the world from its place, as well as islands, it is also imperatively necessary that saints, their families (and anyone willing to listen) stay as far apart from oceans also (due to tsunamis in themselves being guaranteed as a result of the world-wide earthquake) saints are to stay in places of plain fields, in groups of families with proper self-protection and apply night sentry and have safety protocols ready in case of an emergency for overall safety reasons.

- Saints can prepare their thermo-gear and tools, as well as have all manner of warm clothing to properly prepare themselves for the coming drop of temperature that will most likely take place in all the earth after the sun darkens and what will also be seen to be the blue sky (the sky in itself) get rolled up together like a scroll, supernaturally.
- SAINTS MUST BE CAREFUL WHEN COOKING AS IT CAN ATRACT DANGERS AND UNWANTED ATTENTION FROM BOTH PEOPLE AND HUNGRY ANIMALS.

Heaven-wide, 5th Seal: Christ's Martyrs Honored.

"When He opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the testimony which they held. And they cried with a loud voice, saying, "How long, O Lord, holy and true, until You judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" Then a white robe was given to each of them; and it was said to them that they should rest a little while longer, until both the number of their fellow servants and their brethren, who would be killed as they were, was completed." (Revelation 6:9-11)

World-wide (all nations) 6th Seal: Earthquake, darkening of the sun, stars fall from the sky, what will most likely be the blue sky that will be receded as a scroll being rolled up and the moon turning to blood.

"I looked when He opened the sixth seal, and behold, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became like blood. And the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as a fig tree drops its late figs when it is shaken by a mighty wind. Then the sky receded as a scroll when it is rolled up, and every mountain and island was moved out of its place. And the kings of the earth, the great men, the rich men, the commanders, the mighty men, every slave and every free man, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains, and said to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb! For the great day of His wrath has come, and who is able to stand?"
(Revelation 6:12-17)

- HIGH PRIORITY: Saints should already been relocated as far away from cities, houses, mountains, islands and oceans due to their deadly danger in the first worldwide earthquake that, if it be powerful enough to remove mountains from their places (in however length of meters this happens) will be powerful enough to cause significant infrastructural damage to make buildings collapse and houses to fall, as well as cause vast tsunamis in all places, wherein by the earthquake alone many will be killed as means of continued sovereign judgement.

- The "falling" of the stars can be interpreted in that which was written by the apostle John and the prophet Daniel concerning this event, as well as the words of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ in the which:

    - What both John and Daniel saw in their visions was as though the stars appear to fall from the view of the inhabitants of the earth as the powers of the heavens (the created universe) will be will shaken or,

    - The possibility in that (by God's omnipotence) the current understanding of the stars of the universe (apart from the solar system) are a supernatural optical illusion given to the inhabitants of the earth as means of universal judgement for vast apostacy and rejection of the one true God to righteously delude the Christ-rejecting inhabitants of the earth into being encouraged to continue to believe in the further atheistic ideology they've chosen by the, "extraterrestrial" mindset apart from the Bible and further depart from all Christian thinking to excuse a non-repentant sinful lifestyle.

- In the case scenario that the stars do literally fall to the earth (and although saints can trust the loving sovereignty of God as to where they will fall (Prov 16:33) in whatever form the stars are manifest (that in this second case scenario, will not be manifested as the sun-like and greater in mass gigantic burning spheres of hot hydrogen and helium gas) the which stars will, as late-figs, "fall on the earth" as though when a mighty wind shakes figs from the fig-tree they are on, giving the world supernatural confusion in the revelation of what will be evident to be part of the current and coming great delusion sent to the inhabitants of the earth as means of judgement (2 Thess 2:11-12)

- Although many stars will "fall from heaven" if they are the way the world says the universe is, as it spirals out of control when it is shaken (as the powers of the heaven will be) this event will make it look as though the stars from heaven are "falling" from all directions, yet not all of them will -- and this is due to there still being remaining stars that will be darkened in further periods during the tribulation such as the fourth trumpet judgement sound (Rev 8:12) when a third part of the sun, the moon and the stars (that are already darkened in the sixth seal in Rev 6:12) will only be darkened to a significant degree due to the further context of (Rev 8:12) that there will still be visible light on the earth, amidst the sun's darkening (leading us to conclude that the only means this is possible [because if the sun was fully darkened, it would be an impossibility for it to be able to still light the day, much less bring further darkness that will not "brighten" the world for a third part of the day afterwards]

- This is only due to what will most likely be the repetition (if not also a prophecy as many texts of the OT were that gave further revelatory light in the NT) in the darkening of the sun, either supernaturally, so only its spherical edges cast light (as seen in a total solar eclipse) or from earth's visibility by the cloud of the LORD as that of Ezek 32:7-8, the which judgement written against Egypt at the time resembles the tribulation, the which can also be prophetic in its application for the last days) in the which when the apostle John saw the sun become, "as sackcloth of hair" it is very possible that he was describing what he was seeing in the way he understood it according to his cultural Jewish understanding, though it is very possible that what he was witnessing was a very dark cloud creating a, "total solar eclipse" effect, so much darker than normal in that through it, most daylight (not all, as for the further context of Rev 8:12 and Rev 9:1-2 mentioned above that clearly show there is still a form of dim daylight remaining) will be totally obscured as though it is late evening, near night throughout the entire globe, yet casting enough light for the day to be able to be in differentiation from the night.

- In whatever manifestation the stars are shown after they fall, it is imperative for saints to have winter clothing ready to put on when they begin to see the sun turning to darkness by the world-wide dark cloud cover and the moon giving its blood-like eclipse effect due to God's supernatural sovereign turning of the moon into blood.

- Saints ought to make sure they have adequate lighting in hand and many logs for keeping warm through communal fires. Parents ought to prepare children properly for the daylight suddenly becoming dark and avoid unnecessary scares and terrors.

- The Sun turning black as sackcloth of hair could possibly (after the Pharaoh-like world-wide conviction of the truth of Christianity as of Rev 6:15-17) once the inhabitants of the world harden their hearts and their hearts become hardened (as the rest of the Book of Revelation shows us will be the case until the every end of the tribulation) it wouldn't be surprising if the event itself would then later be attempted to be explained by science as the light of the sun, reflected by the moon and passing into earth's thick atmosphere [the which, when blocked by the dark cloud cover at the time, will have its reflected wavelengths of sunlight from the moon to the earth, only reflect the light's longer wavelengths [the only ones that can go past the dark clouds after going past the atmosphere's thick layers] after said longer wavelengths [being the red ones, apart from every other color] will, "reach the visibility of the inhabitants of the earth, making the moon look red, similar to that of a lunar eclipse, when the earth is between the sun and the moon") and although the possibility of this is not entirely impossible, I personally believe the LORD will, by His omnipotent power, make the blood moon He has decreed to turn into for the tribulation.

- it is not impossible (although not guaranteed) to estimate that the world will (perhaps for some time) try to explain these events as the means of a constant lunar-eclipse-like effect due to the dark clouds covering the earth, as well as what will most likely be known as, "nuclear winter" to explain the supernatural rolling of the sky as a scroll due to atmospheric and reflected sunlight "side-effects" by said, "nuclear winter."

World-wide (all nations) The four winds cease (world's wind force ceases)

And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree. (Revelation 7:1)

The wind force of all the earth being put to an end is a very good thing for the saints of the Lord due to what will most likely be a vast and dramatic drop of temperature due to the sun's darkening. If world temperatures become very low, even at freezing points, mixed with winds, would cause near-blizzards or blizzards in themselves everywhere, causing much more potential hazard and other complications for saints, them being absent makes the coolness of the low temperatures and lack of sunlight much more bearable, praise the LORD for His wisdom and goodness!

Due to there still most likely being general media, saints will be able to receive all instructions given by the experts of the time and government regulations in each country to continue to do accordingly during the cold temperatures.

Saints are once again to remain apart from cities, houses, trees, caves, anywhere near oceans for the next earthquake that will take place due to the golden censer that with the prayers of the saints being offered, will be cast by an angel to the earth as the subsequent following judgement on the inhabitants of the earth, that in itself is the predecessor and as it were, the foundation of the following trumpets and vials judgements before the Day of The Lord.

If the thunders are overwhelming and no shelter is found, saints can take good shelter in their cars as vehicles will always redirect the thunder's energy safely to the ground by the faraday cage effect, yet again, we can as believers trust in the LORD's sovereignty in how He can and will make a providential path for His saints to find appropriate shelter during such lightning storms.

For God has put it into their hearts to fulfill His purpose, to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God are fulfilled. World-wide (all nations) Golden scepter falling on the earth (voices, thunders, lightnings and an earthquake)

"…And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake." (Revelation 8:5)

HIGH PRIORITY: It is highly recommended for saints to finalize the below-the-ground water cistern installations (given through the blue-prints) due to the coming blood-fire heil storm that will burn the grass of the whole earth and destroy a third of the trees of the earth [not giving enough time to work on them] as well as the subsequent worldwide drought (after the wormwood star falls on a third of the rivers) that will kill many.

Saints ought to continue to keep their tribulational place of habitation as secretly as possible due to the coming world-wide, death-penalty-based persecution of Christians everywhere, most-likely besides Babylon.

(Modern day United States of America) and the mystery of the kingdom of the South (whether it is an unified South America/South American region, Australia [Southern Land in Latin], Southern Asia or Middle east etc.) the which both kingdoms will be at enmity against the antichrist's kingdom (the which would be impossible for both kingdoms to be included in the antichrist's one world commerce mark of the beast)

- Once the second world-wide earthquake is over, saints can prepare themselves for the coming firestorm of heil mingled with fire and blood, the which may most likely be also tried to be explained by the scientists of the world as a subsequent radioactive atmospheric effect of a nuclear winter and nuclear fallout (if nukes were deployed during the war) probably intertwined with a buildup of the sun's heat that will make the heil, "look bloody and also be set on fire by the temperature and probable radioactive damage to the atmosphere" Although not guaranteed, the world has a tendency of using knowledge to label the finding of an anti-God, "scientific" explanation to deny the undeniable and continue its atheistic rebellion against God.

- The heil mingled with blood and fire sent by God has the only purpose of burning the entirety of the grass of the earth, as well as a third of the trees of the world. As long as saints find good shelter in safe infrastructure, surviving houses, or what will be new-formed caves, they can trust the LORD's sovereign directing of the heil towards the vegetation and third of the trees of the earth, if they stay indoors, or emergency shelters such as subway tunnels, they should be safe.

- VITAL REMINDER (U.S.) American Christians, if relocation was not possible during or before the war period ended, do not attempt to evacuate the U.S. during this period (if you haven't yet evacuated, until all the seals have been opened and until the angel's end of preaching days, before the beginning of the two witnesses prophetic 3 years, 5 months and 11 days ministry) do not leave your place of hiding or go outside.

World-wide (all nations) 7th Seal (7 Trumpets)

Trumpet 1: heil mingled with fire and blood – All grass burnt and a third of trees burnt up.

"And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound. The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up."
(Revelation 8:6-7)

The great warmth given to the earth as well as the wind-force ceasing will most likely be so it complements the cold given to the earth due to the heat of the sun having been taken away (thought he heil is for a season) which is so that saints are taught of the Lord everywhere to re-adapt to burning heat sources to stay warm during the tribulation in His great goodness, strength and grace.

Once the sound of the trumpet is heard, saints should already be hiding under shelter and prepared (in regard to food) for a season of the heil falling to the earth's vegetation. They ought to try to be away from vegetation, trees and grass, as part of their tribulational stay if they find it safe to do so.

If they haven't done so already, saints can, after the plague of the heil is over (and if it is safe to do so) build (or continue to build) the underground water cistern per person before the world-wide strong drought (which will eventually be followed by all water sources becoming blood) saints can begin to store away years-worth of water through these two-to-three-weeks-worth of work earth-bag based cisterns.

HIGH PRIORITY: Saints ought to be as far away from Islands and near coastland as possible (several miles/kilometers) in so much that the next plague is the meteorite-mountain that will fall on the ocean, destroying a third of the ships of the ocean and will guarantee gigantic world-wide tsunamis that have never been seen before, nor shall be seen again (e.g. The state California westward would not be a safe place at all)

World-wide (all nations) Trumpet 2: Meteorite falls on ocean, a third of the sea becomes blood, sea-life and ships destroyed in this region (a third part of the sea)

And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood; And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed. (Revelation 8:8-9)

HIGH PRIORITY: Saints should already be as far away from Islands and near coastland as possible (several miles/kilometers) in so much that the next plague is the meteorite-mountain that will fall on the ocean, destroying a third of the ships of the ocean and will guarantee gigantic world-wide tsunamis that have never been seen before, nor shall be seen again (e.g. The state California westward would not be a safe place at all)

World-wide (all nations) Trumpet 3: Wormwood star falls from heaven (wormwood) lack of water sources causing vast drought and death by thirst everywhere.

"And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters; And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter." (Revelation 6:10-11)

- There isn't really much to comment on this section, other than that of saints should stay as far from water sources as possible. Hopefully most Christians will not be affected by this judgement, and we can only part and hope that the part of the world that it falls into (as sad as it is that people will die) will not be one where the Christian population will be at.

- In such a case and there's a real need and Christians prepared with storing water sources (whether through the cistern-well-like sources or not) then they will be safe from the drought as long as they keep proper and simple care, as well as cleanliness and safety whenever they extract water from them.

World-wide (all nations) Trumpet 4: Third part (of what's allowed to shine through the cloud covering the sun) and a third part of the moon and a third part of the stars are darkened.

And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise. (Revelation 8:12)

- Saints ought to make sure they have adequate lighting in hand and continue to gather (if necessary) many logs and winter clothing for keeping warm through communal fires. Parents ought to prepare children properly for the daylight suddenly becoming dark and avoid unnecessary scares and terrors.

- HIGH PRIORITY REMINDER: Saints need to make sure that the place they are at is one they can stay still at for a period of 5 months due to the plague of locusts in the which the bottomless pit will be opened and its smoke will make the entirety of the earth's air black and darkened so much so that nothing can be seen.

World-wide (all nations) Trumpet 5 (Woe 1)
Plague of Locusts (5 months)

"And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit. And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power. And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads. And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he strikes a man. And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them." (Revelation 9:1-6)

The Apollyon demon falls from heaven and the locusts plague torment everyone on earth who does not have the seal of God on their foreheads. (Revelation 9:4)

- The Seal of God will be on the foreheads of all of God's people to supernaturally keep them safe from the plagues that God will bring upon the earth.

- The reason as to why the seal in this passage doesn't only apply to the 144,000 Hebrew virgin Christians is because the Scripture makes clear that them (the 144,000 being the only ones that are redeemed from the earth) were to have the seal of God in their foreheads before being redeemed (Rev 7:8-9) before the earth, the sea and the trees were to be hurt (Rev 7:2-3) by the time of the sound of the fifth trumpet, the earth, the trees and the sea have already been hurt by the previous trumpets and the 144,000 have already disappeared, leading us to rightly conclude that those who will have the seal of God on their foreheads to protect them from the locusts and all other plagues are the people of God remaining here on earth, every born again Christian (Rev 9:4) which is why saints will be kept untouched (the smoke most likely being present to keep them from beholding the locusts and the terror they bring, as well as the pain inflicted on men who can't die for 5 months)

- Saints should rest securely while it is dark to see.

- If the need for food isn't supernaturally altered, then they must be ready to have food and water resources re-located and re-adapted, so they are at close proximity.

- HIGH PRIORITY REMINDER: Saints need to make sure that the place they are at is one they can stay still at for a period of 5 months due to the plague of locusts in the which the bottomless pit will be opened and its smoke will make the entirety of the earth's air black and darkened so much so that nothing can be seen.

World-wide (all nations) Trumpet 6 (Woe 2): River Euphrates' Four Angels and 2 million heavenly creature armies slay a third part of men.

Then the sixth angel sounded: And I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates." So the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were released to kill a third of mankind. Now the number of the army of the horsemen was two hundred million; I heard the number of them. And thus I saw the horses in the vision: those who sat on them had breastplates of fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow; and the heads of the horses were like the heads of lions; and out of their mouths came fire, smoke, and brimstone. By these three plagues a third of mankind was killed—by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone which came out of their mouths. For their power is in their mouth and in their tails; for their tails are like serpents, having heads; and with them they do harm." (Revelation 9:13-19)

The saints of God will be generally kept safe from this plague as they will have the seal of God on their foreheads (Rev 9:4)

World-wide (all nations) Angel with little book stands on the sea and earth, 7 thunders roar, swears by the Almighty the declaration of the end of time and days of his angelic preaching to end the mystery of the true God.

"I saw still another mighty angel coming down from heaven, clothed with a cloud. And a rainbow was on his head, his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire. He had a little book open in his hand. And he set his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land, and cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roars. When he cried out, seven thunders uttered their voices. Now when the seven thunders uttered their voices, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, "Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and do not write them."
(Revelation 10:1-4)

- HIGH PRIORITY REMINDER (U.S.) American Christians: It is very likely that by this stage, seeing that the world's food supply would have significantly increased by the cutting off out of what will most likely be half of the living population (could possibly be 4 billion) the process for American saints to prepare to start to evacuate the United States towards Canada may be much easier than anticipated, even though by the time the angel lands on earth and preaches for an unknown number of days, it is highly advisable for this process to be done during the Two Witnesses prophetic 3 years, 5 months and 11 days ministry, due to the world's state of distraction and weakening, the which will make the immigration process much simpler.

- VITAL REMINDER: Well-fed saints must not leave their place of habitation due to the danger it poses for them to be seen with good nutrition as it can drastically jeopardize both their safety and the safety of those they are cohabitating with. (just because the world may be re-stabilized food wise, it doesn't mean that people are not still suffering from severe malnutrition recovery or the de-stabilized society then hasn't become immensely dangerous. Apart from U.S. saints that need to begin to prudently prepare for an evacuation process north-ward, everyone else ought to, in their established place of solitude with their families/small fellowships, remain there for their own safety.

- Come, my people, enter your chambers, And shut your doors behind you; Hide yourself, as it were, for a little moment, Until the indignation is past. For behold, the Lord comes out of His place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity; The earth will also disclose her blood, And will no more cover her slain. (Isaiah 26:20–21)

- VITAL REMINDER: if not done so already, American Christians ought to be prepared to evacuate the U.S. Northward to Canada [it is recommended they do so during the Two Witnesses' 3 years, 5 months and 11 prophetic days in Jerusalem, before the revelation of the antichrist]

- VITAL REMINDER: American and Canadian Christians must be ready to relocate at least 62.14 miles [100 km's] if not further away from all U.S. Borders, including Alaskan borders due to the U.S. Imminent fiery judgement that will most likely (if not guaranteed) to be thermonuclear.

- "Then he said to me, "The waters which you saw, where the harlot sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and tongues. And the ten horns which you saw on the beast, these will hate the harlot, make her desolate and naked, eat her flesh and burn her with fire. For God has put it into their hearts to fulfill His purpose, to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God are fulfilled. And the woman whom you saw is that great city which reigns over the kings of the earth." (Revelation 17:15-18)

World-wide (all nations) Two witnesses from heaven preach and torment the inhabitants of the earth for 1260 days (3 Years, 5 months, 11 days)

"And I will give power to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy one thousand two hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth." These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands standing before the God of the earth. And if anyone wants to harm them, fire proceeds from their mouth and devours their enemies. And if anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this manner. These have power to shut heaven, so that no rain falls in the days of their prophecy; and they have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to strike the earth with all plagues, as often as they desire." (Revelation 11:3-6)

Born again saints with the seal of God on their foreheads are exempt from this judgement and generally safe

HIGH PRIORITY U.S SAINTS:
IMMINENT CALL FOR AMERICAN EVACUATION

- AMERICAN CHRISTIANS HAVE AT LEAST 3 YEARS, 5 MONTHS AND 11 DAYS (WHILE THE WORLD IS DISTRACTED AND MEN ARE TORTURED) TO GATHER AS MANY RESOURCES AS POSSIBLE (IF NOT SINFUL TO DO SO) DURING ITS JUDGEMENT, AS WELL AS TO GATHER AS MUCH EDIBLE FOOD RESOURCES ALSO FOR THE REMAINING 7 AND A HALF YEARS WORTH OF TRIBULATION.

    - THE ANTICHRIST'S REIGN: 3 YEARS AND 6 MONTHS

- AND EVACUATE THE UNITED STATES NORTHWARD TO CANADA. U.S. SAINTS COULD MORE EASILY BOTH WARN OTHERS, BUT ALSO MAKE PROPER CONTACT WITH BORN AGAIN CANADIAN HOUSEHOLDS.

- AMERICAN AND CANADIAN CHRISTIANS OUGHT TO RELOCATE AT LEAST 62.14 MILES [100 KM'S] IF NOT FURTHER AWAY FROM ALL U.S. BORDERS, INCLUDING

ALASKAN BORDERS DUE TO THE U.S. IMMINENT FIERY JUDGEMENT THAT WILL MOST LIKELY BE THERMONUCLEAR IN ITSELF.

- DO NOT STAY IN THE U.S. FOR FAMILY OR FRIENDS. IF THEY REFUSE TO LISTEN AND BE PERSUADED BY THE SCRIPTURES THEN THAT IS VERY SADLY THEIR PROBLEM. REMEMBER LOT'S WIFE.

- Estimated timestamp before the only second coming of Christ and the beginning of His millennial reign:

    - Approximately 7 years, 11 days
      (However, no man knows the exact day, not even the Son, but the Father in heaven, as of Matthew 24:36)

World-wide (all nations) The Antichrist (most likely a resurrected damned man) arises from hell, the ocean and supernaturally is revealed to the world as the world's saviour, killing the two witnesses, suffering a mortal wound and rising again, giving the world the "God-like" impression of his "nature" not realizing it's all done through demonic power for their final judgement.

"When they finish their testimony, the beast that ascends out of the bottomless pit will make war against them, overcome them, and kill them." (Revelation 11:7)

- World-wide (all nations) World-wide celebration and gift sending over the two witnesses' death.
- World-wide (all nations) Two Witnesses rise again the third day, ascend to heaven.

- Estimated timestamp before the return of Christ, about 3 years and 6 months. (42 months)

VITAL REMINDER: Israelite Christians ought to evacuate Jerusalem for the time being due to the fact that about 7000 people will die during the earthquake that takes place after the two witnesses resurrection and ascension to heaven.

HIGH PRIORITY: FINAL CALL FOR EXODUS NORTHWARD (CANADA) AS AMERICA HAS LESS THAN 42 MONTHS BEFORE ITS IMMINENT DESTRUCTION. DO NOT STAY FOR FAMILY OR FRIENDS. REMEMBER LOT'S WIFE.

AND EVACUATE THE UNITED STATES NORTHWARD TO CANADA. U.S. SAINTS COULD MORE EASILY BOTH WARN OTHERS, BUT ALSO MAKE PROPER CONTACT WITH BORN AGAIN CANADIAN HOUSEHOLDS.

World-wide (all nations) 7th Trumpet (Woe 3)

Earthquake falls on Jerusalem (7000 slain) God's remnant (if not the survivors) fear and give glory to the God of heaven

"Then I stood on the sand of the sea. And I saw a beast rising up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his horns ten crowns, and on his heads a blasphemous name. Now the beast which I saw was like a leopard, his feet were like the feet of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority. And I saw one of his heads as if it had been mortally wounded, and his deadly wound was healed. And all the world marveled and followed the beast. So they worshiped the dragon who gave authority to the beast; and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?" And he was given a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, and he was given authority to continue for forty-two months."
(Revelation 13:1-5)

- Born again saints of Israel and families must continue to remain outside of Jerusalem and be ready to obey our Lord's commandments in fleeing to the mountains the moment that the Holy city is surrounded by the antichrist's armies.

"Therefore when you see the 'abomination of desolation,' spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place" (whoever reads, let him understand), "then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. Let him who is on the housetop not go down to take anything out of his house. And let him who is in the field not go back to get his clothes. But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! And pray that your flight may not be in winter or on the Sabbath. For then there will be great tribulation, such as has not been since the beginning of the world until this time, no, nor ever shall be. And unless those days were shortened, no flesh would be saved; but for the elect's sake those days will be shortened." (Matthew 24:15-22)

World-wide (all nations) Enthronement and worship of the antichrist (42-month reign before the return of Christ begins)

- All nations will worship the antichrist due to the overwhelming supernatural and demonic power given unto the man, as well as God-sent delusion (as of 2 Thess 2) though very likely apart from the U.S. (modern Babylon) as well as the mystery of the Southern Kingdom the which will both oppose the rule of the antichrist, it could be likely that the U.S. may presume that the antichrist is an alien deceiving the world into making it think he's, "God"

- The U.S. will get utterly "burnt with fire" by what will most likely be thermonuclear destruction by the ten rulers of the antichrist's kingdom, saints ought to have already evacuated all of North America, for its destruction, at this stage, is imminent)

- HIGH PRIORITY: Although most mature Christians (and as scary as it may be at first) would want to be beheaded under the antichrist's dominion and rule, due to securing a 1000-year reign with Christ in His millennial kingdom, as well as an enjoyment of the 1st heavens before they pass away on the Day of The Lord.

- However, such would have to be the case if it is God's sovereign will for such born again Christians.

- Christians otherwise ought to make sure their places of seclusion and in-hiding are difficult to find due to the coming world-wide deadly persecution of Christians everywhere.

- Christians ought to have enough water and food resources for the next 42 months, keeping in mind that by the time the angelic bowl hits, all water will be turned into blood. Food-wise, the world at the time with half its population from when the tribulation started may be able to accommodate edible needs better at this stage (3 years and 6 months)

World-wide (all nations) Christianity criminalized under the death penalty, A major warring persecution against Christians begins in all areas of the world.

- The criminalization of Christianity will likely be done worldwide apart from the U.S. who is very evidently the modern day Babylon (that will, as predictable as America is in this case scenario, be at enmity against the antichrist's kingdom) as well as the mystery of the Southern Kingdom.

- "And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practice, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people. Born again saints that survived the deadly world-wide beast persecution with the seal of God on their foreheads are exempt from this judgement and generally safe

It is unclear when exactly the bowl judgements will take place during the antichrist's kingdom, however due to there being a, "half of the week" of covenantal pact/treaty between himself and the Jews (who will be deceived into worshipping the image of the beast also) it is likely that the half-way point of the week is a period between the beginning of his kingdom and halfway through it (21 months: 1 year and 9 months) and the rest of the symbolical "week" (being also 21 months: 1 year and 9 months) is when the end of the sacrifice offering takes place and likely when, "the consummation" begins, wherein the bowl judgements will take place and everything begins to go wrong for all those who took the mark of the beast and chose to side with the antichrist.

"And the people of the prince who is to come
Shall destroy the city and the sanctuary.
The end of it shall be with a flood,
And till the end of the war desolations are determined.
Then he shall confirm a covenant with many for one week;
But in the middle of the week
He shall bring an end to sacrifice and offering.
And on the wing of abominations shall be one who makes desolate,
Even until the consummation, which is determined,
Is poured out on the desolate." (Daniel 9:26-27)

HIGH PRIORITY: FINAL CALL FOR EXODUS NORTHWARD OF U.S. SAINTS (CANADA) AS AMERICA'S DESTRUCTION IS IMMINENT. DO NOT STAY FOR FAMILY OR FRIENDS. REMEMBER LOT'S WIFE. AMERICA IS ABOUT TO GET DESTROYED, IF YOU'RE STILL THERE, IT WILL BE AT YOUR OWN PERIL.

THE FIERY DESTRUCTION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA (MODERN MANIFESTATION OF GREAT BABYLON) IN ONE HOUR'S TIME BY THE TEN RULERS OF THE ANTICHRIST'S KINGDOM.

15 Then he said to me, "The waters which you saw, where the harlot sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and tongues. 16 And the ten horns which you [g]saw on the beast, these will hate the harlot, make her desolate and naked, eat her flesh and burn her with fire. 17 For God has put it into their hearts to fulfill His purpose, to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God are fulfilled. 18 And the woman whom you saw is that great city which reigns over the kings of the earth." (Revelation 17:-18)

1 After these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illuminated with his glory. 2 And he cried mightily with a loud voice, saying, "Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and has become a dwelling place of demons, a prison for every foul spirit, and a cage for every unclean and hated bird! 3 For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the abundance of her luxury." 4 And I heard another voice from heaven saying, "Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues. 5 For her sins have reached to heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities. 6 Render to her just as she rendered to you, and repay her double according to her works; in the cup which she has mixed, mix double for her. 7 In the measure that she glorified herself and lived luxuriously, in the same measure give her torment and sorrow; for she says in her heart, 'I sit as queen, and am no widow, and will not see sorrow.' 8 Therefore her plagues will come in one day—death and mourning and famine. And she will be utterly burned with fire, for strong is the Lord God who judges her. 9 "The kings of the earth who committed fornication and lived luxuriously with her will weep and lament for her, when they see the smoke of her burning, 10 standing at a distance for fear of her torment, saying, 'Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! For in one hour your judgment has come.' 11 "And the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise anymore: 12 merchandise of gold and silver, precious stones and pearls, fine linen and purple, silk and scarlet, every kind of citron wood, every kind of object of ivory, every kind of object of most precious wood, bronze, iron, and marble; 13 and cinnamon and incense, fragrant oil and frankincense, wine and oil, fine flour and wheat, cattle and sheep, horses and chariots, and bodies and souls of men. 14 The fruit that your soul longed for has gone from you, and all the things which are rich and splendid have gone from you, and you shall find them no more at all. [15] The merchants of these things, who became rich by her, will stand at a distance for fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, [16] and saying, 'Alas, alas, that great city that was clothed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls! [17] For in one hour such great riches came to nothing.' Every shipmaster, all who travel by ship, sailors, and as many as trade on the sea, stood at a distance [18] and cried out when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What is like this great city?' [19] "They threw dust on their heads and cried out, weeping and wailing, and saying, 'Alas, alas, that great city, in which all who had ships on the sea became rich by her wealth! For in one hour she is made desolate.' [20] "Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you holy apostles and prophets, for God has avenged you on her!" [21] Then a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, "Thus with violence the great city Babylon shall be thrown down, and shall not be found anymore. [22] The sound of harpists, musicians, flutists, and trumpeters shall not be heard in you anymore. No craftsman of any craft shall be found in you anymore, and the sound of a millstone shall not be heard in you anymore. [23] The light of a lamp shall not shine in you anymore, and the voice of bridegroom and bride shall not be heard in you anymore. For your merchants were the great men of the earth, for by your sorcery all the nations were deceived. [24] And in her was found the blood of prophets and saints, and of all who were slain on the earth."

Chapter 8

A suggestive guide for in-tribulation survival assets

For the prevention of severe malnutrition, as well as severe thirst in case of drought problems when both the third seal (black horse) and the wormwood star (third trumpet) are accomplished on the earth.

“Then I was given a reed like a measuring rod. And the angel stood, saying, “Rise and measure the temple of God, the altar, and those who worship there. But leave out the court which is outside the temple, and do not measure it, for it has been given to the Gentiles. And they will tread the holy city underfoot for forty-two months.”
(Revelation 11:1-2)

Glossary:

A. Introduction

B. In-Tribulation Assets

Because the Bible is adamant in that there will be a third Jewish temple built (and preparations for it are already under way) during the tribulation of the last days (and that such a temple won’t possibly be able to be built during the Red Horseman, World War seal) it is HIGHLY RECOMMENDED and suggested that Christians everywhere begin to store as much food and (when necessary) water as it is possible during what could and may most likely be a 10, if not an 11 to 12 year tribulation period.

Because of the uncertainty of the awareness of this document all Christians that store up food in this manner must leave their houses, cities and move somewhere else for the remainder of the tribulation, lest unbelievers remember that there are Christians hiding food sources during the great famine and saints’ lives, as well as that of their families become endangered. Saints must also do everything they can in their prudence and discretion to move the food resources disguisedly and not let anyone see you carrying them or carrying a barrel (if that is your choice of [recommended] food storage. Beware of cooking smell as it can atract dangers and unwanted attention)

Due to the uncertainty of when the Tribulation period is to begin, it could be within the next 5 years, or two decades or more,

One thing is certain and that is that without a third temple built and established in Jerusalem as the Scripture rightly teaches, the Red Horse Second Seal will most likely not begin (unless Israel finds itself in significant comfortable circumstances during the global conflict that allows them to construct the temple rapid with modern day engineering technology) so it is the moment that the third Judaistic temple begins to rebuild when it is HIGHLY RECOMMENDED that saints begin to prepare to buy all the survival assets and begin to buy them IMMEDIATELY if the signs of a third world war conflict (if circumstances permit, if not move rapidly and then buy them) and prepare an in-tribulation location to store them and live in with their families (not a large group for safety reasons to not being caught) according to all the contents of the previous chapter's instructions, as they discern accordingly.

AVOID MOUNTAINS as these will be colossally shaken during the 6th seal judgement

Apart from everything in this list, the reader will have to investigate through multiple Ai tools as to how to build their own minimalist below-the-ground kitchen-cubicle (one per family) with an opening hatch, a small corridor, a set of stairs and second open hatch door to bring cooked meals out and contain the smell (earth bag homes recommended for how cheap they are, easy and rapid to build) as per the instructions in the first seal judgement of at the beginning of Chapter 7) you must use Ai and do proper research to make sure you can, through combined labor force, be able to build this, as well as the other storage rooms/water containers etc.)

The suggestive guide constitutes of:

- The cheapest long-term types of food (up to 20 years if properly stored)
- Suggested assets of need for in-tribulation living.
- The storage assets to store such food safely and properly.
- A simplistic camping and minimalist catacomb storage facility by the cheapest materials possible (underground earth-bag-home-based shelters)
- The average cost of these.

The reader must remember that this is just a highly recommended guide, they are encouraged to use it as a pattern (though I believe it is the simplest, cheapest and labor effective pattern of going through the tribulation) if they believe there are any better means of using these tools and preparation for the tribulation, they ought to do proper research according to what applies to their country, circumstances and currency.

Most of this chapter's research has been sped up through Ai.

Due to the near-undeniable likelihood that the U.N. Intergovernmental World Peace Organization is the White Horseman First Seal of Revelation and that everything concerning the pre-tribulational signs of the end times has been perfectly fulfilled, the pre-tribulational rapture having been disproven and rightfully rejected as not having any sort of Biblical, nor Christian-historically credible basis of theological truth; It is then, due to every alarm bell and every emergency siren having spiritually sounded as we have seen the fig-tree's branch being tender and putting forth leaves, we know that the summer of the great Tribulation is near, at the doors. (Mark 13:28-29)

It is therefore sufficient for saints to know that they must (in order to be ready to prepare for the necessary assets they will need for the tribulation the moment the third Jewish temple begins construction in Jerusalem) continue to obey the Biblical commandments to both work and be wise about their expenses in having back-up savings that they can easily use to afford an immediate small loan from the bank to be able to afford the necessary food, winter clothing, and minimalist hidden storage assets the moment that the signs of a third world war begin to emerge, if not when it begins.

Warning signals that the Red Horseman is about to be unleashed on the earth:

- The Third Judaistic Temple begins rebuilding
  (begin to save up as much as possible for the assets needed)

- The Third Judaistic Temple has been rebuilt, Judaism practiced in Jerusalem
  (have sufficient savings stored and put away safely for the proper time, if not build up on them with the RIGHTFUL mentality that nothing else no longer matters in this world)

- World News and media alertness for when tensions begin to rise concerning world powers
  (Begin to buy the re-sellable items, as most of the assets can be resold)

- World War 3 begins
  (Buy every asset possible and prayerfully and prudently consider relocating according to the wisdom given in Revelation)

As Revelation 6 gives us a brief idea, saints (that are not involved in the conflict) would have at least (theoretical) over a year, if not more or less to buy all the food and assets they will need to strengthen them through the tribulation.

Saints of western countries [U.S and allies] as well as saints in super-power eastern countries with western enmity (e.g. Russia, China, North Korea etc.) can strategically prepare on where they can be relocated at least 100km away from every major city and military base, to prevent possible nuclear-based casualties as every military in the world estimates that such world-scale conflict has a high expectancy and near-guaranteed case scenario in that (the third world war) will most likely be strategically fought with ballistic bombardment on civilian areas, as well as probable thermonuclear means.

Saints need to (per families or very small groups for safety to avoid in-tribulation asset exposure and detection that will become so precious, many will be willing to kill for) with all their 7-10 year assets ready (per family) as well as a means to transport food, water and all other necessary amenities/items.

[HIGH PRIORITY]

U.S. Saints are strongly urged in that, if after a third world conflict takes places and the news of world-wide crops failing and there being an evident sign of a world-wide famine (being the third seal of Revelation) to immediately begin to make preparations to evacuate the U.S. north-wise (to the northern regions of Canada, if the cold permits) due to the United States (as is the well-received and common view of most of the modern Christian world) being very likely, if not evident for it to be the manifestation of the modern day, "Great Babylon" head and major influence of the world's nations that will be utterly "burned with fire" in "under one hour" (Rev 18:8; Rev 17:16-18) after its failed opposition against the antichrist (Rev 17:16-18)

U.S. saints are not to evacuate anywhere else under any circumstance and this due to every other continent (apart from a few countries) being under the antichrist's dominion (Rev 13:3) (Dan 11:40-43) as well as apart from middle and south America due to its overpopulation's high crime and known dangers, specially to that of a large scale North American migrants in a starving world.

Saints can also begin to prepare by downloading and watching every tutorial possible for full survivability (by families, or very small groups of Christian communities) during the tribulation period which include knowledge on all the needful seclusions from general society, as well as in-tribulation communal labors to stay secure, well fed, keep warm and hydrated, as well as keep safe during the hopeful 12 year phase during the tribulation period.

One of the perfect means to avoid the world-wide persecution that will come against Christians by the antichrist's 42 month reign (the which at this stage, as ironically as it sounds and as Paul would agree with his final letter to the churches in 2 Timothy, if Christians aren't crazy enough to not want to be beheaded in the antichrist's kingdom so they can partake as millennial rulers with Christ's in His millennial reign only a few years later, more on that later) seeing that there will still be a remnant on earth by the time the end comes, as of 1 Thessalonians 4:14-18 is to (as small communal parties of up to one or two families) relocate to secluded towns (apart from the unfolding chaos in general society) with their assets and immediately begin minimalist communal underground food barrel storage, as well as cheap and affordable earth-bag home shelter construction (in a place of safety and if necessary) to store all in-tribulation necessary assets for what could be estimated to be a 12 year tribulational period and not the wishful 7 years that is usually taught in modern day eschatological theology.

Wherever the assets are prudently and secretly stored within families is where families can remain near either through tents and an established communal work, or in near-by houses of shelter if safely accessible (keep in mind that after the 6th seal is broken, the entirety of the world will be in darkness under a moon turned to blood during the tribulational period and transport access, as well as acquiring transport assets may not be a feasible option, which is why saints ought to highly and strongly count the cost of their calling and realize that an in-tribulation relocation is their final place of abiding on this earth either before they willingly choose (spiritually highly advisable) to be decapitated when the antichrist's world kingdom arrives or up until the Lord Jesus Christ returns.

By setting up an in-tribulation communal cooperative plan within believing households (being apart from society for general security) they can enjoy communal meals, church services, Bible studies and communal interaction with proper added safety measures (as it is necessary)

The List and documents for all items needed are attached bellow, as well as selling of personal possessions that can help afford all of the necessary of an estimated 12 years of tribulation

Many modern-day to-cook foods can last in good storage and be preserved for up to 25 years (some indefinitely) ideally in 10-21 degrees Celsius in dry and dark environments, as well as airtight packaging under FIFO stock rotation, these being canned food, as well as red wine, bread-flower, salt, water and sugar (that will be needful for keeping the Lord's supper)

Cans ARE NOT ENTIRELY RECOMMENDED as the vast majority of these expire only after 5-6 years without proper storage solution, making the gathering of food far more expensive than many can afford. Cans that go bad can also be filled with worms that can then, if opened, cause a nuisance, if not contaminate food storage. Everyone at their own discretion.

However what s recommended is that, on top of the food already listed (the vitally essential) one could, if it can be afforded buy as many foods of cans as they want (knowing and being conscious of their expiry dates) being mindful that these foods will become delicacies and very rare and luxurious privileges during the tribulation period, it could help many saints slowly get used to the lesser food (by the time 5 years have gone by) and make eating the main stored food more bearable.

BY MINDFUL WHEN COOKING FOOD AS THE SMELL OF IT CAN ATTRACT UNWANTED ATTENTION, AS WELL AS DANGERS.

B.1 Long Lasting Edibles For The Keeping of The Lord's Supper

As well as daily meals.

The Below list has been sped up through Ai research.

Reader is urged to copy and paste this list on Ai to be given all results in their native language and country's currency.

Survival Bread (Hardtack): the only bread that can last indefinitely

- Composed of just flour, water, and salt.
- Baked until bone-dry and extremely dense.
- Ships very well, resists spoilage, and can last years if kept dry

Hardtack bread can be made of refined white flour—like all-purpose or white bread flour, it can last the longest in normal storage (up to 2 years at room temperature, or longer if stored cold)

However,

For truly long-term flour storage (being 10+ years) use Mylar bags with oxygen absorbers, vacuum sealed, and kept cool and dark.

How much hardtack bread will be necessary to add to a meal (out of three daily) for an average adult and also be able to use on Sunday's for the keeping of the Lord's Supper?

To calculate how much white flour you would need for hardtack bread to feed an average adult for 3 meals a day over 12 years and 1 month, let's break it down into manageable steps:

Note: Most of the below research was sped up and calculated through Ai.

Reader is urged to copy and paste this list on Ai to be given all results in their native language and country's currency.

Assumptions:

- 1 serving of hardtack (per meal) = 2–3 pieces, depending on the size of each piece. We'll assume around 100g of hardtack per meal. (This is a general estimate, since hardtack is dense and will vary slightly depending on thickness, recipe, etc.)
- 1 kg of flour typically makes around 5–7 servings of hardtack (again, depending on the recipe, but this is a reasonable average).
- We need to account for 3 meals a day and plan for 12 years and 1 month (approximately 4,400 days).

Step 1: Determine daily flour requirement

Daily hardtack serving:

- 100g per meal × 3 meals = 300g per day of hardtack.

Step 2: Flour per serving of hardtack

Since 1 kg of flour yields about 5–7 servings of hardtack, let's use the middle range and assume that 1 kg of flour makes 6 servings of hardtack.

Thus, each 100g serving of hardtack requires about 167g of flour (1000g ÷ 6 servings ≈ 167g per serving).

Step 3: Calculate total flour for 1 day
Each day's serving requires 300g of hardtack, and since each 100g of hardtack takes about 167g of flour to make, we'd need:

- 300g of hardtack × 167g flour per 100g of hardtack = 501g of flour per day.

  Step 4: Total flour for 12 years and 1 month (4,400 days)

  Now, let's multiply by 4,400 days to find the total flour needed:

- 501g per day × 4,400 days = 2,204,400g (or 2,204.4 kg of flour).

  Conclusion: Flour Needed for 12 Years and 1 Month of Hardtack

  You would need approximately 2,204.4 kg of white flour to make enough hardtack to feed an average adult 3 meals a day for 12 years and 1 month.

Summary of Total Flour Costs:

- Total cost in USD (for 2,204.4 kg of flour): $1,453 USD.
- Total cost in AUD (for 2,204.4 kg of flour): $2,253 AUD.

Reader is urged to copy and paste this list on Ai to be given all results in their native language and country's currency.

For practical storage:

- Reader is urged to copy and paste this list on Ai to be given all results in their native language and country's currency.
- You would want to store this amount of flour in an airtight, moisture-free environment, like in Mylar bags with oxygen absorbers, to ensure it stays fresh and viable over long periods.

  If you're storing smaller quantities, keep in mind that even vacuum-sealed flour can have a 2-year shelf life at room temperature, so you would likely need a rotating storage system. But this amount, in optimal storage conditions, could last much longer.

  Storage for long-term preservation

  1. Volume of 2,204.4 kg of white flour:

  To figure out how much space the 2,204.4 kg of white flour will take up, we need to know the volume of flour since we are storing it in barrels. The density of white all-purpose flour is about 0.593 g/cm^3.

- Density = 0.593 g/cm^3 means 593g of flour takes up 1 liter (1,000 cm^3).

Converting kilograms of flour to liters:

1. Convert kg to grams:
   2,204.4 kg = 2,204,400 grams of flour.

2. Volume of flour in liters:
   *2,204,400 grams593 grams per liter≈3,717.5 liters|frac{{2,204,400 |text{ grams}}}{{593 |text{ grams per liter}}} |approx 3,717.5 |text{ liters}*593 grams per liter2,204,400 grams ≈3,717.5 liters

So, 2,204.4 kg of flour will take up about 3,717.5 liters.

Volume of a 55-gallon barrel:

A 55-gallon drum has a capacity of 55 gallons, and to convert that into liters:

1 gallon = 3.78541 liters, so:

*55 gallons×3.78541 liters/gallon≈208.2 liters per drum55 |text{ gallons} |times 3.78541 |text{ liters/gallon} |approx 208.2 |text{ liters per drum}*55 gallons×3.78541 liters/gallon≈208.2 liters per drum

Number of barrels required:

Now we can calculate how many 55-gallon barrels will be required:

*3,717.5 liters208.2 liters per barrel≈17.84 barrels|frac{{3,717.5 |text{ liters}}}{{208.2 |text{ liters per barrel}}} |approx 17.84 |text{ barrels}*208.2 liters per barrel3,717.5 liters ≈17.84 barrels

So, 18 barrels will be needed to store all 2,204.4 kg of flour.

Cost of the barrels:

Let's estimate the cost of the barrels. 55-gallon plastic drums typically range in price from $30 USD to $100 USD each, depending on quality and whether they are new or used.

We'll estimate the cost at two different price points:

- Low-end price (used or basic): $30 USD per barrel

- High-end price (new, food-grade, or higher quality): $100 USD per barrel

Total cost in USD:

- Low-end cost (used or basic):
  18 barrels × $30 USD = $540 USD.
- Low-end cost in AUD:
  $540 USD × 1.55 ≈ $837 AUD.

- High-end cost (new, food-grade):
  18 barrels × $100 USD = $1,800 USD.
- High-end cost in AUD:
  $1,800 USD × 1.55 ≈ $2,790 AUD.

Summary:

- Flour required: 2,204.4 kg (~3,717.5 liters).
- Barrels needed: 18 barrels (55-gallon).

Estimated costs:

- Low-end (used/basic barrels)
  - USD: $540
  - AUD: $837
- High-end (new, food-grade barrels):
  - USD: $1,800
  - AUD: $2,790

In regards to the Wine

Reader is urged to copy and paste this list on Ai to be given all results in their native language and country's currency.

Here's the updated version including average prices in AUD and USD, using current exchange rates (≈ 1 AUD = 0.66 USD)

What is a Goon Sack

- A "goon sack" is the inner flexible plastic bag (in a boxed wine / wine cask).
- Common size is 4 litres per goon sack.
- Advantages: much lighter/less fragile than glass bottles; keeps wine fresher longer once opened.

How Many Goon Sacks You'd Need (12 years, weekly communion, family of 5-7)

Same assumptions as before (one sip per person per week, 624 weeks total, sip size ~15-25 mL).
Estimated goon sacks of 4L each:

Sip-size	Family of 5 over 12 years	Family of 7 over 12 years
~15 mL	~ 12 goon sacks	~ 17 sacks

Sip-size	Family of 5 over 12 years	Family of 7 over 12 years
~20 mL	~ 16 sacks	~ 22 sacks
~25 mL	~ 20 sacks	~ 28 sacks

Plan conservatively, allow for some extra, say ~20-30 sacks for a family of 7.

Average Price in AUD & USD per 4L Cask in Australia

From current listings:

- De Bortoli Premium Shiraz-Cabernet 4L cask: AUD $24.00
- Some cheaper goon sacks: Golden Oak 4L casks at AUD $13.00
- Dan Murphy's "budget" 4L cask wines for ~$9.99 AUD in some lines.

Using the current exchange rate (≈ 0.66 USD per AUD)

Price in AUD	Approx USD equivalent
AUD $24.00 →	≈ USD $15.84
AUD $13.00 →	≈ USD $8.58
AUD $9.99 →	≈ USD $6.60

Updated Cost Estimates Over 12 Years

Using those price ranges, here's how much total cost might be, depending on number of sacks needed (for a family of 5-7, using earlier estimates) and quality level:

Scenario	Number of 4L sacks needed	Cost at low price (~AUD $10 / sack)	Cost at mid price (~AUD $20-25 / sack)
Family of 5, sip ~15 mL → ~12 sacks	12	≈ AUD $120 (≈ USD $79)	≈ AUD $300 (≈ USD $198)
Family of 7, sip ~25 mL → ~28 sacks	28	≈ AUD $280 (≈ USD $185)	≈ AUD $700 (≈ USD $462)

B.3 Amount of Barrels for Storage and Cost

Rice

To calculate the amount of barrels/drums for storing the only long-lasting foods that can be stored for about 10+ years each, the following calculations can be made per person:

Capacity Calculation

Rice density:

- Uncooked white rice density ≈ 720 kg/m^3, or 0.72 kg/L Gumtree+4eBay+4eBay+4
- At ~200 L (~0.20 m^3), a drum could hold roughly 144 kg of rice (0.20 m^3 × 720 kg/m^3).

Practical storage estimates:

- Real-world reports show about 400 lb (~181 kg) of rice per 55-gallon drum eBayeBay

So, each drum holds ~150–180 kg depending on packing.

How Many Drums Are Needed for 876 kg?

- At ~144 kg per drum → ≈6.1 drums → round to 6 drums
- At ~180 kg per drum → ≈4.9 drums → still best to use 5–6 drums

To allow room for Mylar bags, oxygen absorbers, and headspace, the recommended total is:

Total drums required: 6 drums

Approximate Drum Costs (Cheapest Used Food-Grade)

Based on online listings:

- Used food-grade 55 gal plastic drum with lid: around USD 45–50 eBay+4eBay+4eBay+4
- Assume USD 50 each → for 6 drums = USD 300
- At exchange rate ~1 AUD = 0.65 USD, this is about AUD 75 per drum → 6 drums ≈ AUD 450

Total Rice Value

- Quantity: 876 kg
- Estimated cost: USD 1,670 / AUD 2,453

Summary Table

Item	Quantity	Unit Price (USD)	Unit Price (AUD)	Total Price (USD)	Total Price (AUD)
55-gal food-grade drum	6	USD 50	AUD 75	USD 300	AUD 450
White rice (876 kg)	—	—	—	USD 1,670	AUD 2,453
Total estimated cost	—	—	—	USD 1,970	AUD 2,903

So the answer:

- A single 55-gallon drum cannot hold 876 kg of rice.
- You need 6 drums to accommodate that amount with proper headspace and packing.

- Estimated cost for 6 used food-grade drums: USD 300 (~AUD 450).
- Adding the rice value (USD 1,666 / AUD 2,453) brings the grand total to about USD 1,966 or AUD 2,903.

Dried Beans/Lentils

Calculating the storing 438 kg of dried beans/lentils (100 g/day × 4,380 days) using 55-gallon drums—including the total drums required plus estimated cost in AUD and USD, and the total value of the legumes:

Capacity Calculation

- Typical bulk density of dried beans is approximately 700 kg/m^3 Survival Tech Shop+2All About Food Storage+2ShunPoly+2CalculatorsHub+6Engineering ToolBox+6CalculatorsHub+6 (white beans ~730 kg/m^3 Always Ready Prepper+2Kg-M3+2CoolConversion+2).
- A 55-gallon drum (≈208 L or 0.208 m^3) would hold:
  - 0.208 m^3 × ~700 kg/m^3 ≈ 145 kg of beans per drum.
- Practical experience from storage sources indicates a 55-gal drum holds around 400 lb (~181 kg) of grains or beans ShunPoly+1Basco+1.

Thus each drum fits roughly 145–180 kg of dried legumes depending on packing method.

Drum Count Needed for 438 kg

- At ~145 kg each → 3.0 drums (438 ÷ 145 ≈ 3.02)
- At ~180 kg each → 2.4 drums

Given the need for headspace, Mylar bags, and oxygen absorbers, the safe recommendation is 3 drums.

Estimated Drum Costs (Cheapest Used Food-Grade)

- Used 55-gal food-grade plastic or steel drum: about USD 50 each (budget listing)
- For 3 drums = USD 150

- At exchange rate ~1 AUD = 0.65 USD → about AUD 75 each → AUD 225 for 3 drums.

Value of Beans/Lentils

- Quantity: 438 kg
- Estimated total cost: USD 876 / AUD 1,314

Summary Table

Item	Quantity	Unit Price (USD)	Unit Price (AUD)	Total Price (USD)	Total Price (AUD)
55-gal food-grade drum	3	USD 50	AUD 75	USD 150	AUD 225
Dried beans/lentils (438 kg)	—	—	—	USD 876	AUD 1,314
Grand total estimate	—	—	—	USD 1,026	AUD 1,539

Final Takeaways

- A single 55-gal drum cannot hold 438 kg of beans or lentils.
- You would need approximately 3 drums to accommodate that volume safely, including space for Mylar lining and oxygen absorbers.
- Estimated drum cost: USD 150 / AUD 225; total value including legumes: USD 1,026 / AUD 1,539.

Powdered Milk

Here's your revised breakdown for storing 219 kg of powdered milk using 55-gallon drums, including the total number of drums required, plus estimated drum cost in AUD and USD, and the value of the powdered milk:

Capacity Calculation

Powdered milk density:

- Bulk density varies depending on the type:

- A common value is around 210 kg/m³ for standard dairy powder Coles+4GEA+4UDC Milk+4Iteh Standards+2powderprocess.net+2bulksolidsflow.com.au+2Milk Value Portal+5kg-m3.com+5ADPI+5.
- Some sources suggest 449 kg/m³, but that's typically for denser or instant varieties and less reliable for cost calculations aqua-calc.comaqua-calc.com.

Using the conservative density of 210 kg/m³, a 55-gallon drum (~208 L ≈ 0.208 m^3) could hold:

- ~0.208 m^3 × 210 kg/m^3 ≈ 44 kg per drum.

Even using the higher density (449 kg/m^3), it would hold ~93 kg—still less than half of 219 kg.

Drum Count Needed for 219 kg

- At ~44 kg per drum → requires 5 drums (219 ÷ 44 ≈ 4.98).
- Even at ~90 kg per drum → 3 drums.

To allow for headspace, Mylar/oxygen absorbers, and avoid over-packing, the safe recommendation is:

Total drums required: 5 drums

Estimated Drum Costs (Cheapest Used Food-Grade)

- Used 55-gallon food-grade plastic drum (with lid): roughly USD 50 each.
- For 5 drums = USD 250
- Exchange rate ~1 AUD = 0.65 USD → AUD 77 each → AUD 385 for 5 drums.

Value of Powdered Milk

Using recent wholesale market data:

- Global wholesale powdered milk ranges USD 2.66–3.05 per kg The Guardian+2Milk Value Portal+2foodbomb.com.au+2Tridge.
- Using a mid estimate of USD 3.00/kg:

- 219 kg × USD 3.00 = USD 657
- Converted to AUD (÷0.65) ≈ AUD 1,011

Summary Table

Item	Quantity	Unit Price (USD)	Unit Price (AUD)	Total Price (USD)	Total Price (AUD)
55-gal food-grade drum	5	USD 50	AUD 77	USD 250	AUD 385

Grand total estimate	—	—	—	USD 907	AUD 1,396

Key Takeaways

- A single 55-gallon drum cannot hold 219 kg of powdered milk.
- You will need approximately 5 drums based on a density of ~210 kg/m^3 for packing with headspace and sealing essentials.
- Estimated cost for drums: USD 250 / AUD 385
- Estimated powdered milk value: USD 657 / AUD 1,011
- Total estimated investment: USD 907 (~AUD 1,396)

Textured Vegetable Protein

Here's the detailed breakdown for storing 219 kg of textured vegetable protein (TVP) using 55-gallon drums, including the number of drums required, estimated container costs in AUD and USD, and the value of the TVP:

Capacity Calculation

Estimated bulk density:
TVP (textured soy or plant protein) is a dry expanded product with approximate density of 200–250 kg/m^3 when compressed moderately directsourcingingredients.co.uk+4en.wikipedia.org+4dir.tridge.com+4.

Assuming a conservative density of 220 kg/m^3, a 55-gallon drum (~208 L or 0.208 m^3) would hold ~46 kg per drum (0.208 m^3 × 220 kg/m^3).

Some bulk practices suggest a drum might hold up to ~60 kg, but to allow packing in Mylar bags and oxygen absorbers, we base practical storage at ≈45-50 kg per drum.

Drum Count Needed for 219 kg

- At ~46 kg per drum → ≈4.8 drums, thus 5 drums for safe packing and headspace.

Estimated Drum Costs (Cheapest Used Food-Grade)

- Used food-grade 55-gal plastic drum (with lid): approx USD 50 each
- For 5 drums → USD 250
- At an exchange rate of 1 AUD ≈ 0.65 USD, drums cost about AUD 77 each → AUD 385 total

Estimated Value of TVP (Wholesale Price)

- Latest reported export/import prices from the UK indicate TVP ranges from USD 0.43-0.46/kg in 2024 estore.icifoods.com+2dir.tridge.com+2en.wikipedia.org+2
- Using mid-point of USD 0.45/kg, for 219 kg → USD 98.55
- Converted to AUD: USD 98.55 ÷ 0.65 ≈ AUD 152

Summary Table

Item	Quantity	Unit Price (USD)	Unit Price (AUD)	Total Price (USD)	Total Price (AUD)
55-gal food-grade drum	5	USD 50	AUD 77	USD 250	AUD 385
TVP (219 kg)	—	USD 0.45/kg	—	USD 99	AUD 152

Grand total estimate	—	—	—	USD 349	AUD 537

Key Takeaways

- A single 55-gal drum cannot hold 219 kg of TVP.
- Proper storage requires 5 drums to allow for headspace, bagging, and sealing.
- Estimated drum cost: USD 250 / AUD 385
- Estimated TVP value: USD 99 / AUD 152
- Total investment: USD 349 (~AUD 537)

Freeze-Dried Vegetable & Fruit Mix

Here's your detailed breakdown for storing 131 kg of freeze-dried vegetable & fruit mix using 55-gallon drums, including number of drums required, estimated drum cost in AUD and USD, and estimated value of the freeze-dried mix:

Capacity Calculation

Bulk density estimate:

- While specific densities for mixed freeze-dried fruit & vegetables vary, dried vegetables like peas (~800 kg/m^3) and fruit powders/slices often range from 400–600 kg/m^3 depending on compaction brusco.co.uk+4preparedirect.com+4masitrading.com+4engineeringtoolbox.com+1 mpd-inc.com+1.
- Using a conservative average of ~500 kg/m^3, a 55-gallon drum (approx. 0.208 m^3) would hold:
    - 0.208 m^3 × 500 kg/m^3 ≈ 104 kg per drum

Allowing headspace and room for Mylar bags plus oxygen absorbers, we will consider ~100 kg per drum.

Drum Count Needed for 131 kg

- At ~100 kg per drum → 2 drums needed (131 ÷ 100 ≈ 1.31 → round up).

Estimated Drum Costs (Cheapest Used Food-Grade)

- Used food-grade 55-gal plastic drum (with lid): ~USD 50 each
- For 2 drums → USD 100
- At exchange rate ~1 AUD ≈ 0.65 USD, each drum ≈ AUD 77, so AUD 154 total.

Estimated Value of Freeze-Dried Mix

- Retail/bulk pricing for freeze-dried vegetable/fruit blends is approximately USD 30–36 per kg (~£25–35/kg) based on listings from suppliers on PrepareDirect and FreezeDryWholesalers freezedrywholesalers.com.
- Using an estimate of USD 32/kg for bulk frozen vegetable & fruit mix:
  - 131 kg × USD 32 = USD 4,192
  - Converted to AUD: USD 4,192 ÷ 0.65 ≈ AUD 6,450

Summary Table

- Total investment: about USD 4,292 (~AUD 6,604)

Honey

Here's your detailed breakdown for storing 40 kg of honey using 55-gallon drums, including the number of drums required, estimated drum cost in AUD and USD, and value of the honey:

Capacity Calculation

Density of honey:

- Honey density typically ranges between 1.38–1.45 kg/L at ~20 °C Selina Wamucii+14kg-m3.com+14bellhoney+14grow.decorexpro.com+7Wikipedia+7allthingshoneyandmore.com+7.
- That equates to about 1.4 kg per liter, or roughly 0.71 L per kg ccalculators.co.uk.

Drum capacity:

- A 55-gallon drum holds ≈208 L (≈0.208 m^3).
- At density ~1.4 kg/L, one drum can theoretically hold up to ≈291 kg of honey, but practical packing will be less due to need for containers (jars, Mylar, etc.).
- Realistically, even one drum easily accommodates 40 kg of honey, with significant headspace remaining.

Drum Count Needed for 40 kg

- Since one drum can hold nearly 300 kg, storing 40 kg requires just one drum.
- There's ample space for containers, oxygen absorbers (optional), and maneuvering.

Estimated Drum Cost (Cheapest Used Food-Grade)

- Used food-grade 55-gal plastic drum with lid: approx USD 50 each.
- For 1 drum → USD 50.
- At exchange rate ~1 AUD = 0.65 USD → AUD 77 per drum. wholesalehoney.co.ukHampson Honey

Granulated Sugar

Here's your streamlined guide for storing 66 kg of granulated sugar, highlighting the most suitable drum type based solely on the quantity:

Capacity Check

- Bulk density of granulated sugar is approximately 700 kg/m^3 (or 0.7 kg/L) PackagingGURUji+5Wikipedia+5Golden Barrel+5Material Properties+6Kg M3+6Engineering ToolBox+6.
- A standard 55-gallon drum (approx. 208 L or 0.208 m^3) can hold roughly 146 kg of sugar (0.208 m^3 × 700 kg/m^3) Material Handling+1Basco+1.

Since 66 kg is much less than 146 kg, a single 55-gallon drum is more than sufficient to store this amount, with generous space remaining for packing materials.

Drum Recommendation

- Only one 55-gallon (208 L) food-grade drum is needed to accommodate all 66 kg of granulated sugar.
- This capacity allows for internal packaging such as Mylar bags and oxygen absorbers, without overfilling or compromising headspace for sealing.

No larger or multiple containers are necessary for this quantity.

Estimated Cost of Storage

- Used 55-gallon food-grade plastic drum: approx. USD 50 (AUD ≈ 77 at ~1 AUD = 0.65 USD) Material Handlingcontainerexchanger.com

Estimated Value of Sugar

- Wholesale price of granulated sugar: ~USD 1.55/kg globally Golden Barrel+8Engineering ToolBox+8murphyandson.co.uk+8.
- 66 kg × USD 1.55 = USD 102.30, which converts to ≈ AUD 157

Summary Table

Item	Quantity	Unit Price (USD)	Unit Price (AUD)	Total Price (USD)	Total Price (AUD)

55-gal food-grade drum	1	USD 50	AUD 77	USD 50	AUD 77
Granulated sugar (66 kg)	—	USD 1.55/kg	—	USD 102.30	AUD 157
Grand total	—	—	—	USD 152.30	AUD 234

Final Takeaways

- A single 55-gallon drum comfortably accommodates 66 kg granulated sugar.
- This size provides plenty of extra volume for packaging and ensures easy, secure sealing.
- Estimated total storage cost including container and contents: USD 152 (~AUD 234).

Non-Iodized Granulated Salt

Here's your streamlined guide for storing 26 kg of granulated non-iodized salt using the most suitable single drum, with relevant container choice, size confirmation, and estimated value:

Capacity & Container Suitability

- Bulk density of granulated salt is approximately 1,280 kg/m^3 (~1.28 kg/L) lifemedz.com+2illingcompany.com+2hapman.com+2engineeringtoolbox.com+1en.wikipedia.org+1.
- A standard 55-gallon drum holds ~208 L (0.208 m^3) facebook.com+7containerexchanger.com+7materialhandling.com+7.
- That means one drum capacity translates to:

0.208 m^3 × 1,280 kg/m^3 ≈ 266 kg of salt

Since 26 kg is merely ~10% of that capacity, a single 55-gallon drum is more than adequate to hold all the salt, with plenty of headspace remaining for internal packaging, oxygen absorbers, moisture control, and secure sealing.

Recommended Drum Type

- Use one food-grade, open-head 55-gallon plastic drum (HDPE) with a tight-sealing lid.

- Alternative: open-head steel food-grade drum, but plastic is lighter and corrosion-resistant.
- No need for multiple drums given the small quantity.

Estimated Price (Drum Only, Cheapest Option)

- Estimated cost for a used 55-gallon food-grade plastic drum with lid: USD 50.
- At current exchange rates (~1 AUD = 0.65 USD), that equals roughly AUD 77.

Estimated Value of Salt

- Wholesale cost for granulated non-iodized salt typically ranges from USD 0.20–0.50 per kg (bulk industrial grade).
- Assuming USD 0.25/kg, 26 kg equates to USD 6.50, or approximately AUD 10.

Summary Table

Item	Quantity	Unit Price (USD)	Unit Price (AUD)	Total Price (USD)	Total Price (AUD)

Grand total estimate	—	—	—	USD 56.50	AUD 87

Final Takeaways

- A single 55-gallon drum is more than sufficient for storing 26 kg of salt, with ample room for packaging.
- Recommended: a food-grade open-head HDPE drum with a tight lid.
- Estimated total cost (container + contents): USD 57 (~AUD 87).

Recommended Drum

- One 55-gallon (208 L) food-grade HDPE (plastic) drum with a tight-sealing lid is ideal for storing 16 L of soy sauce.
- This provides ample headspace for packaging materials and ensures secure sealing.

Estimated Cost (Drum Only, Cheapest Option)

- Estimated cost for a used 55-gallon food-grade plastic drum with lid: USD 50.
- At current exchange rates (~1 AUD = 0.65 USD), that equals roughly AUD 77.

Estimated Value of Soy Sauce

- Wholesale cost for soy sauce typically ranges from USD 0.50–1.00 per liter.
- Assuming USD 0.75/L, 16 L equates to USD 12.00, or approximately AUD 18

Summary Table

The Grand Total for minimum food resources for an estimated average of a 12 years and one month tribulation period:

- 26 barrels per person, with all the Mylar bag gallons and air absorbers, the which assets guarantee the barrels to be full of decades-lasting-food for 12 years at an approximate:

- 4-5 MONTHS of full-time work's worth if savings are non-existent (or worth the selling of a few owned items) it is highly recommended to get the loans necessary to be able to buy these assets also that can easily be re-sold and the money repaid to the bank/lenders if the tribulation stage does not occur in due time after the rebuilding of the third temple (the which tribulation not happening is very unlikely in itself)

- IT IS STRONGLY ADVISED: Before due time for the famine that all the foods and barrels (in a minimalist catacomb room and storage facility) at least 2.5 meters underground (8 feet) At this depth, soil temperatures typically stabilize between 50°F to 75°F (10°C to 24°C) which is ideal for preserving the quality and longevity of stored food. Every other height and rising in temperature before the sun becomes darkened and the moon turns to blood can damage the food's life longevity and bring it to a sooner expiration than that which is usually anticipated.

- All of this food can be stored in organized groups of barrels 2.5 meters underground with proper sealing for retrieval whenever necessary (if a safe house big enough cannot be found apart from society).

- Families can choose to evenly use their barrels' food resources to avoid confusion and other issues by only using a set of 26 barrels at a time per household.

- 26 barrels can also be stored within a house/minimalist earthbag-house-like catacomb-like storage facility within a family and the rest be buried in two lines each per person in a secret location (if storage big enough for all the barrels in a family cannot be accessed).

- The rest of all the barrels can be buried just below the ground in secret locations near the communal area if there are no other private places to store them at.

B.4 Recommended Storage Items for In-Tribulation Living

- Water cisterns (6 m^3) per family member, can be built through a further tunnel underground (most logical option) or near-by in secret locations.
- Bigger water storage cisterns can be installed also that can be filled with water and bitter water for both showering and doing laundry.
- Fire extinguishers.
- Tents for privacy per person (with set up ground beds, sheets, blankets, night time emergency buckets, sanitizer towels, personal bins etc.)
- Off-grid-no-sun manual power generators (pedal generators) that charge powerbanks to charge devices and recharges rechargeable batteries.
- Strong powerbanks that can recharge devices off-grid daily (powered by the pedal generators).
- Rechargeable batteries (mainly AA and AAA).
- To watch news and stay watchful on world events off-grid [Portable Satellite Dish] + LNB → coax → [Free-to-Air Decoder Box] → HDMI → [USB-C to HDMI adapter (if tablet requires it)] → Tablet USB-C port.
- Sliding mesh door system on roof for airflow with a basic wooden camouflaged cover on top for privacy (can be removed every few hours during the day and be reinstated for nighttime hours).
- A small kitchen (where minimalist plates, cooking ware, utensils and cups can be stored) as well as general rubbish bin.
- Logs and wood storage (for cooking, showering and keeping warm).
- Mobile devices and other electronics that can be used to watch the news.
- Artisan or heritage bakers (for making unleavened bread).
- A small storage facility for 12 years' worth of toiletries (that can also be gathered in society near a small town throughout the tribulation before the mark of the beast is enforced) and other necessary items.

- An outside rubbish-burying area for cleanliness.
- A mini shower cubicle within each tent with a rectangular bucket to dispose of dirty water after (or within each tent).
- An outside communal natural toilet near the underground minimalist catacomb.
- First aid kits and other medical emergency items.
- A set of small stairs and a camouflaged ground hatch to enter in and walk out (the entire underground storage room is not meant to have an aqueduct system, not to mention the issue of animals or rodents entering in, if one isn't getting in or getting out, keep it shut at all times).

While the rest of the barrel quantities (in rows per family) can be buried around the area to be retrieved when necessary (Every two or three years). Every emptied barrel can be used for filling up emergency water supply for the tribulation's drought's drinking necessity.

A request for all Canadian born again Christians: Please store at least 42 months' worth (3 years and six months) of extra food and water (on top of the 12 years) for an entire second family (may the Lord repay you at the resurrection of the just) due to the most probable mass Christian exodus of believers from the United States to the regions of Canada (by the end of the Two Witnesses' prophetic days and the revelation of the antichrist) due to the United States' guaranteed thermonuclear destruction due to the U.S. much very likely (and very unlikely not to be) the manifestation of modern Great Babylon (Rev 17 and Rev 18) and receive such believing families as your own. Canadian Christians are urged to depart at least 100km's away (one hour's highway drive) opposite of United States' borders.

If the White Horse UN I US I NATO view is correct (and it is almost certain that such is the case) then the red horse second seal would be imminent afterwards, whether manifested in 5 years, to 1 to 2 or more decades (it would be impossible to predict a precise time) the seal being a world-wide conflict by means of war (a great sword used to symbolize great warfare as the world has never seen it before) (wherein the peace that was put in the earth by the white horse is taken away) then the white horse time-frame (now) is the time wherein Christians ought to be as reformed in their eschatological view as possible and continue to work as hard as possible to save as much as possible to have back up funds and savings so that if the red horse hits, they can begin to purchase all of the food and materials necessary for extra storage and secure survivability in preparation to the tribulation years.

B.5 Earthbag-home Minimalist Catacomb Storage and Instructions.

If it's too dangerous to store food or stay in safety houses in cities/towns (away from mountains as these will be drastically shaken by the 6th Seal before the sun gets darkened and the moon is turned to blood) to have 12-years' worth of resources, as well as to store needful water supplies, if the wilderness, or private natural places (when society is not functioning and is in chaos) it is highly advisable to begin privately and quietly building (night time) with watchful sentries (wearing night vision googles and having silent walkie talkies keep watch in case there's need to cease work and hide)

As soon as the resources have been bought, they can be transported at nighttime to the area of labor to build:

- An underground storage room that can store 12 year's-worth of minimalist resources (earthbags based for most minimal pricing)

- X1 Just-bellow-the-ground 6m3 water cistern for drinking 2L daily per person (earthbags based also, buried around communal area)

- X1 Just-bellow-the-ground 6m3 water cistern for minimalist rapid showering 2L per person (earthbags based also, buried around communal area)

- All the barrels will be buried just below the ground in areas around the communal area also, with only one set of barrels being used in a communal manner until it is time for the next.

- All of these centered around the communal area where the tents will be set up.

- Sentries take turns day and night (x4 hours each) to keep watch (in a camouflaged manner) so that if necessary, alert everyone (silent walkie talkies, nighttime vision goggles also for nighttime) in case of approaching threats so that tents can be rapidly put down and dragged into the storage room, as well as everyone as they hide, pray and reason the case scenario until there's a resolution.

If families aren't discovered during the antichrist's dominion and survive the tribulation, their places of hiding must be with as minimal people as possible (within families in themselves, if not one or two families maximum, for all it takes for everyone to be discovered is one wrong person.)

Every camp should be significantly close to a water source to be able to rapidly fill up the water cisterns as well as to use the water for laundry, recreational water activities and other needful water needs (as well as to keep the cisterns as intact as possible for when they're needed)

U.S. Saints should only have enough resources for about 7 years if they choose to stay in America (not recommended) until the Two Witnesses ascend after the antichrist's revelation and 42-month reign.

Reminder Request for Canadian Christians: Please store double the amount of resources per family for an approximate seven year period (3.5 years two witnesses, 3.5 years of the antichrist's reign) (the Lord will repay you at the Resurrection of the Just)

B.6 Underground Water Cistern Storage (for coming world-wide droughts)

How much water would be needed per person if the average adult needs at least 2 L worth of water during the tribulation's drought period?

Due to the "7-years-only" of "Daniel's Week of Trouble" having been disproven and although the breaking of the seven seals period is unknown, we know that by the time the third angel's trumpet sounds (the wormwood star that will dry a third of the rivers of the earth) there will be at least 5 following months of world-torture (locusts) – an unknown time period between the two witnesses – and then the two witnesses 3 years, five months and 11 days ministerial preaching, followed by the antichrist's revelation and 3 years and six month reign,

All of these events form the wormwood star falling on the rivers of the earth being a total of at least 7 years and five months' worth of water need.

This would mean that each average person would need to store a total of 5,415 liters worth of water in a 5.4 m3 storage tank.

Breaking down the tribulation period

First seal: UN 80 years.

If the UN view is correct, then we are here during an indefinite period.

Tribulation begins, Second seal, WWIII: one year (or less, if not more)

Third seal, nuclear fall-out damaged crops, famine: one year (or less, if not more or with permanent effects)

Fourth seal, plague diseases and death: one year (if not less or more)

Fifth seal, heavenly honouring of the martyrs: one year (if not less or more)

Six seal, nuclear winter forms, cloud of the LORD darkens the sun, turns the moon to blood and the stars fall, worldwide earthquake, guaranteed tsunamis: (one event with permanent effects in the celestial lights until the end of the tribulation)

About 4 years minimum, if not slightly less or more

Seventh seal: seven trumpets

- Golden Sencer thrown on the earth, earthquake and world thundering
- T1 heil with fire, mingled with blood, third of trees and all grass burnt: one month (if not less or more)
- T2 Meteorite Mountain thrown on the sea, third part of sea dies, guaranteed tsunamis: one month (if not less or more)
- T3 Wormwood star falls on a third part of the rivers of the earth: one month (if not less or more)
- T4 A third of the celestial lights struck: Most likely immediately or shortly after the wormwood star falls

- T5/W1 Locusts: 5 months (definite)
- T6/W2 4 angels and 2 million army: 1 month (if not less or more)

  Angel's preaching days 1 month (if not less or more)

Best case scenario for trumpet judgements before the Angel's preaching and the Two Witnesses, 1 year minimum (if not less or more)

(appearing only until the end of the six trumpets) Two witnesses: 3 years, five months and eleven days.

T7/W3 the kingdoms of the world become the kingdoms of our God and of His Christ

Antichrist's Ascencion and reign: 42 months (the seven vials will fall during this period) = 3 years and six months (1 year and 9 months of a good pact with the Jewish nation, being 21 months and 1 year and 9 months of betrayal of the covenant – this is likely the period of the "troublesome news from the north and east" wherein the antichrist will "annihilate many" by destroying Babylon (the United States of America) with most-likely thermonuclear destruction by his 10 rulers from the east and by the end of the 1 year and 9th month surround his armies at Mount Megiddo to try to destroy Israel before our Lord and Saviour returns to destroy him, as well as the wicked and establish His millennial reign.

Best case scenario for the real time-frame period of the entire tribulation:

First 7 seals: Best case scenario, 5 years.

6 Trumpets: Best case scenario, 1 year.

Angel's preaching: Best case scenario, 1 week or 1 month.

Two Witnesses preaching: 3 years, 5 months and 11 days.

Antichrist's reign until the only second coming of Christ: 3 years and 6 months.

(if all the trumpets only sound in under one year): 12 years, 11 months and 18 days (if not less or more due to indefinite time periods)

How would we know how many years we need to store up water for?

(Regardless of the uncertainty of the timeframe for the tribulation)

Because many of the waters of the world will be turned bitter by the time the wormwood star falls (Rev 8:10-11) and knowing that by the ministry of the two witnesses and the total reign of the antichrist of revelation will be about 6 years and 11 months total (not to mention the total time frame for the remaining trumpets after the wormwood star falls, being 5 months (locusts) as well as the 2 million army (unknown period perhaps 1 month) saints have to store up at least 7 years and five months' worth of drinkable water per person to keep the average adult hydrated (being an average of 5,415 liters) and that because the third angelic bowl judgement WILL turn all the world's waters into blood. (Rev 16:4-5)

In other words (this is entirely theoretical):

Definite Timeframe: Red
Indefinite Timeframe: Blue

- T3 Wormwood star: 1 month (if not less or more)
- T4 Celestial lights struck: Most likely immediately or shortly after the wormwood star falls
- T5/W1 Locusts: 5 months (definite)
- T6/W2 4 angels and 2 million army: 1 month (if not less or more)
- Angel's preaching days 1 month (if not less or more)
- Two witnesses: 3 years, 5 months and 11 days.
- Antichrist's ascension and reign: (the seven vials will fall during this period)

  3 years and 6 months

  7 years, 4 months and 11 days are definite for needed water storage.

  The Wormwood star, Celestial lights, Four Angels and 2 million beast army and The Angel's preaching days (that precedes the two witnesses) are indefinite.

  If we assume 1 month for each of these indefinite time periods, we have another 4 months, being 7 years, 8 months and 11 days.

> Yet, in case it takes longer, it wouldn't be unwise to add extra storage that adds double to this time period, being in total 8 years and a month.
> So, the wisest thing saints could do from before the wormwood star falls is save 8 years' worth of water reserves per person to keep hydrated, that being about 6,000L with an underground wall-like cistern of only 6m3.

There are many ways one can store 6,000 Liters worth of water for the average adult during this time-frame, yet the cheapest, most dissimulated and fastest means possible is by applying the wisdom given in the middles ages and create underground water cisterns, the which each can be built in a space of about 3-4 weeks and be freely filled with water after (It is recommended that construction begins as soon as the third seal breaks and world famine is evident)

Below is a guide for the water cistern, its materials required and the average timeframe per person for its build up.

Specifications

- Required storage: 2 L/day × 365 days × 8.083 years ≈ 5,900 L → round up to 6 m^3
- Interior dimensions: 2.0 m long × 1.5 m wide × 2.0 m deep → exactly 6 m^3
- Wall thickness: ~0.3 m for strength
- External footprint: approx. 2.6 m × 2.1 m

Why Stone & Opus Signinum?

- Opus signinum, a Roman-invented hydraulic plaster made of lime, sand, and pottery shards, was used extensively in medieval cisterns for its waterproofing properties livesofthepast.com+13Cambridge University Press & Assessment+13scipedia.com+13livesofthepast.committelzeit.blogspot.com+2lostkingdom.net+2hiddenhydrology.org+2.
- Many medieval cisterns (e.g., in Jerusalem) used stone walls with opus linings to reliably store water for years—even centuries everythingjerusalem.com+1livesofthepast.com+1.

B.7 Off-grid non-solar power generation set up (for charging portable devices)

That will give sufficient electricity to power up devices, radios, silent walkie talkies etc.

If the church goes off-grid to be as far apart from society as possible during the chaos of the tribulation and families create minimalist catacombs to store up to 12 years' worth of supplies and remain hidden, they will need to remain constantly informed of the news and

It is highly recommended for saints to purchase at least two or three pedal generators as means of back up, as well as two Powerbanks to use in cycle modes to not wear out one too rapidly e.g. Powerbank A used to power devices on day one, Powerbank B used to power devices on day two (Powerbank A gets recharged on day two) Powerbank A used to power devices on day three (Powerbank B gets recharged on day three) Powerbank B used to power devices on day four (Powerbank A gets recharged on day four) and so on. One should have at least three types of cable chargers for the chosen mobile devices for back up.

B.8 Off-grid satellite tablet for news events if apart from homes or establishments.

To be ablet to stay informed on world-events and watch the news.

There are three means news can be watched while in hiding, these are:

1. Portable satellite dish to converter to tablet (that gives free-to-air television)
    a. Mini versions of these antenna receivers that can be plugged into a phone and have television access through apps (if the area has good satellite coverage)
    b. Tablets can be recharged daily through the portable power bank empowered by the pedal-electric generator.

2. Portable survival radios that connect to radio frequencies for news (no video)

3. If the portable satellite to tablet, or portable radios are not an option, place of hiding isn't too far away from a local town, a volunteer or two can go watch the news, access the internet by asking people (wisely) or find newspapers and return them.

An overview of the set up and changing channels

1. What Happens Behind the Scenes

The connected chain flows like this:

[Satellite Dish + LNB] → coax → [Free-to-Air Decoder Box] → HDMI → [USB-C to HDMI adapter (if tablet requires it)] → Tablet USB-C port

- The decoder box receives and decodes the satellite signal (e.g. Freesat, VAST), turning it into standard HDMI video output.
- Your tablet (if it supports video input over USB-C alt-mode), or via adapter, shows that HDMI as if it's a live video feed.

2. Tablet Requirements for Displaying HDMI Input

- Tablet must support USB-C DisplayPort alt-mode input (rare feature; Samsung Galaxy Tab S8/S9 series, some iPad Pro models with HDMI adapters, or Android tablets that accept HDMI input).
- If native input isn't supported, tablets generally cannot display HDMI signals directly.

If compatible:

- No extra app needed — the tablet will automatically display the HDMI feed.
- Otherwise you may need to use a portable monitor instead of the tablet.

3. Step-by-Step Setup Instructions

1. Align Dish and Lock Signal
    a. Position your QuickSAT or TravelSat dish with tripod.
    b. Use built-in tone finder or LED meter to align toward the satellite (Freesat/Astra or VAST).
2. Connect Coax Cable → Receiver
    a. Plug RG-6 F-type coax from dish’s LNB into the satellite receiver's input.
3. Power On Receiver & Run Channel Scan
    a. Provide DC 12 V from your power bank or solar generator.
    b. Use receiver’s onboard menu to scan for Free-to-Air channels (Australian VAST or European Freesat).
4. Connect HDMI Out from Receiver → Tablet
    a. Use HDMI cable from decoder → into USB-C adapter (if tablet needs it) → into tablet port.
5. Tablet Displays TV Signal
    a. If your tablet supports alt-mode input, the live video appears automatically.

b. Some tablets like Samsung Galaxy Tab S8/S9 can propel DeX mode; switch to “screen mirroring” or projector input mode as needed AndroidAyuda+2XP-Pen+2iMobie+2TheTechyLife.

6. Control the Decoder Using Receiver Remote

   a. Change channels, access EPG (program guide), volume, etc., via receiver’s IR or remote.

Additional Tablet Behavior Notes

- No specific app is needed — typical decoder behaves like any HDMI source.
- Some tablets auto-switch input when they detect HDMI over USB-C; otherwise go to display input menu.
- Samsung DeX mode may engage automatically for Galaxy tablets when external display is connected Lifewire.

About the Author

Thank you for your time in reading this theological exposition, as well as informative work. May God bless you as I encourage all readers to deeply meditate and prayerfully consider the applied reforming context of this book. I am a trinitarian protestant Baptist born again Christian, as well as a theologically studied and experienced church preacher, minister and evangelist. I graduated in the field of Journalism and have been committed to near-full-time Biblical and theological studies for ten years since my conversion.

The Lord knows it is true that apart from the sections wherein the usage of Ai (in rapid research areas) has been fully declared, almost every other part of this document (95%) has been manually written.

I am determined to make all of the contents of the Eschatological Christian Reformation of the 21st Century free and its labor's wages honest by only asking for very limited support from sufficient and limited frequent donors/patrons. If you would like to support my work by becoming a frequent donor/patron (if circumstances permit) or if you're an overseer/elder and there's an internship/ministerial opportunity within your church (Reformed Baptist) and are prayerfully persuaded it is of the Lord's calling for me to join your church's ministering to the saints, please feel free to email me at ECR21.help@outlook.com

Thank you once again and may the Lord bless you.

Kind regards,

THE UN WHITE HORSEMAN

Uncovering the open secret that was evident since the day it started

D. A. D'ANTONIO

"With the pre-tribulation events having been fulfilled before our very eyes, the common phrase that most Christians unanimously find themselves quoting to each other is, "We are living in the last days". Yet, what deludes most Christians into believing that the very end and main tribulation is yet far away is the saddening deception of a “pre-tribulational rapture” false hope that originated in the 1830's, as well as a vain awaiting of a geo-politically impossible, "one world order" to arise and thus reveal the, "political ascending antichrist" as the White Horseman. Thus giving Christians everywhere a false sense of security in what will become (if unrepentant) an entirely unforeseen and unprepared living nightmare the moment the Red Horseman is unsealed, revealing the near-undeniable and evident truth in that the White Horseman Seal of the book of Revelation and the peace period that it brought to the world (in preventing global conflict) had been opened before us all along.
